Section 5 - Corporate Governance and Management
Item 5.01 Changes in Control of Registrant.

Tenet Information Services, Inc. ("Tenet") filed a Form 8-K on July 21, 2004, reporting that on July 14, 2004, and effective as of June 30, 2004, Tenet and Let's Go Aero Inc., Colorado Springs, Colorado, ("LGA") entered into a definitive agreement for LGA's shareholders to acquire a controlling interest in Tenet through a stock-for-stock exchange. All of LGA's shareholders will exchange all of their shares of LGA common stock for a total of 5,762,214 newly issued shares of Tenet's $.001 par value common stock. The 14 former LGA shareholders will then own in the aggregate 85% of the issued and outstanding shares of Tenet.

TENET INFORMATION SYSTEMS, INC.
(Formerly Lets Go Aero, Inc.)
Notes to Financial Statements

(1) Organization and summary of significant accounting policies

Organization, basis of presentation and Liquidity

Lets Go Aero, Inc. ("We", "Us" or "Our") was incorporated in Colorado on April 14, 1998. We develop intellectual property for the automotive, recreation vehicle and recreation trailers industries. We also manufacture and distribute various types of specialty trailers and cargo carrying enhancements as well as related parts, accessories and services for the automobile, recreational vehicle and recreational equipment industries. Specialty trailers are manufactured at our outsourced facilities in Elkhart, Indiana while accessories are currently manufactured in our outsourced facilities in Colorado Springs. We also sell our products directly to end-user customers.

Inherent in our business are various risks and uncertainties, including our limited operating history, historical operating losses and dependence upon strategic alliances. The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business.

We have experienced negative cash flow from operations since our inception and we have expended, and expect to continue to expend, substantial funds to continue our development and marketing efforts. As a result, we had a net capital deficiency at June 30, 2004. Based on our current operating plans, management believes that cash at June 30, 2004, along with proceeds from future revenues, futures sales of common stock and the cash received in our recent recapitalization, will be sufficient to meet operating needs for the foreseeable future. The actual funds that we will need to operate during this period will be determined by many factors, some of which are beyond our control. Lower than anticipated sales of our products or higher than anticipated expenses could require us to need additional financing sooner than expected. There is no assurance that we will be successful in selling additional shares of common stock to the public. Our business plan projects profits in June 2005.

Effective June 30, 2004, we acquired Tenet Information Systems, Inc., a Utah public shell company, in a reverse acquisition in order to access the capital markets to fund our business plans. This acquisition also provided $125,999 in net assets and $164,094 in cash.

In 2004, we changed our year-end from December 31.

Fair Values of Financial Instruments

The carrying values of cash, accounts receivable, notes receivable, accounts payable, notes payable and accrued liabilities approximate fair value due to (1) the short-term maturities of these assets and liabilities or (2) their terms.

Financial Statement Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. The more significant estimates are used for such items as: valuation of inventory, depreciable lives of property and equipment, allowance for doubtful accounts, and reserves for warranty. As better information becomes available or as actual amounts are determinable, the recorded estimates are revised. Ultimate results could differ from these estimates.

Concentrations

We purchase all of our plastic shells from one supplier. The purchases represented approximately 46 % and 44 % of cost of sales for the years ended June 30, 2004 and 2003, respectively. Although there are a limited number of manufacturers of plastic shells, management believes that other suppliers could provide similar shells on comparable terms. A change in suppliers, however, could cause a delay in manufacturing and a possible loss of sales, which would affect operating results adversely.

Receivables

Receivables are stated net of an allowance for doubtful accounts of $-0- at June 30, 2004. We believe that all receivables at June 30, 2004 are fully collectible.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost, as determined on average cost basis, or market and includes materials, labor and overhead costs. Raw materials consist of the cost of materials required to produce trailers and accessories and to support parts sales and service. Work in process consists of costs related to materials, plastic shells, labor and overhead related to the production process.

