Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On June 15, 2007, Ronald E. "Eric" Martinez, Jr., resigned as the executive vice president, Utility Operations of AGL Resources Inc. (the "Company"), effective immediately, to accept a position at Safeco Corporation in Seattle. As his successor, the Company appointed Henry P. "Hank" Linginfelter, its senior vice president, Mid-Atlantic Operations, to serve as executive vice president, Utility Operations effective June 18, 2007.

Item 8.01 Other Events

On June 18, 2007, the Company issued a press release to announce certain promotions and organizational changes within its leadership team, including Hank Linginfelter's promotion from senior vice president, Mid-Atlantic Operations, to executive vice president, Utility Operations, effective June 18, 2007, where he will assume responsibility for both Southern and Mid-Atlantic utility operations.

Effective June 18, 2007, Mr. Linginfelter, along with Ralph Cleveland, senior vice president, Engineering and Operations, have been promoted to serve on the Company's policy committee, the senior most group of company executives who are responsible for developing the business goals and strategies of the Company. Messrs. Linginfelter and Cleveland now will report directly to the Company's president and chief executive officer, John W. Somerhalder II.

Further, Jodi Gidley, vice president Gas Operations and Process Services, has been named senior vice president, Mid-Atlantic Operations, succeeding Mr. Linginfelter. Ms. Gidley also assumes roles as president of Elizabethtown Gas, Elkton Gas and Virginia Natural Gas.

AGL Resources Inc.'s press release announcing the above matters and certain business experience and professional and civic activities of Messrs. Linginfelter and Cleveland and Ms. Gidley is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this report.
