Item 1. Security and Issuer

This Amendment No. 1 to the Statement on Schedule 13D (the Amendment ) amends and supplements the Schedule 13D originally filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on October 15, 2004 (the Schedule 13D ) by EMC Corporation, a Massachusetts corporation ("EMC") with respect to EMC's beneficial ownership interest in the Common Stock, par value $0.001 per share (the "Common Stock"), of MTI Technology Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Corporation"). The address of the principal executive office of the Corporation is 17595 Cartwright Rd., Irvine, CA 92614. Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meaning set forth in the Schedule 13D.

The principal business of EMC is to design, manufacture, market and support a wide range of networked storage products and information storage and management software that are designed to enable organizations of all sizes to extract the maximum value from their information, at the lowest total cost, across every point in the information lifecycle. Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

This Amendment amends and supplements Item 3 of the Schedule 13D by adding the following thereto:

EMC acquired the Series B Securities strictly for investment purposes. EMC intends to periodically review its investment in the Corporation. Depending upon future evaluations of the business prospects of the Corporation and upon other developments, including without limitation general economic, business and market conditions, EMC may determine to increase or decrease its equity interest in the Corporation by acquiring additional securities of the Corporation, or by disposing of all or a portion of the Securities now held.

Except as set forth in this statement, neither EMC nor, to the best of EMC's knowledge, any person listed on Schedule A, has any plans or proposals that relate to or would result in: (a) the acquisition by any person of additional securities of the Corporation, or Item 5(e): Not applicable.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

This Amendment hereby amends and supplements Item 6 of the Schedule 13D by adding the following thereto:

The Series A Securities Purchase Agreement, the Series A Warrants and the Voting Agreement, all of which were previously discussed in the Schedule 13D and set forth as Exhibits 1, 3 and 5, were not amended. The Series A Certificate of Designation, which was previously discussed in the Schedule 13D and set forth as Exhibit 2, is amended. The Investor Rights Agreement, which was previously discussed in the Schedule 13D and set forth as Exhibit 4, is amended and restated.

The following is a summary of certain provisions of the Series B Securities Purchase Agreement, the Certificate of Designation of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, the Certificate of Amendment of Certificate of Designation of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, the Series B Warrants, and the Amended and Restated Investor Rights Agreement. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to such documents, copies of which are hereby incorporated herein by reference and set forth as Exhibits 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10, respectively, hereto.

Except as described in the Schedule 13D and in this Amendment, or as incorporated by reference, there are no contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships (legal or otherwise) among the persons named in Item 2 above, or between such persons and any other person, with respect to any securities of the Corporation.

Series B Securities Purchase Agreement.

EMC purchased the Series B Securities pursuant to the Series B Securities Purchase Agreement. As part of such transaction, the Corporation made certain representations, warranties and covenants, and has provided EMC with certain rights of indemnification for any losses it may incur in the event the Corporation breaches any of such representations, warranties or covenants; indemnification to the Purchasers is capped at $8 million, some of which is potentially payable in Series B Preferred Stock or Warrants. The Corporation has also agreed, among other things, that it will use the proceeds of the transaction (a) to pay transaction related expenses of EMC, and (b) for its general working capital.

Edgar Filing: MTI TECHNOLOGY CORP - Form SC 13D/A

Certificate of Designation of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock.

Dividends. Each share of Series B Preferred Stock has an initial stated value of $12.6420, and is entitled to receive a cumulative dividend thereon at the rate of 8% per year, payable in cash at the discretion of the board of directors of the Corporation.

Voting Rights. Other than the election of directors, the holders of Series B Preferred Stock generally have the right to vote on any matter with the holders of Common Stock, and each share of Series B Preferred Stock will be entitled to 8.7792 votes. The approval of the holders of a majority of the Series B Preferred Stock, voting as a class, will be required to approve certain corporate actions, including without limitation (i) any amendment of the Corporation's charter or by-laws that adversely affects the holders of Series B Preferred Stock, (ii) any authorization of a class of capital stock ranking senior to, or on parity with, the Series B Preferred Stock, (iii) any increase the size of the Corporation's board of directors to greater than eight members or any change in the term or classification of the board of directors, (iv) certain redemptions or repurchases of capital stock, acquisitions of capital stock or assets from other entities, (v) effecting, or entering into any agreement to effect, any merger, consolidation, recapitalization, reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, winding up or similar transaction (a "Liquidation Event") involving the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries, (vi) any sale of assets of the Corporation or a subsidiary which is outside the ordinary course of business, (vii) any purchase of assets of or an equity interest in another entity for more than $5 million, and (viii) any incurrence of additional debt for borrowed money in excess of $1 million. The holders of Series B Preferred Stock, exclusively and as a single class, will be entitled to elect one member of the Corporation's board of directors (the "Series B Director"), unless the ratio of the voting power of the Series B Preferred Stock to the total voting power of all of the Corporation's voting stock falls below a certain level.

