PROXY STATEMENT FOR ACA CAPITAL HOLDINGS, INC.
2007 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

INFORMATION ABOUT THE ANNUAL MEETING AND VOTING

Why did I receive this proxy statement?

We are providing this proxy statement (Proxy Statement) in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors (Board) of ACA Capital Holdings, Inc. (ACA , Company , we , us or our) of proxies to be voted at our 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and at any adjournment or postponement thereof (Annual Meeting).

This Proxy Statement describes the matters on which we would like you to vote and provides information on those matters so that you can make an informed decision.

The Notice of 2007 Annual Meeting, this Proxy Statement, the form of proxy card and the voting instructions are being mailed starting April 25, 2007.

What proposals will be voted on at the Annual Meeting?

There are two proposals scheduled to be voted on at the Annual Meeting:

- the election of nine directors; and
- the ratification of the selection of Deloitte & Touche LLP (Deloitte) as ACA 's independent registered public accounting firm for 2007.

What is ACA 's Board 's voting recommendation?

Our Board recommends that you vote your shares FOR each of the nominees of the Board, and FOR the ratification of the selection of Deloitte as ACA 's independent registered public accounting firm for 2007.

Who is entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting?

Holders of ACA common stock at the close of business on March 27, 2007 are entitled to receive the Notice of 2007 Annual Meeting and to vote their shares at the Annual Meeting. On that date, there were 36,562,756 shares of ACA common stock outstanding. ACA common stock is our only class of voting stock.

How many votes do I have?

You will have one vote for every share of ACA common stock that you owned at the close of business on March 27, 2007.

What is the difference between holding shares as a stockholder of record and as a beneficial owner?

If your shares are registered directly in your name with ACA 's transfer agent, Mellon Investor Services LLC, you are considered the stockholder of record with respect to those shares. The Notice of 2007 Annual Meeting, this Proxy Statement, the proxy card and our annual report for the year ended December 31, 2006 (the 2006 Annual Report) have been sent directly to you by Mellon Investor Services LLC.

If your shares are held in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner with respect to those shares. These shares are sometimes referred to as being held in street name. The Notice of 2007 Annual Meeting, this Proxy Statement, the proxy card and the 2006 Annual Report have been forwarded to you by your broker, bank or other holder of record who is considered the stockholder of record with respect to those shares. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote your shares by using the voting instruction card included in the mailing or by following the instructions on the voting instruction card for voting by telephone or on the Internet.

How do I vote?

You may vote using any of the following methods:

By Mail

Be sure to complete, sign and date the proxy card or voting instruction card and return it in the prepaid envelope. If you are a stockholder of record and you return your signed proxy card but do not indicate your voting preferences, the persons named in the proxy card will vote the shares represented by that proxy as recommended by our Board.

By telephone or on the Internet

Instead of submitting your vote by mail on the enclosed proxy card, you may vote via the Internet or by telephone. Please note that there are separate Internet and telephone arrangements depending on whether you are a stockholder of record (that is, if you hold your stock in your own name) or you are a beneficial owner and hold your shares in street name (that is, if your stock is held in the name of your broker, bank or other nominee).

If you are a stockholder of record, you may vote by telephone, or electronically through the Internet, by following the instructions provided on your proxy card. If you are a beneficial owner but not the record owner since you hold your shares in street name, you will need to contact your broker, bank or other nominee to determine whether you will be able to vote by telephone or electronically.

The telephone and Internet voting procedures are designed to authenticate stockholders' identities, to allow stockholders to give their voting instructions and to confirm that stockholders' instructions have been recorded properly. If you vote via the Internet, you may incur costs, such as usage charges from Internet access providers and telephone companies. You will be responsible for those costs.

Whether or not you plan to attend the Annual Meeting, we urge you to vote. Returning the proxy card or voting by telephone or over the Internet will not affect your right to attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person.

In person at the Annual Meeting

All stockholders may vote in person by ballot at the Annual Meeting. You may also be represented by another person at the Annual Meeting by executing a proper proxy designating that person. If you are a beneficial owner of shares but not the record holder, you must obtain a legal proxy from your broker, bank or other nominee and present that legal proxy to the inspectors of election with your ballot to be able to vote at the Annual Meeting.

What can I do if I change my mind after I vote?

If you are a stockholder of record, you can revoke your proxy before it is exercised by:

- written notice to the Company's Secretary at the address indicated on page 4 under "Can a stockholder communicate directly with our Board?";
- timely delivery of a valid, later-dated proxy or a later-dated vote by telephone or on the Internet; or
- attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person by ballot.

If you are a beneficial owner of shares but not the record holder, you may submit new voting instructions by contacting your broker, bank or other nominee. You may also vote in person at the Annual Meeting if you obtain a legal proxy as described in the answer to the previous question. All shares that have been properly voted and not revoked will be voted at the Annual Meeting.

What votes need to be present to hold the Annual Meeting?

Under our Bylaws, the presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of our outstanding common stock on March 27, 2007 entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists.

What vote is required to approve each proposal?

Proposal 1:

Elect Nine Directors

The nine nominees for director who receive the most votes will be elected. If you do not vote for a nominee, or you indicate withhold authority to vote for any nominee on your proxy card, your vote will not count either for or against the nominee.

Proposal 2:

Ratify Selection of Independent Auditors

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes present and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is required to ratify the selection of Deloitte as ACA's independent registered public accounting firm for 2007. If you abstain from voting, it has the same effect as if you voted against this proposal.

How are votes counted?

In the election of directors, your vote may be cast FOR all of the nominees or your vote may be WITHHELD with respect to one or more of the nominees. For other proposals, your vote may be cast FOR or AGAINST or you may ABSTAIN. If you ABSTAIN, it has the same effect as a vote AGAINST. If you sign your proxy card with no further instructions, your shares will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of our Board.

What is the effect of broker non-votes?

A broker non-vote occurs when a broker, bank or other nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power with respect to that item and has not received voting instructions from the beneficial owner. Under current policy of the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), a broker, bank or other nominee may exercise discretionary voting power for both the election of directors and the ratification of the selection of Deloitte.

Who will count the votes?

Representatives of our transfer agent, Mellon Investor Services LLC, will tabulate the votes and act as inspectors of election at the Annual Meeting.

Is voting confidential?

We maintain a policy of keeping all the proxies and ballots confidential. The inspectors of election will forward to management any written comments that you make on the proxy card.

What are the costs of soliciting these proxies and who will pay them?

We will bear all costs of solicitation. Upon request, we will reimburse banks, brokers, and other nominees for the expenses they incur in forwarding the proxy materials to you.

Is this Proxy Statement the only way that proxies are being solicited?

No. In addition to our mailing the proxy materials, members of our Board, officers and employees may solicit proxies by telephone, by fax or other electronic means of communication, or in person. They will not receive any compensation for their solicitation activities in addition to their regular compensation. We have not engaged an outside solicitation firm.

Where can I find the voting results?

We will publish the voting results in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the second quarter of 2007, which we will file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) in August 2007. You will be able to find the Form 10-Q on ACA 's Internet site at www.aca.com, as well as on the SEC 's EDGAR database at www.sec.gov.

Can a stockholder communicate directly with our Board?

Stockholders and other interested parties may communicate with members of our Board by writing to ACA 's General Counsel and Secretary at ACA Capital Holdings, Inc., 140 Broadway, 47th Floor, New York, New York 10005 or by sending an e-mail to ACA 's General Counsel and Secretary at ndahlman@aca.com. Our General Counsel and Secretary will forward all appropriate communications directly to our Board or to any individual director or directors, depending upon the facts and circumstances outlined in the communication.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Operation and Meetings

Our Board is responsible for broad corporate policy and the oversight of the management of our Company. Members of the Board are kept informed about our Company's business by various documents sent to them before each meeting and oral reports made to them during these meetings by members of the Company's management. The full Board is also advised of actions taken by the various committees of our Board by the Chairpersons of those committees. Directors have access to all of our books, records and reports, and members of management are available at all times to answer their questions. Management also communicates with the various members of our Board on a regular informal basis as is needed to effectively oversee the activities of our Company.