Prepaid expenses

Prepaid expenses primarily include the unamortized portion of annual casualty and third party liability insurance premiums. These premiums are amortized to expense over the insurance year.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost, while repair and maintenance items are charged to expense as incurred. Depreciation is provided for financial reporting purposes using straight-line and accelerated methods over estimated useful lives of 3 to 7 years for machinery and equipment and 10 years for furniture.

Certain tooling used to make our plastic shells is held for use at our subcontractors' facilities in Elkhart, Indiana.

Intangible Assets

We have patents issued and pending to protect our intellectual property. These patents relate to how cargo can be attached and carried on a vehicle's hitch receiver, frame, or body surface. Patents are amortized on a straight-line basis and charged to amortization expense over the anticipated life of the patent. Costs of patents pending are deferred until the patent is granted. We will not begin amortization until the patent is granted.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets, we evaluate our long-lived assets, including related intangibles, of identifiable business activities for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate, in management's judgment, that the carrying value of such assets may not be recoverable. The determination of whether impairment has occurred is based on management's estimate of undiscounted future cash flows attributable to the assets as compared to the carrying value of the assets. If impairment has occurred, estimating the fair value for the assets and recording a provision for loss if the carrying value is greater than fair value determine the amount of the impairment recognized. For assets identified to be disposed of in the future, the carrying value of these assets is compared to the estimated fair value less the cost to sell to determine if impairment is required. Until the assets are disposed of, an estimate of the fair value is re-determined when related events or circumstances change.

When determining whether impairment of one of our long-lived assets has occurred, we must estimate the undiscounted cash flows attributable to the asset or asset group. Our estimate of cash flows is based on assumptions that could change in the future.

Any significant variance in any of the above assumptions or factors could materially affect our cash flows, which could require us to record an impairment of an asset. No impairment charges were recognized during each of the years ended June 30, 2004 and 2003.

F-8

TENET INFORMATION SYSTEMS, INC. (Formerly Lets Go Aero, Inc.) Notes to Financial Statements

Revenue Recognition

We recognize revenue from the sale of trailers and accessories when there is persuasive evidence that title and risks of ownership are transferred to the customer, which generally is upon shipment or customer pick-up. Accordingly, no provision for sales allowances or returns is normally required except in unusual circumstances.

Revenue from sales of parts is recognized when the part has been shipped. Revenues related to shipping and deliveries are included as a component of net sales and the related shipping costs are included as a component of cost of sales.

Royalty income is recognized based on the terms specified in contractual settlement agreements.

Product Warranty

Our products are covered by product warranties for one year after the date of sale. At the time of sale, the Company recognizes estimated warranty costs, based on prior history and expected future claims, by a charge to cost of sales and records an accrued liability. The accrued liability is reduced as actual warranty costs are paid and is evaluated periodically to validate previous estimates and known requirements and adjusted as necessary.

Research and Development Expenses

Research and development expenses were incurred in fiscal 2004 and 2003 and totaled $45,000 and $36,288, respectively. R&D costs are expensed as incurred.

Income Taxes

We account for income taxes under the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes (SFAS No. 109). SFAS No. 109 requires recognition of deferred tax liabilities and assets for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the financial statements or tax returns. Under this method, deferred tax liabilities and assets are determined based on the difference between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which the differences are expected to reverse.

Edgar Filing: TENET INFORMATION SERVICES INC - Form 8-K/A

In tax years prior to June 30, 2004, we elected to be taxed as an S corporation on our federal and state income tax returns. In lieu of corporate income taxes, the shareholders were taxed on their proportionate share of our earnings from the effective date of the election, which was March 1998.

For periods prior to the revocation of our tax status, we have provided unaudited pro forma income tax information in our statements of operations to reflect as salaries distributions to officers/directors made while we were an S corporation and to reflect an estimated tax provision. Note 8 is presented in accordance with SFAS 109 as if we had been subject to Federal and state income taxes during fiscal years 2004 and 2003.

