Executive shall at all times be subject to, observe and carry out such rules, and regulations as the Corporation from time to time shall establish. During the period of Executive's employment hereunder, Executive shall not be entitled to additional compensation for serving in any office of the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries to which he is elected, including without limitation as a director of the Corporation.

3. Executive shall be employed for a term of five (5) years commencing as of the 1st day of March, 2007 and ending on the 28th day of February, 2012 (the "Term"), unless his employment is terminated prior to the expiration of the Term pursuant to the provisions hereof.

(i) any "person" or "group" (as such terms are used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"), which is not currently a person who controls (within the meaning of Rule 12b-2 promulgated under the Exchange Act), individually or as a member of a group, the Company is or becomes the "beneficial owner" (as defined in Rule 13d-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of securities of the Corporation representing 50.1% or more of the combined voting power of the Corporation's then outstanding securities.

Accordingly, in the event of any such breach or threatened breach by Executive, the Corporation shall be entitled to such equitable and injunctive relief as may be available to restrain Executive from the violation of the provisions thereof. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the Corporation from pursuing any other remedies at law or in equity for such breach or threatened breach, including the recovery of damages and the immediate termination of the employment of Executive hereunder.
