ITEM 1.01. ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

On March 8, 2005, Gardner Denver, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") with Thomas Industries Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Thomas Industries"), and PT Acquisition Corporation, a Delaware corporation and a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (the "Merger Sub"). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, the Merger Sub will merge with and into

Edgar Filing: GARDNER DENVER INC - Form 8-K

Thomas Industries, with Thomas Industries continuing as the surviving corporation and a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (the "Merger").

At the effective time and as a result of the Merger, stockholders of Thomas Industries will become entitled to receive $40.00 in cash in exchange for each issued and outstanding share of Thomas Industries common stock. At the effective time of the Merger, holders of each outstanding stock option, stock appreciation right and performance share issued under Thomas Industries' equity compensation plans will also become entitled to receive $40.00 in cash, less the applicable exercise price in the case of stock options, subject to applicable withholding or other taxes.

The Company and Thomas Industries have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement. The completion of the Merger is subject to approval by the stockholders of Thomas Industries and the satisfaction of other customary conditions, including antitrust approval from U.S. and foreign governmental entities.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both the Company and Thomas Industries. Thomas Industries will be required to pay the Company a $12 million termination fee if any of the following occur:

- o the Company terminates the Merger Agreement because Thomas Industries' board of directors withdraws its recommendation of the Merger;
- o the stockholders of Thomas Industries fail to approve the Merger Agreement following the withdrawal by Thomas Industries' board of directors of its recommendation of the Merger; or
- o Thomas Industries terminates the Merger Agreement to accept a superior alternative transaction proposal.

Thomas Industries may also be obligated to reimburse the Company for up to $3 million in transaction expenses if the Merger Agreement is terminated by the Company under certain circumstances.

The Company may be required to pay Thomas Industries a $5 million termination fee if the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances.

The foregoing description of the Merger and the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

ITEM 7.01. REGULATION FD DISCLOSURE.

On March 9, 2005, the Company issued a press release announcing that it had entered into the Merger Agreement with Thomas Industries. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Company also prepared a slide presentation relating to the Thomas Industries transaction, which was made available to investors during an online conference on March 9, 2005. A copy of that presentation is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2.

The information in this Item 7.01 and the exhibit attached hereto will not be deemed to be "filed" for the purposes of Section 18 of the
