The Neumeister Retirement Agreement provides that: (i) Mr. Neumeister will step down as the Company's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, effective October 5, 2005; (ii) Mr. Neumeister will retire as an employee of the Company on January 2, 2006; (iii) during the period commencing October 6, 2005 and ending January 2, 2006, Mr. Neumeister will (a) assist the Company's new Chief Financial Officer transition into his new position and (b) render such additional assistance relating to the Company's financial affairs as the Company's Chief Executive Officer may reasonably request; (iv) on January 3, 2006 (or such earlier date as the Company may determine in its sole discretion), the Company will pay Mr. Neumeister the sum of $984,375; (v) Mr. Neumeister will continue to receive all benefits customarily provided to executives of the Company through January 2, 2006; (vi) during the period commencing February 1, 2006 and ending January 31, 2009, Mr. Neumeister will be entitled to receive continued health care and welfare coverage under the Company's plans with respect thereto (for which Mr. Neumeister will pay all premiums); (vii) those of Mr. Neumeister's stock options that are currently vested but unexercised will terminate on June 30, 2006 if not exercised by such date; (viii) those of Mr. Neumeister's stock options that are scheduled to vest automatically on December 31, 2005 will vest on such date and will terminate on June 30, 2006 if not exercised by such date; (ix) except as described in clause (xi) below, those of Mr. Neumeister's stock options that are scheduled to vest based on the Company's achievement of its 2005 EBITDA targets will vest at the same time and to the same extent as applicable to the Company's senior executive officers and remain exercisable for a period of ninety (90) days after the vesting determination is made; (x) except as described in clause (xi) below, all of Mr. Neumeister's stock options that are scheduled to vest with respect to the year ending December 31, 2006 will vest and become fully exercisable on January 2, 2006 and will terminate on December 31, 2006 if not exercised by such date; (xi) all of Mr. Neumeister's stock options will become fully vested and exercisable immediately prior to any Change of Control (as such term is defined in the Neumeister Retirement Agreement) and, in connection with any such Change of Control, will be converted into fully vested options of the person acquiring control of the Company that have substantially comparable economic value (with those of Mr. Neumeister's stock options that are scheduled to vest with respect to the year ending December 31, 2007 vesting and becoming exercisable if, and only if, a Change of Control occurs on or prior to June 30, 2006); and (xii) if it is determined that any payment or benefit provided to Mr. Neumeister under the Neumeister Retirement Agreement would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), then the Company will pay to Mr. Neumeister an additional payment in an amount such that, after payment by Mr. Neumeister of all taxes (including any excise tax), Mr. Neumeister retains an amount equal to such excise tax. Under the Neumeister Retirement Agreement, Mr. Neumeister agreed to a general release of claims against the Company and to certain non-competition and non-solicitation obligations. the Merger is not consummated, the Burnett Letter Agreement will be void ab initio. The Burnett Letter Agreement provides that: (i) if, at any time prior to the fourth anniversary of the Effective Time (as that term is defined in the Merger Agreement), Mr. Burnett's employment with the Company (which, for purposes of the Burnett Letter Agreement, includes any successor to Dex Media, Inc.) is terminated for any reason or he ceases for any reason to continue in the position of Chairman of the Board of RHD, subject to Mr. Burnett's execution of a general release of claims against the Company, the Company will (a) pay Mr. Burnett a lump sum cash amount equal to 1.5 times his then-current annual base salary (which shall not be less than $475,000) plus his then-current target annual bonus (which shall not be less than 75% of his annual base salary) and (b) allow Mr. Burnett to be eligible to continue to receive health and welfare benefits from the Company for three years following the termination of his employment (for which Mr. Burnett will pay all premiums); (ii) all of Mr. Burnett's stock options will become fully vested and exercisable immediately prior to the Effective Time, subject to the consummation of the Merger; (iii) each of Mr. Burnett's stock options outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will be converted into fully vested RHD options with an economic value that is substantially identical to the value of Mr. Burnett's outstanding stock options immediately prior to the Effective Time; (iv) each stock option shall expire on the first to occur of (A) the tenth anniversary of the option's grant date, (B) the first anniversary of Mr. Burnett's termination of employment due to death or disability or (C) the 15th day of the third month following the date of termination of employment for any reason other than death or disability (or December 31 of the calendar year in which such termination of employment occurs, if later); (v) as of the Effective Time, the Company shall assign, and RHD shall assume, all rights and obligations under the Burnett Letter Agreement; and (vi) if it is determined that any payment or benefit provided to Mr. Burnett under the Burnett Letter Agreement would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code, then the Company will pay to Mr. Burnett an additional payment in an amount such that, after payment by Mr. Burnett of all taxes (including any excise tax), Mr. Burnett retains an amount equal to such excise tax. A copy of the Burnett Letter Agreement is filed with this report as Exhibit 10.2 and is incorporated herein by this reference.

