INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN THE REPORT

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On December 20, 2006, NovaStar Financial, Inc. (the Company) amended its Employment Agreement dated September 30, 1996 between the Company and Scott F. Hartman; its Employment Agreement dated September 30, 1996 between the Company and W. Lance Anderson; its Employment Agreement dated July 15, 2004 between the Company and Michael L. Bamburg; its Employment Agreement dated July 15, 2004 between the Company and Gregory Metz; and its Employment Agreement dated July 15, 2004 between the Company and Dave Pazgan (collectively the Original Agreements).

Each of the amendments to the Original Agreements adds a provision requiring the Company to pay the executive an additional amount equal to any excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), if the payments payable upon the executive s termination after a Change in Control (as defined in the respective Original Agreements) are considered excess parachute payments under Section 280G of the Code.

The Original Agreements were also amended to comply with Section 409A of the Code. The amendments provide that in the event of a Change in Control (as defined in the respective Original Agreements), each executive will receive a severance payment in a single lump sum as soon as possible if the Company terminates the executive s employment other than for Cause (as defined in the respective Original Agreements) or six months after the executive s termination of employment for Good Reason (as defined in the respective Original Agreements). Prior to the amendments, the Original Agreements required 50% of the severance payment to be paid five days after termination and the remaining 50% to be paid in twelve equal monthly installments. The amount of the severance payments that may be due as a result of a Change in Control was not modified and is equal to three times (or two times for Messrs. Bamburg, Metz and Pazgan) the executive s base salary and his bonus compensation for the preceding year, provided the severance payment will not be less $500,000 (or $360,000 for Mssrs. Hartman and Anderson) nor more than 1% of the Company s book value.

All the amendments to the Original Agreements are included as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2, 10.3, 10.4 and 10.5 and are incorporated herein by reference.