During 2006, our Board held four (4) regularly scheduled meetings and two (2) special telephonic meetings. Our Board also acted seven (7) times by consent action. Each then incumbent director attended at least 75% of the total regularly scheduled and special meetings of the Board and the Board committees on which such director served in 2006. For more information, see Committees Committee Membership as of March 27, 2007 and Meetings Held During 2006 below. Our outside (non-management) directors also held regularly scheduled executive sessions without members of management present at which David E. King, chairman of our Board, presided. In 2006, the outside directors met in executive session four (4) times. Beginning in 2007, the Board will schedule at least one executive session per year that includes only independent directors consistent with the listing standards of the NYSE. The procedure by which a presiding director is selected for each such executive session will be determined at the time of the first such meeting. In addition, all director nominees are encouraged to attend our annual meetings of stockholders.

Pursuant to a stockholders agreement, BSMB/ACA LLC has the right to designate a Board observer to attend each meeting of the Board and any Board committee. This observer is subject to the same guidelines and policies as our directors, such as our Code of Conduct and our Securities Trading Policy. However, our Board may exclude such observer from any such meeting to the extent provided for in the stockholders agreement. The various directors and executive management may also invite other individuals to attend our Board meetings from time to time. Such attendees are also subject to the same guidelines and policies as our directors. See Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions Stockholders Agreement below.

Communications with Directors

Stockholders and other interested parties wishing to communicate with our Board may send a written communication addressed to our General Counsel and Secretary at our principal executive offices. Our General Counsel and Secretary will forward all appropriate communications directly to our Board or to any individual director or directors, depending upon the facts and circumstances outlined in the communication.

Director Independence

The Policy Regarding Director Independence Determinations, which was recommended by the nominating and governance committee and approved by our Board, contains guidelines to assist the Board in its determination of director independence. These guidelines meet the listing standards of the NYSE. To qualify as independent under these guidelines, our Board must affirmatively determine that a director has no material relationship with us, other than as a director. The Policy Regarding Director Independence Determinations, as in effect from time to time, is available free of charge on our Internet site at www.aca.com. The Policy Regarding Director Independence Determinations is also available in print to any stockholder who requests it by writing to ACA Capital Holdings, Inc., at 140 Broadway, 47th Floor, New York, New York 10005, Attention: General Counsel.

Pursuant to the Policy Regarding Director Independence Determinations, in 2006 our Board undertook a review of the independence of our directors. During this review, our Board considered transactions and relationships between each director, any member of his or her immediate family or any company or tax-exempt organization at which he or she is an executive officer, has an ownership interest in or is a director of, on the one hand, and the Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates, on the other hand. This review included consideration of the transactions and relationships reported under Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions below. Our Board also examined transactions and relationships between directors or their affiliates and members of our Company's senior management and their affiliates. As provided in the Policy Regarding Director Independence Determinations, the purpose of this review was to determine whether any such relationships or transactions were inconsistent with a determination that the director is independent.

As a result of this review, our Board affirmatively determined that five of the nine directors nominated for election at the Annual Meeting namely, David M. Barse, John G. Berylson, Douglas L. Jacobs, William H. Lacy and Warren A. Stephens are independent of our Company and its management under the standards set forth in the Policy Regarding Director Independence Determinations.

Committees

Our Board has the authority to delegate the performance of certain oversight and administrative functions to subcommittees of the Board. Our Board currently has an audit and investment committee, a compensation committee, a nominating and governance committee, a risk oversight committee and an executive committee. In addition, from time to time, special committees may be established under the direction of our Board when necessary to address specific issues. Each committee has adopted a charter which is reviewed annually by that committee and changes, if any, are recommended to our Board for approval. The charters for the audit and investment committee, the compensation committee and the nominating and governance committee are subject to certain NYSE rules, and our charters for those committees comply with such rules. Copies of the committee charters, as in effect from time to time, are available free of charge on our Internet site at www.aca.com. The charters are also available in print to any stockholder who requests them by writing to ACA Capital Holdings, Inc., at 140 Broadway, 47th Floor, New York, New York 10005, Attention: General Counsel. In addition, a copy of the audit and investment committee charter as currently in effect is attached as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement.

The following table shows the membership of each committee of our Board as of March 27, 2007 and the number of meetings held by each committee during 2006:

Audit and Investment Committee

The audit and investment committee was established to assist the Board in its oversight of the integrity of our financial reporting process, our system of internal controls, the audit process and the performance, qualification and independence of our independent auditors. The audit and investment committee currently consists of Douglas L. Jacobs (chairman), Robert Juneja and William H. Lacy. Under the stockholders agreement, the number of members of the audit and investment committee cannot exceed five and is required at all times to include at least one member who was nominated by BSMB/ACA LLC, subject to compliance with applicable securities laws and the rules and regulations of the NYSE. Currently, that member is Mr. Juneja. Our Board has determined that Messrs. Jacobs and Lacy are independent under the current NYSE independence requirements and SEC rules, Mr. Jacobs meets the SEC criteria for an audit committee financial expert, and each of the members are financially literate under the rules of the NYSE. Within 12 months after our listing on the NYSE (no later than November 10, 2007), all of the members of the audit and investment committee will be independent as of such date in accordance with the NYSE and SEC rules.

The audit and investment committee's primary duties and assigned responsibilities are to:

- oversee the audit and other services of our independent auditors and be directly responsible for the appointment, independence, qualifications, compensation and oversight of the independent auditors, who are to report directly to the audit and investment committee;
- serve as an independent and objective body to monitor and assess our compliance with legal and regulatory requirements as they relate to our financial statements, our financial reporting processes and related internal control systems and the performance, generally, of our internal audit function;
- resolve any disagreements between management and our independent auditors regarding financial reporting;
- review and discuss with management and our independent auditors our quarterly financial statements, our annual audited financial statements and the Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations section of our Form 10-Q and Form 10-K filings with the SEC; and

- oversee, direct and review the management of our investment portfolios.

The audit and investment committee charter also mandates that the audit and investment committee pre-approve all audit, audit-related, tax and other services conducted by our independent auditors. The audit and investment committee also approves budgets for the pre-approved audit, audit-related, tax and other services to be performed by our independent auditors, as well as for the accounting services provided by other accounting firms. In the first quarter 2007, the audit and investment committee passed a resolution authorizing the chairman of that committee to approve all such services with fees less than $50,000 and to report all such approvals to the full committee at its next regularly-scheduled meeting.

A copy of the audit and investment committee charter is attached as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement.

Compensation Committee

The compensation committee was established to discharge the Board's responsibilities relating to the compensation of our executive officers, and to administer and implement our incentive compensation plans and equity-based plans. The compensation committee currently consists of David E. King (chairman), Douglas L. Jacobs, David M. Barse and John G. Berylson. Under the stockholders agreement, the number of members of the compensation committee cannot exceed five and is required at all times to include at least one member who was nominated by BSMB/ACA LLC, subject to compliance with applicable securities laws and the rules and regulations of the NYSE. Currently, that member is Mr. King. Our Board has determined that Messrs. Jacobs, Barse and Berylson are independent under the current NYSE independence requirements and SEC rules. Within 12 months after our listing on the NYSE (no later than November 10, 2007), all of the members of the compensation committee will be independent as of such date in accordance with the NYSE rules. In 2005 and 2006, the compensation committee engaged the firm of McLagan Partners to assist in benchmarking pay levels against the comparable market to support the attraction and retention of qualified management and related staff. Under the terms of its charter, the primary duties and assigned responsibilities of the compensation committee include the following:

- establish and annually review our compensation philosophy and ensure it fairly rewards our Chief Executive Officer (the CEO) and other senior executives;
- annually review and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to compensation of the CEO and determine and approve the CEO's compensation levels;
- annually review and approve the CEO's compensation recommendations for the other senior executives; and
- review and administer our Company's incentive compensation and equity-based plans, including the approval of awards to be granted thereunder.

