Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 16, 2009, Tyco Electronics Ltd. (the "Company") entered into a new form of indemnification agreement (the "indemnification agreement") with members of its Board of Directors. The new form of indemnification agreement is governed by the substantive laws of Switzerland now that the Company has changed its place of incorporation from Bermuda to the canton of Schaffhausen, Switzerland. The indemnification agreement is intended to provide directors with the maximum protection available under applicable law in connection with their services to the Company. The form of indemnification agreement is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1.

The indemnification agreement provides, among other things, that subject to the procedures set forth therein, the Company will, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, indemnify an indemnitee if, by reason of such indemnitee's corporate status as a director, such indemnitee incurs any losses, liabilities, judgments, fines, penalties or amounts paid in settlement in connection with any threatened, pending or completed proceeding, whether of a civil, criminal, administrative or investigative nature. The indemnification agreement will provide for the advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee, subject to certain exceptions, in connection with any proceeding covered by the indemnification agreement. The indemnification agreement also requires that the Company cover an indemnitee under liability insurance available to any of the Company's directors, officers or employees.

The description of the indemnification agreement set forth under this Item 1.01 is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete terms and conditions of the form of indemnification agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.