Liquidation Preference. Upon a Liquidation Event, the holders of Series B Preferred Stock will be entitled to be paid a liquidation preference out of the assets of the Corporation legally available for distribution to its stockholders, before any payment may be made to the holders of common stock or any other holders of preferred stock. Liquidation Event includes the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, as well as certain mergers, consolidations and recapitalizations of the Corporation and the sale of all or substantially all the assets of the Corporation.

If the Liquidation Event occurs prior to May 2, 2006, the liquidation preference for each share of Series B Preferred Stock will be the amount that would be payable if such share had been converted into Common Stock immediately prior to such Liquidation Event. If the Liquidation Event occurs on or after May 2, 2006, the liquidation preference will be equal to the greater of: (1) the sum of (a) the stated value plus (b) any accumulated but unpaid dividends plus (c) the amount that would be payable if such share (excluding any accumulated but unpaid dividends thereon) had been converted into common stock immediately prior to such Liquidation Event and participated in distributions to the holders of common stock of the assets available for distribution to our stockholders after only the payment of the stated value and any accumulated but unpaid dividends in the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock; and (2) the sum of (a) the stated value plus (b) the amount that would be payable if such share (including any accumulated but unpaid dividends thereon) had been converted into common stock immediately prior to such Liquidation Event and participated in distributions available to the holders of common stock of the assets available for distribution to our stockholders after only the payment of the stated value in the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock. Disputes as to the appropriate liquidation amounts for Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock shall be reasonably resolved by majority vote of the holders of Series B Preferred Stock.

Conversions of Series B Preferred Stock. Each share of Series B Preferred Stock is convertible at any time at the option of the holder into a number of shares of Common Stock equal to the Series B Preferred Stock's stated value divided by the conversion price. Initially, each share of Series B Preferred Stock is convertible into 10 shares of Common Stock, though the initial conversion price of $1.26420 per share is subject to adjustment if certain events occur. The Series B Preferred Stock also has anti-dilution protection that adjusts the conversion price downwards using a weighted-average calculation in the event the corporation issues certain additional securities at a price per share less than the conversion price then in effect.

Redemptions of Series B Preferred Stock. At any time on or after November 2, 2010, the Corporation will have the right to redeem all or certain portions of the Series B Preferred Stock then outstanding for an amount per share equal to the greater of (1) the stated value plus any accumulated but unpaid dividends thereon and (2) the average closing price per share of Common Stock on the Nasdaq Stock Market for the five (5) trading days prior to (and not including) the date upon which the Corporation exercises its right to redeem the Series B Preferred Stock, multiplied by the number of shares of Common Stock into which such share of Series B Preferred Stock (and any accumulated but unpaid dividends thereon) is convertible as of such date. At any time on or after November 2, 2010, each holder of Series B Preferred Stock may require the Corporation to purchase all or any portion of such holder's Series B Preferred Stock for an amount per share equal to the stated value plus any accumulated but unpaid dividends thereon.

Preemptive Rights. The holders of both Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock will be entitled to participate in future issuances of certain equity securities of the Corporation on a pro rata basis. Preemptive rights are specifically excluded in certain events, including in connection with a transaction in which the Corporation acquires all or substantially all the assets or stock of an entity for consideration valued in excess of $5 million.

Certificate of Amendment of Certificate of Designation of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock

The Certificate of Amendment amended the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock Certificate of Designation (the "Series A Certificate") to: (i) remove the conversion threshold provision that it previously contained; (ii) revise the liquidation preferences of the Series A Preferred Stock in light of the issuance of the Series B Preferred Stock; and (iii) to make conforming changes to the preemptive rights granted to the Series A Preferred Stock to reflect the issuance of the Series B Preferred Stock.

Conversion Threshold. Prior to amendment, the Series A Certificate contained a conversion threshold provision that placed a cap on the aggregate number of shares of common stock that could be issued upon conversion of shares of Series A Preferred Stock. The conversion threshold was set at 6,880,139 shares. The conversion threshold provision provided that if a stockholder sought to convert shares of Series A Preferred Stock (including any accumulated and unpaid dividends), and if that conversion would have required issuance of a number of shares of common stock which, when added to the number of shares of common stock issued pursuant to any prior conversions of Series A Preferred Stock (including with respect to dividends), would have exceeded the conversion threshold, then (x) the converting stockholder would only be entitled to convert an amount of Series A Preferred Stock, if any, that would not require issuance of shares of common stock that would exceed the conversion threshold, and (y) the Corporation would have redeemed for cash any portion of the Series A Preferred Stock (including accumulated and unpaid dividends) not then convertible as a result of the conversion threshold.