For additional information regarding the compensation committee's processes and procedures for the consideration and determination of executive compensation, please see "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" below.

Nominating and Governance Committee

The nominating and governance committee was established to assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities with respect to the governance of our Company. The nominating and governance committee currently consists of David E. King (chairman), Warren A. Stephens and William H. Lacy. Under the stockholders agreement, the number of members of the nominating and governance committee cannot exceed five and is required at all times to include at least one member who was nominated by BSMB/ACA LLC, subject to compliance with applicable securities laws and the rules and regulations of the NYSE. Currently, that member is Mr. King. Our Board has determined Messrs. Stephens and Lacy are independent under the current NYSE independence requirements. Within 12 months after our listing on the NYSE (no later than November 10, 2007), all of the members of the nominating and governance committee will be independent as of such date in accordance with the NYSE rules. The charter of the nominating and governance committee specifies the committee's duties and assigned responsibilities, which include the following:

- establish criteria for board and committee membership, and recommend to the Board qualified individuals for election to the Board or appointment to board committees;
- consider and make recommendations to our Board concerning the size and composition of the board and each committee thereof;
- review the compensation of non-employee directors and make recommendations to the Board concerning compensation of non-employee directors;
- prepare an annual assessment of the Board and each committee thereof, and assist the Board and each committee in its self-evaluation to determine whether the Board and such committees are functioning effectively; and
- review and reassess the adequacy of our Corporate Governance Guidelines and recommend any proposed changes thereto to the Board.

The nominating and governance committee also evaluates the performance of our CEO and oversees management development and succession planning in coordination with our compensation committee.

Risk Oversight Committee

The risk oversight committee was established to oversee our credit analysis and risk management processes. The risk oversight committee currently consists of David E. King (chairman), William H. Lacy, Douglas L. Jacobs and Alan S. Roseman. Under the stockholders agreement, the number of members of the risk oversight committee cannot exceed five and is required at all times to include at least one member who was nominated by BSMB/ACA LLC. Currently, that member is Mr. King. Under the terms of its charter, the risk oversight committee's primary duties and assigned responsibilities include the following:

- monitor the compliance with our underwriting policies and procedures, and review reports on the performance of our municipal finance and structured finance business sectors;
- evaluate the tools we use for measuring risk/return and review our risk/return performance;
- review the guidelines and policies governing the processes for identifying and assessing significant risk or exposures and for formulating and implementing steps to monitor and control such risks and exposures;
- monitor legal/regulatory risk unrelated to our financial statements; and
- review management proposals to introduce new product lines, services and information technology initiatives.

Executive Committee

We also have an executive committee, which has the power to act on behalf of our Board with respect to the management and business affairs of our Company during intervals between meetings of our Board to the extent permitted under Delaware law, our Certificate of Incorporation, our Bylaws and the NYSE rules. The executive committee meets on an as needed basis. The executive committee currently consists of David E. King (chairman), David M. Barse and Alan S. Roseman. While the stockholders agreement does not require that we have an executive committee, the stockholders agreement provides that the composition of any committee of the Board may not exceed five members and is required at all times to include at least one member who was nominated by BSMB/ACA LLC. Currently, that member is Mr. King.

Director Qualifications

Our Corporate Governance Guidelines contain Board membership criteria that apply to nominees recommended by the nominating and governance committee for a position on our Board. The nominating and governance committee will review with our Board the requisite skills and characteristics for new Board members. The nominating and governance committee and our Board will consider an individual's background, specific skill requirements, diversity and business experience, as well as assess his or her independence pursuant to the Policy Regarding Director Independence Determinations. Copies of our Corporate Governance Guidelines, Code of Conduct, Code of Ethics for Chief Executive Officer and Senior Financial Officers and Policy Regarding Director Independence Determinations are available free of charge on our Internet site at www.aca.com. These items are also available in print to any stockholder who requests them by writing to ACA Capital Holdings, Inc., at 140 Broadway, 47th Floor, New York, New York 10005, Attention: General Counsel.

Identifying and Evaluating Nominees for Directors

Our Board is responsible for selecting its own members, and delegates the screening process for new directors to the nominating and governance committee, with counsel from the chairman of our Board, the CEO and outside consultants as appropriate. This committee utilizes a number of methods for identifying and evaluating nominees for Board membership. This committee regularly assesses the appropriate size of our Board, and whether any vacancies are anticipated due to retirement or otherwise. In the event our Board elects to increase the number of its members or there is a vacancy on our Board, this committee will consider various potential candidates for director, which may come to the attention of this committee through current Board members, professional search firms, stockholders, or other persons. In connection with the selection and nomination process, this committee reviews the desired experience, mix of skills and other qualities to assure appropriate Board composition, taking into account the background and qualifications of the current Board members and the specific needs of our Company and our Board. Our Board will look for individuals who have displayed high ethical standards, integrity, and sound business judgment. This process is designed to ensure that our Board includes members with diverse backgrounds, skills and experience, including appropriate financial and other expertise relevant to our business.

We may from time to time engage a third party search firm to assist our Board and the nominating and governance committee in identifying and recruiting candidates for Board membership.

Proposal 1 Election of Directors

Nominees for Election as Directors

A Board consisting of nine directors is proposed to be elected to serve a one-year term or until their successors have been elected and qualified. The nine nominees, together with their ages, positions and biographies, are listed below. All of the nominees are currently directors. Our Board is not aware that any nominee named in this Proxy Statement is unable or unwilling to accept nomination or election. If any nominee becomes unable to accept nomination or election, the persons named in the proxy card will vote your shares for the election of a substitute nominee selected by the Board.

Vote Required and Recommendation of Board

The nine nominees receiving the greatest number of votes duly cast for election as directors will be elected. Abstentions will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the Annual Meeting, but will not be counted for purposes of calculating a plurality. Therefore, abstentions will have no impact as to the election of directors. Under NYSE regulations, brokers will have discretionary voting power over director elections at the Annual Meeting.

Under the terms of the stockholders agreement, each stockholder that is a party to that agreement has agreed to vote for directors nominated by certain stockholders and each of our employees who is a party to that agreement is required to appoint BSMB/ACA LLC as proxy and attorney-in-fact to vote for the election of directors. See Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions Stockholders Agreement below. The aggregate number of shares of common stock owned by stockholders who are parties to the stockholders agreement as of March 27, 2007 was 29,213,832, which was approximately 79% of our then outstanding common stock.

Our Bylaws provide that the number of directors on the Board can be no fewer than three and no greater than fourteen. The exact number of directors is to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by our Board. Currently, our Board has set the size at nine directors. Under the stockholders agreement, BSMB/ACA LLC currently has the right to nominate three directors as BSMB/ACA LLC representatives, but has currently nominated only two of these directors. BSMB/ACA LLC also has the right to nominate two independent directors, which it has done. See Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions Stockholders Agreement below. Should BSMB/ACA LLC decide to nominate a third director as a BSMB/ACA LLC representative, our Board will increase the size of the Board as required to accommodate the additional member and in order to comply with the NYSE requirements discussed under Corporate Governance Operations and Meetings above. We are actively reviewing director candidates and may increase the size of our Board at any time.

Our Board unanimously recommends a vote FOR the election of the nine nominees listed below.

SECURITIES OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND officers and directors

The table below sets forth information known to us regarding the beneficial ownership of shares of our common stock as of March 27, 2007 by:

- each person known by us to be the beneficial owner of more than five percent (5%) of our shares of common stock;
- each of our directors;
- our CEO and the other four executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table that appears in this Proxy Statement; and
- all directors and executive officers, as a group.

Unless otherwise noted below, to our knowledge, each person has sole voting and investment power over the shares shown as beneficially owned, except to the extent authority is shared by spouses under applicable law.

