<sup>(1)</sup> This Registration Statement will also cover any additional shares of Common Stock that become issuable under the Crocs, Inc. 2005 Equity Incentive Plan or issuable under the Nonstatutory Stock Options Agreements by reason of any stock dividend, stock split, reorganization or other similar transaction effected without the Registrant s receipt of consideration that results in an increase in the number of outstanding shares of the Registrant s Common Stock.

<sup>(3)</sup> Computed in accordance with Rule 457(h) under the Securities Act of 1933, based on the weighted average per share exercise price of outstanding options granted under the plan.

<sup>(4)</sup> Computed in accordance with Rule 457(h) and 457(c) of the Securities Act of 1933. Such computation is based on the average of the high and low prices as reported on the Nasdaq National Market on March 7, 2006.

This indemnification does not apply, in a or matters as to which it is adjudged that the director, officer, employee or agent is liable to us, unless upon court order it is espite such adjudication of liability, but in view of all the circumstances of the case, he is fairly and reasonably entitled to make and, in a non-derivative action, to any criminal proceeding in which such person had no reasonable cause to believe his full. |  |  |  |  |
| The Registrant's certificate of incorporation provides that no director shall be liable to the Registrant or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL. The Registrant's bylaws require it to indemnify its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law. The Registrant has entered into indemnification agreements with all of its directors and executive officers and has purchased directors' and officers' liability insurance. |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |  |  |  |  |

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
