INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN THE REPORT

ITEM 8.01. Other Events

On December 13, 2018, a Consolidated Edison, Inc. (“Con Edison”) subsidiary completed its acquisition of Sempra Solar Holdings, LLC pursuant to a purchase and sale agreement with a Sempra Energy subsidiary (the “Acquisition”). The purchase price for the Acquisition was $1,609 million, including $69 million of working capital and other closing adjustments. For additional information about the Acquisition, see Con Edison’s Current Report on Form 8-K, dated September 20, 2018.

ITEM 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation Under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant

On December 13, 2018, Con Edison borrowed $825 million pursuant to a credit agreement (the “Credit Agreement”), a copy of which is filed as an exhibit to this report. Con Edison used the proceeds from the borrowing, along with $705 million from the physical settlement of 9,324,123 of its Common Shares ($0.10 par value) pursuant to certain forward sale agreements and $79 million of other company funds to pay the purchase price for the Acquisition. For additional information about the forward sale agreements, see Con Edison’s Current Report on Form 8-K, dated November 14, 2018.

Pursuant to the Credit Agreement, the borrowing bears interest at variable rates and matures on June 11, 2019. Con Edison has the option to prepay the borrowing. The borrowing is subject to mandatory prepayment, subject to certain exceptions, with the net cash proceeds of debt or equity issuances or asset sales by Con Edison or its subsidiaries. If a change in control of Con Edison occurs or if an event of default shall have occurred and be continuing, the lenders may declare the borrowing, accrued interest and other amounts to be immediately due and payable. Events of default include: the failure to pay principal, interest or fees on the borrowing; the failure to observe or perform covenants, including that Con Edison’s ratio of consolidated debt to consolidated total capital not at any time exceed 0.65 to 1 and that, subject to certain exceptions, neither Con Edison nor its subsidiaries will create, assume or suffer a lien or other encumbrance on its assets; any representation or warranty proving to have been incorrect in any material respect when made (or deemed made); the failure of Con Edison or any material subsidiary to make one or more payments in respect of material financial obligations; the occurrence of an event or condition which results in the acceleration of the maturity of any material debt of Con Edison or enables the holders of such debt to accelerate the maturity thereof; and other customary events of default. The foregoing description of the Credit Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Credit Agreement.