The Certificate of Amendment of the Series A Certificate removes the conversion threshold provision of the Series A Certificate. As a result, holders of the Series A Preferred Stock are now entitled to convert their shares (including accumulated and unpaid dividends) into shares of common stock without regard for the limit mentioned above. The removal of the conversion threshold provision permits the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock to receive a greater number of shares of Common Stock upon conversion than they could previously receive. In the event of conversion prior to a merger, sale, liquidation or other significant corporate transaction, the amount of consideration available for distribution to holders of junior securities such as common stock would be reduced.

Liquidation Preference. Prior to amendment, upon a Liquidation Event, the holders of Series A Preferred Stock would have received their payments before any payments were made to the holders of other classes of the Corporation's stock, including common stock, that rank junior to the Series A Preferred Stock upon liquidation. The Certificate of Amendment provides that the Series B Preferred Stock now ranks senior to the Series A Preferred Stock upon liquidation. The liquidation preference provisions of the Series A Certificate are amended to reflect the issuance of the Series B Preferred Stock and to clarify the liquidation preferences of the Series A Preferred Stock with respect to the liquidation preferences of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock. Holders of Series B Preferred Stock and Series A Preferred Stock have the right to payment of their liquidation preference out of all of the Corporation's assets available for distributions to stockholders before the holders of common stock will receive any distributions. Disputes as to the appropriate liquidation amounts for Series A Preferred Stock shall be reasonably resolved by majority vote of the holders of Series B Preferred Stock.

Preemptive Rights. The Certificate of Amendment also made conforming changes to the preemptive rights granted to the Series A Preferred Stock to make them pro rata with the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock as mentioned above.

Series B Warrants.

Exercises. Until November 2, 2015, the holders of Series B Warrants may acquire shares of common stock at an initial exercise price of $1.26 per share. The Warrants will be exercisable for cash or through a "cashless exercise" feature.

Adjustments. The number of shares for which each Warrant is exercisable is subject to adjustment in the event of stock splits, stock dividends, recapitalizations, reorganizations. Upon certain fundamental transactions, such as a merger, consolidation or reclassification of the Common Stock, the Warrant will become exercisable for the same amount and kind of securities, cash or property as the holder would have been entitled to receive had it exercised the Warrant for shares of Common Stock immediately prior to such event.

Edgar Filing: MTI TECHNOLOGY CORP - Form SC 13D/A

Amended and Restated Investor Rights Agreement.

The Amended and Restated Investor Rights Agreement applies to the Purchasers as holders of the Securities and replaces and supercedes the Investor Rights Agreement incorporated by reference into the Schedule 13D as Exhibit 4.

Registration Rights. The Purchasers and the Corporation are party to an Amended and Restated Investor Rights Agreement pursuant to which the Corporation has granted certain registration rights to the Purchasers with respect to the shares of Common Stock that are issuable upon conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock (together, the Preferred Stock ) and upon exercise of Series A Warrants and Series B Warrants, as well as any other shares of Common Stock that the Purchasers may hold (collectively, "Registrable Shares"). The Purchasers holding a majority of the Preferred Stock are entitled to three demand registrations and unlimited incidental, or so-called "piggyback," registration rights, subject to certain restrictions. In addition, the Corporation is required to file a shelf registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission covering the sale of the Registrable Shares by December 2, 2005.

Board of Directors. If at any time the Purchasers are unable to appoint the Series A Director or the Series B Director by reason of the provisions of the Certificate of Designation of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock or the Series A Certificate, as amended, the Corporation will be required to increase the number of directors on the board to such number that will allow the Purchasers to appoint the Series A Director or the Series B Director. If the board of directors is prohibited from doing so by the by-laws of the Corporation, the Corporation will be required to submit a proposal for such expansion of the board to its stockholders.

Series A Director. For as long as Digital Media & Communications III Limited Partnership ("DMC III") owns any shares of Series A Preferred Stock, it will be entitled to choose the individual who will serve as the Series A Director, after consultation with the other holders of Series A Preferred Stock. After DMC III no longer owns any shares of Series A Preferred Stock, the Series A Director will be chosen by the majority of the holders of Series A Preferred Stock.

Series B Director. For as long as DMC III owns any shares of Series B Preferred Stock, it will be entitled to choose the individual who will serve as the Series B Director, after consultation with the other holders of Series B Preferred Stock. After DMC III no longer owns any shares of Series B Preferred Stock, the Series B Director will be chosen by the majority of the holders of Series B Preferred Stock.

Other Covenants. Among other things, the Corporation (1) must continue to comply with federal securities laws, (2) may not grant registration rights to other persons that conflict with the registration rights of the Purchasers, and (3) must provide certain annual, quarterly and monthly financial information to the Purchasers.

Item 7. Material to Be Filed as Exhibits