The number of shares listed as beneficially owned by each stockholder below is determined to be beneficially owned in accordance with the rules promulgated by the SEC. The information does not necessarily indicate beneficial ownership for any other purpose. Shares of common stock subject to options currently exercisable or exercisable within 60 days after March 27, 2007 are deemed outstanding for purposes of computing the percentage beneficially owned by the person or entity holding such securities but are not deemed outstanding for purposes of computing the percentage beneficially owned by any other person or entity. Under the terms of the stockholders agreement, certain of our stockholders, including the greater than five percent (5%) stockholders named below (other than Perry Corp.) and our employees who are parties to the stockholders agreement, have agreed to vote for directors nominated by certain stockholders and each of our employees who is a party to the stockholders agreement is required to appoint BSMB/ACA LLC as proxy and attorney-in-fact to vote for the election and/or removal of directors. Schedule 13G filings by all of the parties to the stockholders agreement have been made with the SEC that identify each of the parties to the stockholders agreement. See "Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions" Stockholders Agreement below. Accordingly, all of the parties to the stockholders agreement may be deemed to be members of a group, which group would be deemed to beneficially own all the shares held by all of the parties to the stockholders agreement for purposes of Section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). The aggregate number of shares of common stock owned by stockholders who are parties to the stockholders agreement as of March 27, 2007 was 29,213,832, which was approximately 79% of our then outstanding common stock. The table below represents the number of shares owned by each stockholder named below without giving effect to any share these persons may be deemed to beneficially own because they are parties to the stockholders agreement.

Percentage of beneficial ownership is based on 36,562,756 shares of our common stock outstanding as of March 27, 2007. This number revises the number of shares of common stock outstanding reported on the front cover of our 2006 Form 10-K. All share numbers presented are common stock, which is the only class of equity outstanding.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires our executive officers and directors, and other persons who own more than ten percent (10%) of our outstanding common stock, to file reports of their stock ownership and changes in their ownership of our common stock with the SEC and the NYSE. These same people must also furnish us with copies of these reports.

We have helped our executive officers and certain directors who have requested our assistance to prepare and file the required reports. We have established procedures whereby the executive officers and those directors provide us with the relevant information regarding their transactions in our shares. Based on this information, we prepare and file the required ownership reports on behalf of the executive officers and those directors.

We have performed a general review of the reports prepared and filed either by us or by the filers themselves in 2006. In addition, our executive officers and directors have made written statements to us regarding their ACA common stock ownership. Based on this review of these reports and representations from reporting persons received by us, to our knowledge all our executive officers and directors, and other persons who own more than ten percent (10%) of our outstanding common stock, have fully complied with the reporting requirements of Section 16(a), with the following exceptions:

- In connection with our IPO, Form 3s were required to be filed by each of William H. Lacy, John G. Berylson, Warren A. Stephens and SF Holding Corp. by November 9, 2006. However, due to delays in receiving the required SEC filing codes, these Form 3s were not filed until November 13, 2006.
- Form 3s for Drawbridge Special Opportunities Fund LP and Banc of America Strategic Investments Corp. that were also required to be filed by November 9, 2006 were inadvertently not filed until November 15, 2006 (the Banc of America Strategic Investments Corp. filing was amended on November 20, 2006 to add Bank of America Corp /DE/).
- Form 3s of Life Investors Insurance Company of America and Transamerica Life Insurance Company, as well as their Form 4s disclosing the conversion of our convertible preferred shares into shares of our common stock, were filed on November 9, 2006 but inadvertently listed the wrong entity names. Filings with the correct entity names were made on November 28, 2006.
- Section 16 filings may have been required to be made by Messrs. Ingato, Larson and Willkomm who are signatories to the stockholders agreement and, therefore, may be deemed members of a greater than 10% ownership group for Section 16 purposes. Although Form 3s were inadvertently not filed for these individuals, Form 5s were timely filed on February 14, 2007.
- Form 4s for Messrs. Gilpin and Pimbley disclosing their respective purchase of shares of our common stock were inadvertently filed one day late on December 18, 2006.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

General Philosophy. Our Company is guided by compensation principles directed at attracting, retaining and motivating the most qualified executives for their respective positions and responsibilities. The compensation system is intended to reward superior performance, which is evaluated in part based on contributions to, and increases in, stockholder value. The principal objectives of our Company's compensation program with respect to our named executive officers are as follows:

- Establish the most direct connection between the executive's compensation and his or her performance;
- Establish current compensation at market competitive levels;
- Provide for clear alignment between the financial interests of the executive with the broader financial interests of the stockholders by ensuring that the mix of current and long-term compensation strongly promote long-term value creation and liquidity; and

- Establish a system that is simply understood, efficient to administer and embodies a commitment to the equitable distribution of compensation across departments based on relative performance and contribution.

2006 Compensation Elements. Our senior management compensation program is overseen by our compensation committee which consists entirely of non-management directors and is composed of two primary components: cash compensation and equity compensation.

(1) Annual Cash Compensation. The annual cash compensation component is comprised of base salary and cash bonuses and is intended to drive near-term performance. Our Company strives to set current compensation within the competitive context at levels that are designed to attract top talented professional and related staff, while acknowledging that the Company is somewhat unique and a direct market comparable must be synthesized from various compensation survey data sources. In 2005 and 2006, the compensation committee engaged the firm of McLagan Partners to assist in benchmarking pay levels against the comparable market to support the attraction and retention of qualified management and related staff. Annual cash compensation is targeted to comprise approximately 70%-80% of an executive's total compensation.

- Base Salary. In determining each executive's base salary, our Company evaluates each executive's position, experience and performance with reference to the responsibilities of each such individual and market salaries for comparable positions. In order to retain top talented professionals, our Company believes it necessary to set base salaries at least at market medians and to grant cost of living salary increases from time to time. The hiring and salary decisions as they relate to executive management are approved by our Company's compensation committee.

- Cash Bonuses. A meaningful portion of the annual cash compensation is made in the form of an incentive bonus, which is linked to measurable performance metrics established at the beginning of the year. The performance guidelines are a function of objective standards of our Company's financial performance, the executive's departmental performance and the senior executive's individual performance as against defined individual objectives. Such performance criteria include return on equity, operating net income, and net economic margin. For the CEO's compensation, achievement of these corporate performance goals is weighted 80% and the achievement of qualitative strategic and management goals is weighted 20%. For the other named executive officers, the weighting of corporate goals ranges from 40%-60%, objective departmental financial goals are weighted 30%-50% and individual goals are weighted 10%. Based on performance, actual bonus payments to our Company's employees can range from 5-10% of base salary for the lowest bonus level to 70%-500% for the highest bonus level. The specific bonus range assigned to an individual relates to the job responsibilities and achievements of that individual and is not specifically tied to the individual's title. Each of the named executive officers, other than our CEO, are in the second highest bonus level, entitling them, subject to performance both by the individual and our Company and to the approval of the compensation committee, to a bonus in the range of 60% to 400% of their base salary. Our CEO is in the highest bonus level, entitling him, subject to his own performance and the performance of our Company and to the approval of the Compensation Committee, to a bonus between 70% and 500% of his base salary.

(2) ACA Stock Incentive Plan. As a component of the annual bonus awarded to senior executives, participation in the Amended and Restated 2006 Stock Incentive Plan has been offered as long term-incentive, intended to align the interests of these senior executives with the long-term growth objectives of our Company's stockholders. Although the plan comprehends a variety of long-term incentive awards, only stock options and restricted stock have been awarded. The individual long-term incentive awards are based on a percentage target of overall compensation as well as the senior executive's level of responsibility and potential impact on stockholder value. Stock options and restricted stock are granted the night before the fourth Quarter Earnings announcement and all options are granted with a fair market value exercise price. Options granted vest ratably every six (6) months over a 42-month period from the date of grant and restricted stock vests one-fourth (1/4) annually on each of the first four anniversaries of the date of grant.