Stock-based Compensation

The Company accounts for all stock options under SFAS No. 123. However, as permitted by SFAS No. 123, the Company accounts for stock options granted to employees under the intrinsic method and stock options granted to non-employees under the fair value method. Directors, acting in their capacity as directors, are considered employees for this purpose. Under the intrinsic method, no compensation expense is recorded if the option's price equals or exceeds the fair value of the underlying stock. Under the fair value method, compensation expense is recorded based on the fair value of the option. When the intrinsic value method is elected, compensation expense is measured also under the fair value method, but reported on a "pro forma" basis. The Company has elected to continue to apply the provisions of APB Opinion No. 25 and provide the pro forma disclosure provisions of SFAS No. 123.

F-9

TENET INFORMATION SYSTEMS, INC. (Formerly Lets Go Aero, Inc.) Notes to Financial Statements

The value of shares of stock issued for services to 3rd party vendors and suppliers is computed based on the quoted market price of our common stock on the dates the services were performed.

Pro Forma Adjustments

The accompanying statements of operations include pro forma adjustments to reflect as salaries distributions to officers/shareholders which were made while we were an S corporation and to reflect an estimated provision for income taxes. The effective income tax rate used on the pro forma adjustments is that estimated had we been a C corporation during the periods presented.

Earnings (Loss) Per Share

Basic earnings (loss) per share are determined by dividing net income (loss) by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the year. Diluted earnings (loss) per share are determined by dividing net income (loss) by the weighted-average number of common shares and common stock equivalents outstanding, increased by the assumed exercise of stock options convertible into common stock, for which the effect of exercise using the treasury stock method would be dilutive.

All common shares reflected in the accompanying financial statements have been restated upon the exchange rates of common stock issued in connection with the reverse acquisition of Tenet Information Systems, Inc.

New Accounting Pronouncements

In November 2002, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 45, "Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others" (Interpretation No. 45). Interpretation No. 45 clarifies the disclosures to be made by a guarantor in its interim and annual financial statements about its obligations under certain guarantees that it has issued. Interpretation No. 45 also requires a guarantor to recognize, at the inception of a guarantee, a liability for the fair value of the obligation undertaken in issuing certain types of guarantees. Certain types of guarantees are not subject to the initial recognition and measurement provisions of Interpretation No. 45 but are subject to its disclosure requirements. The initial recognition and initial measurement provisions of Interpretation No. 45 are applicable on a prospective basis to guarantees issued or modified after December 31, 2002, regardless of the guarantor's fiscal year-end. The guarantor's previous accounting for guarantees issued prior to the date of the initial application of Interpretation No. 45 shall not be revised or restated. The disclosure requirements in Interpretation No. 45 are effective for financial statements of interim or annual periods ended after December 15, 2002. We applied the initial recognition and initial measurement provisions of Interpretation No. 45 to guarantees issued or modified after December 31, 2002. For more information on the Company's guarantees and the disclosure requirements of Interpretation No. 45, as applicable to the Company, see Notes 2 and 8 to these consolidated financial statements.

In December 2002, the FASB approved Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation-Transition and Disclosure- an amendment of FASB Statement No. 123" (SFAS 148). SFAS No. 148 amends SFAS No. 123 to provide alternative methods of transition for a voluntary change to the fair value based method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation. In addition, SFAS No. 148 amends the disclosure requirements of SFAS No. 123 to require prominent disclosures in both annual and interim financial statements about the method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation and the effect of the method used on reported results. SFAS No. 148 is effective for financial statements for fiscal years ending after December 15, 2002. We adopted the transitional disclosure provisions of SFAS No. 148 for the year ended June 30, 2003.

TENET INFORMATION SYSTEMS, INC.
(Formerly Lets Go Aero, Inc.)
Notes to Financial Statements

In May 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 150, "Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of Both Liabilities and Equity." SFAS No. 150 establishes standards for how an issuer classifies and measures certain financial instruments with characteristics of both liabilities and equity. It requires that an issuer classify a financial instrument that is within the scope of SFAS No. 150 as a liability (or an asset in some circumstances). SFAS No. 150 is effective for financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003, and otherwise is effective at the beginning of the first interim period beginning after June 15, 2003. The Company will apply SFAS No. 150 to any financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003. The transition to SFAS No. 150 did not have a material effect on our Company's financial position or results of operations.

