Item 4.02. Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review

(a) Based upon discussions with the Staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), the Chief Financial Officer of Transcontinental Realty Investors, Inc. ("TCI" or the "Company" or the "Registrant") concluded on March 27, 2012 that the financial statements contained in TCI's Forms 10-Q for the quarters ended June 30, 2011 and September 30, 2011 require adjustments as a correction of an error and should be labeled as "restated" and therefore should no longer be relied upon because of an error in such financial statements as addressed in FASB ASC Topic 250. The facts underlying such conclusion involve transfer of assets between TCI and American Realty Investors, Inc. ("ARL") occurring in prior years. During an 8 year period following the consolidation of TCI as of March 2003, ARL sold to TCI a total of 14 properties (most of which were transactions for undeveloped land) for a total purchase price of $116,000,000. ARL's cost basis for such transactions was $60,000,000 resulting in a total step-up in basis for TCI of $56,000,000. The consideration provided for such acquisitions was through intercompany obligations, not cash transfers. Of the $56,000,000 step-up in TCI's basis from such sales, approximately $26.5 million related to assets no longer held by TCI which were sold in 2011. To better comply with the accounting literature and requirements, TCI reduced its intercompany obligations to ARL and reversed the income statement effect resulting from the disposition of such assets. This results in an increase in net income of approximately $26.5 million for TCI.

Assets still held by TCI include the remaining $29.5 million step-up in TCI's basis. TCI has reduced the basis and these real estate assets and its intercompany obligation to ARL. There have been no impairment required for such assets and therefore no corresponding income statement adjustment was necessary. The adjustments have no effect on the ARL consolidated financial reporting as all of the transactions were eliminated by ARL in its consolidation of TCI.

The balance sheet effect of such adjustments is insignificant when compared to the total assets of approximately $1.2 billion. Further, the only year impacted by the income statement adjustment is 2011 and such adjustments have now been made for the quarters ended June 30, 2011 and September 30, 2011.

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors and the Chief Financial Officer discussed with the Registrant's independent accountant the matters disclosed in this filing.