Our summary compensation table for the year ended December 31, 2006 includes certain other amounts earned or paid to our named executive officers, including amounts contributed to such executive officers under the employer matching portion of the Company's 401(k) plan. In addition, we provide standard employee health and reimbursement benefits to our named executive officers which we believe is industry competitive and necessary to attract and retain key individuals.

Our named executive officers are parties to employment agreements. These agreements were individually negotiated and will continue in their current forms until such time as the compensation committee determines in its discretion that revisions are advisable. Each of our named executive officers has a provision in his employment agreement providing for certain severance benefits in the event of a termination without cause or as a result of a constructive termination. These severance benefits are designed to reflect the fact that it may be difficult for our named executive officers to find comparable employment within a short period of time, as well as to ensure that the executives are properly compensated for releasing our Company from any and all claims against it and adhering to the post-termination non-competition and non-solicitation covenants found in their agreements. In addition, on a change of control, the agreements provide for the accelerated vesting of the stock options and restricted stock held by the CEO and the CFO. Accelerated vesting encourages our CEO and CFO to remain employed with our Company through the consummation of a transaction, which is beneficial to our stockholders. The agreement for the CEO also contains a gross-up for certain excise taxes that may be payable by the executive in the event of a change of control. These employment agreements are more fully described under Compensation of Executive Officers Employment Agreements section below and the severance and change of control payments are more fully described under Compensation of Executive Officers Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change-of-Control below.

Individual determinations for the current compensation for each employee below our CEO and senior executives are the responsibility of our CEO and the group managers. Our CEO shall insure that all individual positions are market priced on a current basis.

Employment Agreements

Set forth below is a summary of the employment agreements we have with each of our named executive officers. This summary is qualified in its entirety by the detailed provisions of the individual employment agreements. You may refer to the exhibits of our registration statement on Form S-1, as amended, File No. 333-133949 (Form S-1), our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ending September 30, 2006, as well as our 2006 Form 10-K, each on file with the SEC and available on the SEC's EDGAR database at www.sec.gov for copies of these employment agreements.

Alan S. Roseman. We have entered into an employment agreement with Alan S. Roseman our President, CEO and Deputy Chairman of our Board. Mr. Roseman's agreement provides for a term ending on September 30, 2009. Mr. Roseman's employment will be automatically renewed for successive one year periods, unless either the Company or Mr. Roseman provides three months' written notice of intent not to renew the employment agreement. The non-renewal of the employment agreement is not a termination entitling Mr. Roseman to severance. Mr. Roseman's base salary for 2006 was $650,000 and Mr. Roseman was eligible for an annual incentive award with a bonus ranging between 70% and 500% of his annual base salary. In addition, Mr. Roseman was granted 55,869 restricted shares of our Company's series B senior convertible preferred stock, which was converted into 335,214 shares of common stock concurrently with the closing of our IPO. Two-thirds of these shares have vested and the remaining one-third is scheduled to vest on September 30, 2007. If a change of control of the Company, as defined in the employment agreement, occurs during his employment, Mr. Roseman's restricted stock and stock options will become fully vested.

In connection with a change of control, Mr. Roseman will be entitled to a gross-up for any excise taxes imposed on him by section 4999 of the tax code.

If we terminate Mr. Roseman for cause, as defined in the employment agreement, we are required to pay him his base salary through the date of termination, accrued but unused vacation pay, any other amounts earned, accrued or owing to him but not yet paid and other benefits in accordance with our applicable plans and programs.

If we terminate Mr. Roseman's employment without cause or if he terminates his employment as a result of a constructive termination, as defined in the employment agreement, we are required to pay him his base salary through the date of termination, accrued but unused vacation pay, any other amounts earned, accrued or owing to him but not yet paid and other benefits in accordance with our applicable plans and programs. In addition, upon his execution of a release of all claims against us, Mr. Roseman will be entitled to (i) a pro-rata annual incentive award for the year of termination calculated on the basis of the prior year's annual incentive award paid to Mr. Roseman, (ii) a lump sum severance payment equal to two times his base salary as of the date of termination, (iii) full vesting of all restricted stock and stock options and (iv) payment of COBRA premiums for the entire period of eligibility and continued participation in all of our welfare plans until the earlier of one year from termination or the receipt of equivalent coverage from a subsequent employer. Additionally, the post-termination exercise period of Mr. Roseman's stock options granted on or after November 9, 2006 is one year from the date of termination.

Mr. Roseman is subject to standard non-competition, non-solicitation and confidentiality covenants.

Edward U. Gilpin. We have entered into an employment agreement with Edward U. Gilpin, our CFO and Executive Vice President. Mr. Gilpin's agreement provides for a three-year term ending on September 30, 2007. The term of employment will be automatically renewed for successive one year periods, on the same terms and conditions set forth in the employment agreement, unless our Company or Mr. Gilpin provides 60 days' written notice of intent not to renew the employment agreement. The non-renewal of the employment agreement is not a termination entitling Mr. Gilpin to severance. Mr. Gilpin's base salary for 2006 was $400,000 and he was eligible for an annual incentive award with a target bonus of 100% of his annual base salary.

If Mr. Gilpin is terminated for cause, as defined in his agreement, we are required to pay him his base salary through the date of the termination, accrued but unused vacation pay, any other amounts earned, accrued or owing to him but not yet paid and other benefits in accordance with our applicable plans and programs.

If we terminate Mr. Gilpin's employment without cause or if he terminates his employment as a result of a constructive termination, as defined in the employment agreement, we are required to pay him his base salary through the date of termination, accrued but unused vacation pay, any other amounts earned, accrued or owing to him but not yet paid and other benefits in accordance with our applicable plans and programs. In addition, upon the execution of a release of all claims against us, Mr. Gilpin will be entitled to (i) a pro-rata annual incentive award for the year of termination, (ii) a lump sum severance payment equal to two times his base salary as of the date of termination and (iii) payment of COBRA premiums for the entire period of eligibility and continued participation in all of our welfare plans until the earlier of one year from termination and equivalent coverage from a subsequent employer. Additionally, all of Mr. Gilpin's stock options and restricted stock shall immediately vest upon the occurrence of a change of control, as defined in the employment agreement.

Mr. Gilpin is subject to standard non-competition, non-solicitation and confidentiality covenants.

Other Named Executive Officers. We have entered into employment agreements with Laura U. Schwartz, a Senior Managing Director, James A. Rothman, a Senior Managing Director and Joseph M. Pimbley, an Executive Vice President (collectively, the Executives). Each agreement provides for a three-year term ending on September 30, 2007. The term of employment will be automatically renewed for successive one year periods, on the same terms and conditions set forth in each of the employment agreements, unless either the Company or the Executive provides 60 days written notice of intent not to renew the employment agreement. The non-renewal of their employment agreements is not a termination entitling the Executives to severance. Each of their base salaries for 2006 was $275,000. Each Executive is eligible for an annual incentive award with a target bonus of 100% of annual base salary.

If an Executive is terminated for cause, as defined in each employment agreement, we are required to pay such Executive his or her base salary through the date of the termination, accrued but unused vacation pay, any other amounts earned, accrued or owing to him or her but not yet paid and other benefits in accordance with our applicable plans and programs.

If we terminate an Executive's employment without cause or if he or she terminates his or her employment as a result of a constructive termination, as defined in his or her employment agreement, we are required to pay such Executive his or her base salary through the date of termination, accrued but unused vacation pay, any other amounts earned, accrued or owing to him or her but not yet paid and other benefits in accordance with our applicable plans and programs. In addition, upon the execution of a release of all claims against us, the Executive will be entitled to (i) a pro-rata annual incentive award for the year of termination, (ii) a lump sum severance payment equal to one year of base salary as of the date of termination and (iii) payment of COBRA premiums for the entire period of eligibility and continued participation in all of our welfare plans until the earlier of one year from termination and equivalent coverage from a subsequent employer.