In January 2003, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 46, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities (FIN 46), revised December 2003. FIN 46 clarifies the application of Accounting Research Bulletin No. 51, Consolidated Financial Statements, to certain entities in which equity investors do not have the characteristics of a controlling financial interest or do not have sufficient equity at risk for the entity to finance its activities without additional subordinated support from other parties. FIN 46 requires existing unconsolidated variable interest entities to be consolidated by their primary beneficiaries if the entities do not effectively disperse risks among parties involved. All companies with variable interests in variable interest entities created after January 31, 2003, shall apply the provisions of this Interpretation to those entities immediately. We do not expect the impact of this new interpretation to have a material impact on our Company's financial position or results of operations because it does not have any such entities.

(2) Related Party Transactions

We have a note payable in the amount of $10,142 due to a former director at June 30, 2004. The note bears interest at 8% and is unsecured and due on demand. The note payable is reflected as note payable, related party in the accompanying financial statements.

Edgar Filing: TENET INFORMATION SERVICES INC - Form 8-K/A

options were vested and exercisable as of the grant date and expire in April 2008. We recorded $5,104 in stock-based compensation related to the option grants.

The weighted average fair value of options granted during fiscal year 2003 estimated on the dates of grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model was approximately $.01 per share. The fair value of the options granted is estimated on the date of grant using the following assumptions: dividend yield of zero, expected volatility of -0- percent, risk-free interest rate of 2 percent, and an expected life of 2.5 years. No options were exercised during the year ended June 30, 2004.

The status of the Company's stock options are summarized as follows:

	Number of Shares Exercisable	Weighted Average Exercise Price

("TIS") in a reverse acquisition. This acquisition has been treated as a recapitalization of LGA, a Colorado corporation, with TIS the legal surviving entity. Since TIS had, prior to recapitalization, minimal assets (consisting principally of cash and receivables) and no operations, the recapitalization has been accounted for as the sale of 1,016,860 shares of LGA common stock for the net assets of TIS. Costs of the transaction have been charged to the period.

Tenet Information Services, Inc. Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization

Tenet Information Services, Inc. ("Tenet"), a Utah corporation, designs and markets a computer-based medical and health information system related primarily to emergency departments (the "EDNet System"). During fiscal 1996, Tenet expanded its operations by merging with National Microcomputer Corporation ("NMC") and acquiring certain assets of The International Healthcare Consulting Group, Inc. ("HCG"). NMC designed and marketed the integrated information management/patient tracking system for use in emergency departments of hospitals and urgent care centers (the "EDNet System"). HCG has provided healthcare institutions, mainly hospitals, with consulting services to assist the institutions in achieving a more efficient, lower cost care delivery model while maintaining the highest quality of care standards.

Tenet and its wholly owned subsidiary, NMC, (collectively, "the Company") sell and lease computer software license rights to hospitals throughout the United States. In addition, the Company sells maintenance contracts for these information systems. Substantially all of the Company's revenues are generated from hospitals and therefore, the Company's financial performance is partially dependent upon the viability of the healthcare economic sector.

Tenet sold its consulting division on May 23, 2003 and its remaining operations on October 22, 2003. (See Note 3.)

Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company's majority-owned subsidiary after the elimination of all significant intercompany accounts and transactions. The accompanying consolidated financial statements for the year ended June 30, 2003 include reclassifications that were made to conform to the current year presentation. Those reclassifications had no impact on reported net income or stockholders' equity. The Company consolidates entities when it has the ability to control the operating and financial decisions and policies of that entity. The determination of ability to control or exert significant influence over an entity involves the use of judgment of the extent of the control or influence and that of the other equity owners or participants of the entity.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid securities with original maturities of three months or less when acquired to be cash equivalents. There were no cash equivalents at June 29, 2004.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets, generally ranging from three to ten years. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred and major improvements or betterments are capitalized. Gains or losses on sales or retirements are included in the statement of operations in the year of disposition.

