This Form 6-K contains forward-looking statements based on beliefs of our management. Any statements contained in this Form 6-K that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements as defined in the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These include, without limitation, statements related to: our belief that the need for intuitive PC interfaces will continue, and with it the opportunity for Logitech products; our expected sales and operating income for fiscal 2002 and the potential for the continuing growth of our business.

We have based these forward-looking statements on our current expectations and projections about future events, including: general economic and business conditions; attracting and retaining personnel; competition in the computer peripheral industry; implementing our business strategy; developing and introducing new services and products; obtaining and expanding market acceptance of our services and products; and meeting changing customer requirements and emerging industry standards. All forward-looking statements are subject to various risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from expectations. The factors that could affect our future financial results are discussed more fully under "Risk Factors" in the prospectus attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference as well as in our Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended March 31, 2001 as filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and in our other filings with the SEC.