The Executives are subject to standard non-competition, non-solicitation and confidentiality covenants.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Under our written Related Party Transaction Policy, all transactions involving any of our directors, executive officers or greater than five percent (5%) stockholders, as well as any members of their family or entities in which they have a material interest, must be referred to our General Counsel to determine if it constitutes a related party transaction. If our General Counsel determines that a transaction or relationship constitutes a related party transaction within the meaning of Item 404(a) of SEC Regulation S-K, our General Counsel will refer the transaction pursuant to the following standards. Related party transactions involving executive officers (other than the CEO or the General Counsel) and/or their immediate family members will be referred to the CEO and the General Counsel. Related party transactions involving the General Counsel and/or her immediate family members will be referred to the CEO. Related party transactions involving more than five percent (5%) stockholders, directors, director nominees or the CEO and/or their immediate family members will be referred to the nominating and governance committee. All determinations by the CEO or the General Counsel will be reported to the nominating and governance committee at its next regularly scheduled meeting.

Our CEO and the General Counsel or the nominating and governance committee will approve or ratify each such transaction if it is consistent with the policy. In determining whether to approve a related party transaction, the CEO and the General Counsel and the nominating and governance committee will consider, among other things, the following factors: whether the terms of the transaction are fair to the Company; whether the terms of the transaction would have been the same had the transaction not involved a related party; whether there are business reasons for the Company to enter into the transaction; whether the transaction would impair the independence of an outside director; whether the transaction would present an improper conflict of interest for any director or executive officer of the Company; and whether the transaction is material. The types of related party transactions covered by the policy are those that are required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404(a) of SEC Regulation S-K.

The nominating and governance committee was formed upon the listing of our common stock on the NYSE on November 10, 2006. Our Related Party Transaction Policy was not adopted until the first quarter 2007. During 2006, potential related party transactions were referred to our General Counsel for review for the existence of potential conflicts of interest. These transactions were discussed with, and approved by, our CEO and, on an as needed basis, our Board or, following its formation, the nominating and governance committee.

Since January 1, 2006, the following transactions were addressed by our related party transaction policies:

BSMB/ACA LLC, our largest stockholder owning 27.7% of our outstanding common stock as of March 27, 2007, is a Bear Stearns Merchant Banking, LLC sponsored investment vehicle. Bear Stearns Merchant Banking is the private equity arm of Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Bear Stearns Companies Inc. In April 2006, we transferred our position in an insured credit swap as a protection seller under one structured credit transaction to Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. for which Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. paid us $839,000. Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. also performed investment banking services on two CDO transactions in 2006 sponsored by us in connection with which Bear Stearns & Co. Inc. received structuring and placement fees of approximately $17.9 million. We were also paid structuring fees and fees for management of the assets during the warehouse phase on these transactions in the aggregate amount of approximately $6.5 million. In May 2006, we entered into a credit agreement in which Bear Stearns Corporate Lending Inc. is a lender and has and will in the future earn customary fees. Bear Stearns Corporate Lending Inc. is an affiliate of Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. In November 2006, Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. participated as one of the joint book-running managers of our IPO. We paid Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. approximately $1.4 million in commissions and related fees pursuant to a customary underwriting agreement among us and the several underwriters in connection with that offering. We also paid an affiliate of BSMB/ACA LLC a portfolio monitoring fee of approximately $0.3 million in 2006 under a professional services agreement. In March 2007, we entered into an insured credit swap with Bear Stearns Credit Products Inc., an affiliate of Bear Stearns & Co. Inc. The first quarterly payment for this insured credit swap is payable to us in June 2007. Two BSMB/ACA LLC representatives presently serve on our Board, including our chairman.

In 2002, we retained Stephens Capital Management (Stephens) as one of our investment managers and paid investment management fees of $0.7 million to Stephens during 2006. This investment manager is affiliated with SF Holding Corp. (f/k/a Stephens Group Inc.). The investment management agreement was terminated upon the consent of both parties effective as of January 31, 2007. In November 2006, Stephens Inc., an affiliate of SF Holding Corp., participated as one of the managers of our IPO. We paid Stephens Inc. approximately $700,000 in commissions and related fees pursuant to a customary underwriting agreement among us and the several underwriters in connection with that offering. SF Holding Corp. is our second largest stockholder, owning 13.3% of our outstanding common stock as of March 27, 2007. One SF Holding Corp. representative presently serves on our Board.

We believe all the transactions listed above are on terms comparable to those that could have been obtained from unaffiliated third parties.

We have entered into indemnity agreements with two of our directors, William H. Lacy and Douglas L. Jacobs, under which we agreed to indemnify Mr. Lacy or Mr. Jacobs if either is made, or threatened to be made, a party to any action or proceeding (including an action by or in the right of us), whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director of us, or was serving at our request as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses which he incurs, subject to the limitations imposed by Delaware law. Under Delaware law, we are permitted to indemnify our directors, officers, employees and other agents, within the limits established by our Bylaws and public policy, pursuant to an express contract. Delaware law generally permits indemnification of expenses actually and reasonably incurred in the defense or settlement of a derivative or third-party action, provided there is a determination by a disinterested quorum of the directors, by independent legal counsel (if a quorum of independent directors is not obtainable) or by a majority vote of a quorum of the stockholders (excluding shares owned by the indemnified party) that the person seeking indemnification acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation. Without court approval, however, no indemnification may be made in respect of any derivative action in which such person is adjudged liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duty to the corporation. In addition, we maintain liability insurance covering all of our directors and officers. There is no pending litigation or proceeding involving any of our directors, officers or employees for which indemnification is sought.

On September 30, 2004, pursuant to an employment contract approved by our Board, we granted 55,869 shares of restricted stock to our CEO, Alan S. Roseman, which totaled approximately $3.5 million. We loaned Mr. Roseman $1,372,892 to fund taxes associated with his Section 83(b) election in connection with the grant. The loan accrued interest at 3.56%, the applicable federal rate provided by the Internal Revenue Service for the month the loan was originated. The largest aggregate amount of indebtedness outstanding in 2006 was $1,380,902. On May 2, 2006, Mr. Roseman paid the outstanding principal balance and accrued interest in the amount of $1,126,312 in full. See Compensation of Executive Officers Employment Agreements above.

Pursuant to employment agreements approved by our Board in 2001, our Executive Vice President and CFO, Edward U. Gilpin, and our then Executive Vice President Head of Credit, William Tomljanovic, each purchased 8,789 shares of our common stock in exchange for a $500,000 10-year promissory note payable to us. The promissory notes accrued interest at the 10-year U.S. Treasury rate. Under Mr. Gilpin's note the largest aggregate amount of indebtedness outstanding in 2006 was $560,533. Mr. Gilpin made principal and interest payments on the note in the aggregate amount of $171,600 and the remaining balance was forgiven by the Company in the first quarter of 2006. Under Mr. Tomljanovic's note the largest aggregate amount of indebtedness outstanding in 2006 was also $560,533. Mr. Tomljanovic made principal and interest payments on the note in the aggregate amount of $190,350 and the remaining balance was forgiven by the Company in the first quarter of 2006.

Stockholders Agreement

We and some of our stockholders are parties to a stockholders agreement. The parties to the stockholders agreement owned in the aggregate 29,213,832 shares as of March 27, 2007, which was approximately 79% of our then outstanding common stock.

The stockholders agreement states that each stockholder that is a party to that agreement is required to vote and take all other necessary or desirable actions within its control in its capacity as a stockholder, and that we take all necessary or desirable actions within our control, so that the following individuals are elected to our Board:

- two members of our senior management, one of which must be our CEO and another who must be a member of our executive management team that is nominated by our CEO;
- one director nominated by BSMB/ACA LLC if BSMB/ACA LLC and its affiliates hold 10% or more of its original stock holdings, two directors nominated by BSMB/ACA LLC if BSMB/ACA LLC and its affiliates hold 25% or more of its original stock holdings and three directors nominated by BSMB/ACA LLC if BSMB/ACA LLC and its affiliates hold 50% or more of its original stock holdings, and at all times two independent directors nominated by BSMB/ACA LLC not employed by the Company, the Bear Stearns Companies, Inc. or any stockholder;
- one director nominated by SF Holding Corp. (f/k/a Stephens Group, Inc.) if SF Holding Corp. holds 10% or more of our common stock;
- one director nominated by Chestnut Hill ACA, LLC if Chestnut Hill ACA, LLC holds 10% or more of our common stock; and
- one director nominated by Third Avenue Trust if Third Avenue Trust holds 10% or more of our common stock.

