Item 2. Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On November 23, 2003, Omni Medical Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") signed an Asset Purchase Agreement, which was deemed to have been completed as of December 1, 2003, by and between McCoy Business Services, Inc., a Kentucky corporation ("McCoy"), and the Company, and whereby the Company purchased all of McCoy's tangible assets related to medical transcription services provided by McCoy and assumed McCoy's lease for its principal office space. The consideration for this transaction was $360,000, with $120,000 having been paid at closing and $240,000 to be paid in eight quarterly payments of $30,000 each, with an earnout provision, which is described fully in the Asset Purchase Agreement.

The purchase price was allocated $60,000 for equipment, furniture and other depreciable assets; $240,000 for a related Covenant Not to Compete of Marlene McCoy, McCoy's principal stockholder and director and executive officer, who was also given a two year Employment Agreement; and $60,000 as goodwill. MCCOY BUSINESS SERVICES

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2002 and 2001

NOTE A--DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Business: McCoy's Business Services, Inc. (the Company) is located in Louisville, Kentucky and primarily operates two divisions. (Effective December 10, 2003, the Company changed its name to McCoy Financial Services, Inc.) McCoy Business Services (McCoy Business) provides medical transcription services to medical practitioners. McCoy Financial Services (McCoy Financial) provides a wide range of financial services primarily focused at individual customers.

Basis of Presentation: In 2003, the tangible assets of McCoy Business were acquired by Omni Medical Services, Inc. (Omni) (See Note G). Accordingly, the financial statements presented are for the McCoy Business division only. Effective January 1, 2002, the Company began to separately account for the two operating divisions. Accordingly, no allocation of accounts was necessary in

Edgar Filing: OMNI MEDICAL HOLDINGS INC - Form 8-K

2002. Prior to this time, the Company had not separately accounted for these two divisions. Therefore, management has specifically identified accounts directly related to McCoy Business for purposes of these financial statements. Overhead expenses were shared by the two divisions and have been allocated evenly between the divisions, which is management's best estimate. The Company also had a coffee shop operation during 2001, which was accounted for separately. Therefore, it is not included in these financial statements.

NOTE B--BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Estimates: Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenues and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were used.

Accounts Receivable: McCoy Business grants credit to its customers, generally without collateral. McCoy Business considers accounts receivable to be fully collectible; accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts is required. If amounts become uncollectible, they will be charged to operations when that determination is made.

Property and Equipment: Property and equipment are carried at cost and are being depreciated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which range from 5 to 7 years.

Statement of Cash Flows: For purposes of the statement of cash flows, McCoy Business considers all short-term investments with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Cash paid by the Company as a whole for taxes was $3,680 and $6,737 for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

Concentration of Credit Risk: McCoy Business maintains cash balances at a local bank. The cash account is insured by FDIC up to $100,000. Cash balances did not exceed insured limits in both years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001.

Revenue Recognition: Revenue is recognized at the time when the services are performed.

Income Taxes: Deferred taxes are provided for temporary differences in reporting certain transactions for financial and tax purposes, principally relating to differences in accounting for transactions on the accrual basis versus the cash basis and depreciation of fixed assets.

Edgar Filing: OMNI MEDICAL HOLDINGS INC - Form 8-K

NOTE C--INCOME TAXES

As previously discussed, McCoy Business is a division of the Company. Therefore, their results of operations combined with the total Company operations determine the tax position of the Company as a whole. For purposes of these financial statements, the tax provision for McCoy Business has been calculated on a stand alone basis. Significant components of McCoy Business' net deferred tax assets (liability) as of December 31 are as follows:

	2002	2001
Deferred tax assets (liabilities):
Tax over book depreciation	$ (8,233)	$ (4,971)
Cash to accrual (cash basis taxpayer)	(25,020)	(18,921)

The significant components of income tax expense (benefit) are as follows:

NOTE--RELATED PARTY

The due to/from related party relates primarily to amounts resulting from the allocation of expenses between McCoy Business and McCoy Financial.

As discussed in Note A, the Company had a previous coffee shop operation. McCoy Business had advanced funds to this operation. During 2001, the coffee shop was sold and the outstanding advances due to McCoy Business of $58,691 were deemed uncollectible and charged to bad debt expense.

NOTE F--RETIREMENT PLAN

The Company has a defined contribution retirement plan that covers substantially all employees, including those of McCoy Business. The plan also contains a deferred-salary arrangement under a Simple IRA. Under the deferred-salary arrangement, employees can contribute up to $7,000 for 2002 and $6,500 for 2001. Company may match up to the first 3% of the gross pay. All contributions are required per the plan adopted by the employer under IRS 5304-Simple. Contributions paid to the plans and charged to operations amounted to $1,378 for 2002 and $1,997 for 2001.

NOTE G--SUBSEQUENT EVENT

Effective December 1, 2003, McCoy Business was acquired in an asset purchase agreement by Omni Medical Services, Inc., (Omni) a corporation based in South Dakota. Omni agreed to purchase the tangible assets related to and used in the operation of the business related to medical transcription services, and all existing contracts and proposals with all of McCoy Business' medical transcription clients. In connection with the agreement, a covenant not to compete for a period of two years and a twenty-four month employment agreement to assist in the transition of the business were both entered with the owner of McCoy Business.

The total purchase price under the agreement was $360,000. The purchase price of the acquisition has been allocated based on the fair value of all identifiable assets at the date of acquisition. The purchase price exceeded the fair value of the identifiable assets by $60,000.