F-21

Tenet Information Services, Inc. Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Software Development Costs

Costs incurred in creating computer software products are charged to operations as software development expense prior to the development of a detailed program design or a working model. After the detailed program design or working model is established, costs of producing product masters are capitalized as software development costs. The Company had no capitalized software costs at June 29, 2004.

Costs of maintenance and customer support are recognized as expense when the related revenue is recognized or when those costs are incurred, whichever occurs first.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets, the Company evaluates their long-lived assets, including related intangibles, of identifiable business activities for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate, in management's judgment, that the carrying value of such assets may not be recoverable. The determination of whether impairment has occurred is based on management's estimate of undiscounted future cash flows attributable to the assets as compared to the carrying value of the assets. If impairment has occurred, estimating the fair value for the assets and recording a provision for loss if the carrying value is greater than fair value determine the amount of the impairment recognized. For assets identified to be disposed of in the future, the carrying value of these assets is compared to the estimated fair value less the cost to sell to determine if impairment is required. Until the assets are disposed of, an estimate of the fair value is re-determined when related events or circumstances change. The Company had no impaired assets at June 29, 2004.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes under the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes (SFAS 109). SFAS 109 requires recognition of deferred tax liabilities and assets for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the financial statements or tax returns. Under this method, deferred tax liabilities and assets are determined based on the difference between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which the differences are expected to reverse. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance to the extent that uncertainty exists as to whether the deferred tax assets will ultimately be realized.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with the provisions of Statement of Position No. 91-1 Software Revenue Recognition as follows:

Revenues related to the EDNet System consist of sales of software licenses, installation of information systems and related software customization and enhancements. In addition, revenues are generated from annual software support and maintenance. Installation revenues are recognized on the percentage completion method measured by completion and acceptance of contracted milestones.

Financial Instruments and Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of cash, receivables, trade payables and notes payable. The estimated fair value of financial instruments is not presented, since in management's opinion, there is no material difference between carrying amounts and estimated fair values of financial instruments as presented in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet.

The Company has concentrated its credit risk for cash by maintaining deposits in one financial institution, which may at times exceed amounts covered by insurance provided by the U.S. Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk in cash.

In the normal course of business, the Company extends credit to its customers. The Company regularly reviews its accounts receivable and makes provisions for potentially uncollectible balances.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Stock based Compensation

Edgar Filing: TENET INFORMATION SERVICES INC - Form 8-K/A

The Company accounts for its stock options issued to directors, officers and employees under Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25 and related interpretations ("APB 25"). Under APB 25, compensation expense is recognized if an option's exercise price on the measurement date is below the fair value of the Company's common stock. The Company accounts for options and warrants issued to non-employees in accordance with SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" (SFAS 123) which requires these options and warrants to be accounted for at their fair value.

No stock-based employee compensation cost related to options is reflected in net income, as all options had an exercise price equal to the market value of the underlying common stock on the date of grant. The following table illustrates the effect on net income and basic and diluted earnings per common share if the Company had applied the fair value recognition provisions of FASB Statement No. 123, Accounting for Stock Based Compensation, to stock-based employee compensation:

	For Years Ended
	June 29, 2004	June 30, 2003
Net Income, as reported	$ 241,255	$77,474
Adjust: Total stock-base employee compensation expense determined under fair value based method of all awards, including adjustments for forfeited options	--	8,353
Pro Forma net income	$ 241,255	$85,827
Basic and diluted earnings per common share as reported	$ 0.25	$ --
Basic and diluted earnings per common share pro forma	$ 0.25	$ --

In June 2004, the board of directors approved the issuance of 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock to two of its employee, as compensation. The transaction was valued based on the quoted market price of the stock, which was $0.49 per share. The Company has recorded stock-based compensation expense in the amount of $24,500 in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Basic and Diluted Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per common share is computed by dividing net income available to common stockholders by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share reflects the potential dilution which could occur if all contracts to issue common stock were exercised or converted into common stock or resulted in the issuance of common stock. Potentially issuable common shares which consist of stock options are excluded from the calculations of diluted loss per common share because the effects are anti-dilutive.