BSMB/ACA LLC owns all of its original stock holdings and thus has the right under the stockholders agreement to nominate three directors, plus two independent nominees approved by our Board. For the Annual Meeting, BSMB/ACA LLC has selected Messrs. King, Juneja, Jacobs and Lacy as its nominees, with Messrs. Jacobs and Lacy being the two independent nominees. BSMB/ACA LLC has not exercised its right to nominate a third director as a BSMB/ACA LLC representative. In addition, Mr. Roseman (as CEO) has nominated Mr. Gilpin, SF Holding Corp. has nominated Mr. Stephens, Chestnut Hill ACA, LLC has nominated Mr. Berylson and Third Avenue Trust has nominated Mr. Barse.

So long as each of (i) BSMB/ACA LLC and its affiliates hold 10% or more of our outstanding common stock and (ii) AEGON, N.V. and its affiliates (including, without limitation, Life Investors Insurance Company of America and Transamerica Life Insurance Company) hold 5% or more of our outstanding common stock, such stockholder shall have the right to designate a Board observer to attend each meeting of our Board and any committee of our Board. Any Board observer may be excluded from any Board or committee meeting (or any portion of a meeting) if our Board determines in good faith that such exclusion is required to preserve any evidentiary privilege or, based upon the subject matter of the meeting (or parts of the meeting), a conflict between ACA and such stockholder may be deemed to exist (determined in the good faith judgment of our Board). As of March 27, 2007, BSMB/ACA LLC held 27.7% of our then outstanding common stock and affiliates of AEGON, N.V. held 4.0% of our then outstanding common stock.

The chairman of our Board is required to be an individual nominated by BSMB/ACA LLC and, subject to compliance with applicable NYSE and SEC independence requirements, any committee of our Board shall include at least one individual nominated by BSMB/ACA LLC. The composition of the Board of ACA Financial Guaranty Corporation and any other subsidiary of the Company that BSMB/ACA LLC may reasonably designate is required to be the same as that of our Board unless prohibited by law, in which case the composition of such subsidiary board shall include at least one BSMB/ACA LLC director unless BSMB/ACA LLC otherwise consents. The stockholders agreement provides that, in the event of a conflict between the Securities Act, the Exchange Act or the rules and regulations of any exchange of which our common stock is traded and the terms of the stockholders agreement, the listing requirements and/or the applicable securities laws will prevail.

Each of our employees who is a party to the stockholders agreement must appoint BSMB/ACA LLC as proxy and attorney-in-fact to vote for the election and/or removal of directors. If such an employee ceases to be employed by us, our Board may elect to have us purchase all or any portion of shares owned by the employee. The purchase price of these shares will be determined pursuant to a formula in the stockholders agreement and may not be equal to the market price at the time of termination or repurchase.

AUDIT AND INVESTMENT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit and Investment Committee Report that follows will not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this Proxy Statement or future filings into any filing under the Securities Act or under the Exchange Act except to the extent that we specifically incorporate the information by reference, and will not otherwise be deemed filed under these Acts.

The audit and investment committee consists of the following members of the Board: Douglas L. Jacobs (chairman), Robert Juneja and William H. Lacy. The Board has determined that Messrs. Jacobs and Lacy are independent, Mr. Jacobs meets the SEC criteria for an audit committee financial expert, and each of the members to be financially literate under the requirements of the NYSE. Within 12 months after our listing on the NYSE (no later than November 10, 2007), all of the members of the audit and investment committee will be independent as of such date in accordance with the NYSE and SEC rules.

The audit and investment committee operates under a written charter adopted by our Board. A copy of the charter is attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix A. The audit and investment committee annually reviews its charter to ensure that it is meeting all relevant audit and investment committee policy requirements of the SEC, the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and the NYSE.

Management is responsible for the preparation, presentation and integrity of our financial statements, accounting and financial reporting principles and the establishment and effectiveness of internal controls and procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. The independent auditors are responsible for performing an independent audit of ACA's consolidated financial statements in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), expressing an opinion, based on their audit, as to whether the financial statements fairly present, in all material respects, the financial position, results of operation and cash flows of ACA in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and auditing management's assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting. The audit and investment committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes. However, none of the members of the audit and investment committee is professionally engaged in the practice of accounting or auditing nor are any of the members of the audit and investment committee experts in those fields. The audit and investment committee relies without independent verification on the information provided to it and on the representations made by management and the independent auditors.

The audit and investment committee held seven committee meetings during 2006. The meetings were designed, among other things, to facilitate and encourage communication among the audit and investment committee, management, the internal auditors and ACA's independent auditors, Deloitte, an independent registered public accounting firm. We discussed with ACA's internal auditors, who were appointed following our IPO, and Deloitte the overall scope and plans for their respective audits. We met with Deloitte, with and without management present, to discuss the results of its examination and its evaluation of ACA's internal controls.

The audit and investment committee has reviewed and discussed the audited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 with management and Deloitte. We also discussed with management and Deloitte the process used to support certifications by ACA's CEO and CFO that are required by the SEC and the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 to accompany ACA's periodic filings with the SEC.

The audit and investment committee also discussed with Deloitte matters required to be discussed with audit committees under generally accepted auditing standards, including, among other things, matters related to the conduct of the audit of ACA's consolidated financial statements and the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees).

The audit and investment committee also discussed with Deloitte their independence from ACA. When determining Deloitte's independence, we considered whether its provision of services to ACA beyond those rendered in connection with its audit of ACA's consolidated financial statements and reviews of ACA's consolidated financial statements included in ACA's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q was compatible with maintaining its independence. The audit and investment committee also reviewed, among other things, the audit and non-audit services performed by, and the amount of fees paid for such services to, Deloitte.

The audit and investment committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from Deloitte required by Independence Standards Board Standard No.1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees.

Based upon the review and discussions referred to above, we recommended to the Board, and the Board has approved, that ACA's audited financial statements be included in the 2006 Form 10-K. The audit and investment committee also approved the engagement of Deloitte as ACA's independent auditors for 2007.

The audit and investment committee has been advised by Deloitte that neither it nor any of its members has any financial interest, direct or indirect, in any capacity in ACA or its subsidiaries.

This report is respectfully submitted by the audit and investment committee.

PROPOSAL 2 RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The audit and investment committee approved the engagement of Deloitte as ACA's independent registered public accounting firm for 2007 to examine ACA's financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2007. Although ratification is not required by our Certificate of Incorporation, our Bylaws, Delaware law or otherwise, the audit and investment committee and our Board are requesting that stockholders ratify this appointment as a means of soliciting the opinions of stockholders and as a matter of good corporate practice.

Votes Required and Recommendation of the Board

The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote on the proposal is required to ratify the selection of Deloitte. An abstention is treated as being present and entitled to vote on the matter and, therefore, has the effect of a vote against this proposal. Under NYSE regulations, a broker, bank or other nominee may exercise discretionary voting power for the ratification of the appointment of the Company's independent auditor.

If the stockholders do not ratify the selection, the audit and investment committee will consider any information submitted by the stockholders in connection with the selection of the independent auditor for 2008. Even if the selection is ratified, the audit and investment committee, in its discretion, may direct the appointment of a different independent registered public accounting firm at any time during the year if the audit and investment committee believes such a change would be in the best interest of the Company and its stockholders.