(c) On October 2, 2005, the Company entered into a letter agreement (the Neal Letter Agreement) with Marilyn Neal, the Company's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, which amended Ms. Neal's amended and restated employment agreement and stock option agreements. The Neal Letter Agreement provides that: (i) effective January 1, 2006, Ms. Neal will be available to work on such schedule as shall be reasonably agreed upon by the Company and Ms. Neal; (ii) the Company will pay or reimburse Ms. Neal for her reasonable relocation and home sale expenses incurred in connection with her relocation from the Denver metropolitan area to Florida (up to a maximum of $250,000) (and, if Ms. Neal is unable to sell her Colorado residence by the earlier of the Effective Time or April 1, 2006, she will instead receive a lump sum payment of $250,000); (iii) if Ms. Neal's employment with the Company (which, for purposes of the Neal Letter Agreement, includes any successor to Dex Media, Inc.) is terminated by the Company without Cause, by Ms. Neal for Good Reason (as those terms are defined in Ms. Neal's amended and restated employment agreement) or by Ms. Neal for any other reason, then, subject to Ms. Neal's execution of a general release of claims against the Company, the Company will (a) pay Mr. Neal a lump sum cash amount equal to 1.5 times her then-current annual base salary (which shall not be less than $325,000) plus her then-current target annual bonus (which shall not be less than 75% of her annual base salary), (b) pay to Ms. Neal a pro rata portion of her target annual bonus for the year of termination, (c) allow Ms. Neal to be eligible to continue to receive health and welfare benefits from the Company for three years following the termination of her employment (for which Ms. Neal will pay all premiums); (iv) all of Ms. Neal's stock options will become fully vested and exercisable as of the date of the termination of her employment, provided, however, that (X) all of Ms. Neal's stock options will become fully vested and exercisable immediately prior to the Effective Time, subject to the consummation of the Merger, and (Y) Ms. Neal's stock options outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will be converted into fully

A copy of the Neal Letter Agreement is filed with this report as Exhibit 10.3 and is incorporated herein by this reference.

(d) On October 2, 2005, the Company entered into a letter agreement (the "Pomeroy Letter Agreement") with Scott Pomeroy, then the Company's Senior Vice President - Finance, which amended Mr. Pomeroy's amended and restated employment agreement and stock option agreements. The Pomeroy Letter Agreement provides that, effective October 5, 2005: (i) Mr. Pomeroy will assume the position of Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company; (ii) the term of Mr. Pomeroy's amended and restated employment agreement will be extended through October 2, 2008; (iii) Mr. Pomeroy's base salary will be $275,000 and his annual target bonus will be 75% of his annual base salary and (iv) 26,000 restricted shares of the Company's common stock will be awarded to Mr. Pomeroy pursuant to the Company's 2004 Incentive Award Plan. The Pomeroy Letter Agreement also provides that, effective immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger: (i) if Mr. Pomeroy's employment with the Company (which, for purposes of the Pomeroy Letter Agreement, includes any successor to Dex Media, Inc.) is terminated by the Company without Cause (as that term is defined in Mr. Pomeroy's amended and restated employment agreement) or by Mr. Pomeroy for Good Reason (as that term is defined in the Pomeroy Letter Agreement), then, subject to Mr. Pomeroy's execution of a general release of claims against the Company, the Company will (a) pay Mr. Pomeroy a lump sum cash amount equal to 2 times his then-current annual base salary plus his then-current target annual bonus and (b) allow Mr. Pomeroy to be eligible to continue to receive health and welfare benefits from the Company for three years following the termination of his employment (for which Mr. Pomeroy will pay all premiums); (ii) those of Mr. Pomeroy's stock options that are scheduled to vest automatically on December 31, 2005 will vest on such date; (iii) those of Mr. Pomeroy's stock options that are scheduled to vest based on the Company's achievement of its 2005 EBITDA targets will vest at the same time and to the same extent as applicable to the Company's senior executive officers; provided, however, that if any such stock options remain unvested immediately prior to the Effective Time, such stock options will vest and become fully exercisable immediately prior to the Effective Time, subject to the consummation of the Merger; (iv) those of Mr. Pomeroy's stock options that are scheduled to vest with respect to the year ending December 31, 2006 will vest and become fully exercisable immediately prior to the Effective Time, subject to the consummation of the Merger; (v) all Mr. Pomeroy's stock options that are scheduled to vest with respect to the year ending December 31, 2007 (the "2007 Options") will be converted to time-vesting options and will become fully exercisable on December 31, 2007; provided, however, that if, on or prior to the second anniversary of the Effective Time, his employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by Mr. Pomeroy for Good Reason, the 2007 Options will become fully vested and exercisable as of the date of termination; (vi) each stock option shall expire on the first to occur of (A) the tenth anniversary of the option's grant date, (B) the first anniversary of Mr. Pomeroy's termination of employment due to death or disability or (C) the 15th day of the third month following the date of termination of employment for any reason other than death or disability (or December 31 of the calendar

In the event the Merger is not consummated, the provisions of the Pomeroy Letter Agreement described in the preceding sentence will be void ab initio. A copy of the Pomeroy Letter Agreement is filed with this report as Exhibit 10.4 and is incorporated herein by this reference.

Company shall assign, and RHD shall assume, all rights and obligations under each SVP Letter Agreement; and (ix) if it is determined that any payment or benefit provided to an SVP under his or her SVP Letter Agreement would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code, then the Company will pay to such SVP an additional payment in an amount such that, after payment by such SVP of all taxes (including any excise tax), such SVP retains an amount equal to such excise tax. A copy of the form of SVP Letter Agreement is filed with this report as Exhibit 10.5 and is incorporated herein by this reference.