(3) Disposition of Assets

Sale of Consulting Division

On May 23, 2003, the Company sold all the assets of the Company's consulting division to a shareholder and former employee of the Company. The sale included all office and computer equipment associated with the consulting division, which had a net book value of $4,926, and the right to pursue work with the Company's consulting division clients. In exchange for the purchase of the consulting division, the Company received a unsecured note receivable for $25,700, to be paid quarterly at 8% interest for the next three years and nine months or fifteen payments and assumed liabilities totaling $54,030. As of June 29, 2004, the outstanding balance of the notes receivable is $21,152.

The sale resulted in the recognition of a $74,804 gain. The consolidated financial statements present the results from the consulting division as discontinued operations. During the year ended June 30, 2003 the consulting division had revenues of $353,899 and income from operations of $24,305.

Sale of Remaining Operations

The Company entered into an asset purchase agreement with ClinicalVentures, L.L.C. ("CVLLC"), an unrelated third party, on July 29, 2003 to sell substantially all assets related to its EDNet product line, which represented substantially all of its assets remaining after the sale of the consulting division for $339,000. After the sale of assets closed on October 22, 2003 the Company no longer had any business operations. As part of the sale, (1) CVLLC assumed the obligation to support all ongoing maintenance contracts currently in force with EDNet clients; (2) purchased all of the office and computer equipment associated with the EDNet product line; and (3) acquired the right to pursue work with the Company's EDNet product line clients. The Company recorded a gain of $308,559 on the sale, which is included in other income in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

In conjunction with the asset purchase agreement, the Company and CVLLC executed a software license agreement pursuant to which CVLLC obtained a non-exclusive right and license to use the Company's EDNet and ARCNet tracking software products. The license agreement allows ClinicalVentures to distribute the software for a period of five years. In exchange, CVLLC agreed to pay 5% of the initial software license fees received during the five-year period with respect to new sales or licenses of the EDNet and ARCNet tracking products up to an aggregate of $90,000.

(5) Gain on Debt Extinguishments

As of June 30, 2003, the Company had sales tax liability in the amount of $19,288 related to Hawaii excise tax, incurred ten years ago. The excise tax has been repealed by the State of Hawaii and management believes that the statute of limitations of collecting this liability has expired. The liability was written off and $19,288 was recognized as gain from debt extinguishments.

In accordance with SFAS 145, the gain from debt extinguishments did not meet the conditions for being classified as an extraordinary item and therefore was included in continuing operations.

Due to this limitation, and the uncertainty regarding the ultimate utilization of the net operating loss carry forward and tax credits, no tax benefit for losses has been provided by the Company in the accompanying financial statements. The net operating loss carry forwards and tax credits will expire through fiscal year 2016 and 2006, respectively.

TENET INFORMATION SYSTEMS, INC. (formerly Lets Go Aero, Inc.) UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED STATEMENTS OF OPERATIONS FOR THE PERIOD ENDED JUNE 30, 2004

Reverse Acquisition

On June 30, 2004, LGA exchanged 100 percent of its outstanding shares of common stock for 5,762,219 shares of the common stock of TIS. This acquisition has been treated as recapitalization of LGA, a Colorado corporation, with TIS the legal surviving entity. Since TIS, prior to the recapitalization had minimal assets (consisting of cash and receivables) and no operations, the recapitalization has been accounted for as the sale of 1,016,860 shares of LGA common stock for the net assets of TIS. Costs of the transaction have been charged to the period.

As part of the reverse acquisition, holders of LGA debt totaling $1,518,440 converted their debt into 2,189,643 post-merger shares of common stock.

Accounting and Tax Year End Change

LGA changed its year-end from December 31 to June 30.

Assumptions

- A) Adjustment to eliminate the gain on the sale of substantially all operations.
- B) Adjustment to eliminate the gain on debt conversion.