We expect that a representative of Deloitte will be present at the Annual Meeting. This representative will have an opportunity to make a statement and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

FEES PAID TO THE INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

For the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005, professional services were performed by Deloitte, the member firms of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu and their respective affiliates (collectively, "Deloitte & Touche") for the Company and certain of its subsidiaries. The following is a description of such services and the fees billed by Deloitte & Touche in relation thereto.

Audit Fees

This includes fees billed by Deloitte & Touche in connection with the audit of our Company's and certain of our subsidiaries' annual financial statements, the review of our interim financial statements and the audit of our 401k plan. Also included are fees for services performed by Deloitte & Touche that are closely related to audits and in many cases could only be provided by our independent registered public accounting firm. Such services may include comfort letters, statutory audits, attest services, consents, and assistance with and review of documents filed with the SEC and other regulatory bodies. In addition, fees billed by Deloitte & Touche include services performed in connection with our IPO in 2006. The aggregate fees billed by Deloitte & Touche for audit services for 2006 and 2005 were approximately $1.9 million and $0.8 million, respectively.

Audit-Related Fees

This includes due diligence services related to accounting consultations, internal control reviews not required by regulators and certain attestation services as well as certain agreed-upon-procedures. The aggregate fees billed by Deloitte & Touche for audit related services rendered to our Company and subsidiaries for 2006 were approximately $60 thousand. There were no fees billed by Deloitte & Touche for audit related services for 2005.

Tax Compliance Fees

This includes corporate tax compliance services. Deloitte & Touche did not provide our Company or any of our subsidiaries with tax compliance related services during 2006 or 2005.

All Other Fees

No other fees were billed for services during 2006 or 2005.

Pre-approval of Services by the Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The charter of the audit and investment committee authorizes the audit and investment committee to pre-approve and review quarterly non-audit services not prohibited by applicable law, and the respective related fees, provided by and to the independent auditor. In the first quarter 2007, the audit and investment committee passed a resolution authorizing the chairman of that committee to approve all such services with fees less than $50,000 and to report all such approvals to the committee at its next regularly-scheduled meeting. For the period of time during 2006 after the IPO were pre-approved by the audit and investment committee prior to the commencement of such services.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

If you intend to present a proposal at our annual meeting for 2008, and you wish to have the proposal included in our proxy statement for that meeting, you must submit the proposal in writing to the Secretary at the address below. The Secretary must receive this proposal no later than December 27, 2007. Your proposal must satisfy the requirements set forth in Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act for the proposal to be included in that proxy statement.

Any stockholder proposal submitted for consideration at next year's annual meeting but not submitted for inclusion in the proxy statement as provided above that is received by us after March 11, 2008, will not be considered filed on a timely basis with us under Rule 14a-4(c)(1) under the Exchange Act. For such proposals that are not timely filed, we retain discretion to vote proxies we receive. For such proposals that are timely filed, we retain discretion to vote proxies we receive provided (1) we include in our proxy statement advice on the nature of the proposal and how we intend to exercise voting discretion; and (2) the proponent does not issue a proxy statement.

The nominating and governance committee may require any nominee to furnish any other information, within reason, that may be needed to determine the eligibility of the candidate. Possible candidates who have been suggested by stockholders are evaluated by the nominating and governance committee in the same manner as are other possible candidates. See Corporate Governance Director Qualifications above.

COST OF SOLICITATION

We will bear all costs of the Annual Meeting and the solicitation. Upon request, we will reimburse banks, brokers and other nominees for the expenses they incur in forwarding the proxy materials to you.

In addition to mailing the proxy materials, members of our Board, officers and employees may solicit proxies by telephone, by fax or other electronic means of communication, or in person. They will not receive any compensation for their solicitation activities in addition to their regular compensation. We have not engaged an outside solicitation firm.

OTHER MATTERS

We do not know of any other matters that will be considered at the Annual Meeting. However, if any other proper business should come before the meeting, the persons named in the proxy card will have discretionary authority to vote according to their best judgment to the extent permitted by applicable law.

The general purpose of the Audit and Investment Committee (the Committee) of the Board of Directors (the Board) of ACA Capital Holdings, Inc. (the Company) is to oversee the accounting and financial statements of the Company and audits of the Company's financial statements. If a member serves on the audit committee of more than two other public companies, the member must so inform the Company's Nominating and Governance Committee; the Nominating and Governance shall determine whether such simultaneous service would impair the ability of such member to effectively serve on the Committee.

Any vacancy of the Committee shall be filled by a majority vote of the Board at the next meeting of the Board following the occurrence of the vacancy. Members may be removed at any time upon the determination of the Board.

Procedure and Meetings

The Committee may create its own rules of procedure, which shall be consistent with the Bylaws of the Company and this Charter. A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The act of a majority of the Committee members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Committee.

Committee members may attend meetings in person, by conference call or through other means by which each member may hear and be heard by each other member, and the Committee may also act by unanimous written consent. At the discretion of the Committee, other members of the Board and any officer or employee of the Company may be invited to attend and participate in meetings of the Committee. Minutes shall be kept for each meeting of the Committee. The chairperson shall be responsible for reporting to the Board at its next regularly scheduled meeting following a meeting of the Committee.

Committee Powers, Authority, Duties and Responsibilities

In furtherance of its responsibilities, the Committee believes its policies and procedures should remain flexible in order to best react to changing conditions and to ensure to the Board and the stockholders that the corporate accounting and reporting practices of the Company are in accordance with all applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

In carrying out these responsibilities and duties, the Committee shall:

1. Be directly responsible for (a) the appointment, evaluation, compensation and oversight of the work of the independent auditor, who shall report directly to the Committee, and (b) the approval of all audit engagement fees and terms and any audit, audit-related, tax or other services (to the extent permitted under applicable law) with the independent auditor. The Committee shall approve in advance the provision by the independent auditor of all services to be performed by the independent auditor. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, to compensate the independent auditor for the provision of any approved services.
2. Take appropriate action to oversee the independence of the independent auditor, including:
 - (a) reviewing and evaluating (i) the experience and qualifications of the senior members of the independent auditor team, (ii) the qualifications, performance and independence of the independent auditor, including the review and evaluation of the lead partner of the independent auditor, (iii) whether the auditor's quality controls are adequate, and (iv) whether the provision of non-audit services is in compliance with applicable law and compatible with maintaining the auditor's independence, taking into account the opinions of management and the internal auditor;
 - (b) pre-approving and reviewing quarterly non-audit services not prohibited by applicable law, and the respective related fees, provided by and to the independent auditor;
 - (c) ensuring its receipt at least annually from the independent auditor, reviewing and discussing with the independent auditor, as appropriate in the Committee's discretion, a formal written report from the independent auditor delineating (i) the independent auditor's internal quality-control procedures, (ii) any material issues raised within the preceding five years by the independent auditor's internal quality-control reviews, by peer reviews of the firm, or by any governmental, professional or other inquiry or investigation relating to any audit conducted by the firm, and any steps taken to deal with such issues, and (iii) (to assess the auditor's independence) all relationships between the independent auditor and the Company;
 - (d) taking appropriate action or recommending to the Board such appropriate action, as necessary, on any disclosed relationships to satisfy itself of the independent auditor's independence;

(e) complying with all relevant laws and regulations relative to the independence of the independent auditor, including but not limited to (i) rotation of outside audit personnel and the lead audit partner as required by law and (ii) the performance of services by an outside audit firm when a former employee of that firm currently serves as chief executive officer, chief financial officer, chief accounting officer or in an equivalent position of the Company;

(f) establishing or modifying hiring policies relating to the retention by the Company of employees or former employees of the independent auditor; and

(g) terminating or replacing the independent auditor, such responsibility being solely that of the Committee.

11. Review the internal audit department of the Company, including the independence and authority of its reporting obligations, the proposed audit plans for the coming year, and the coordination of such plans with the independent auditor. The independent auditor and the internal auditing department, if any, shall be ultimately accountable to the Committee, in its capacity as a committee of the Board, and to the full Board. The Committee has the oversight, supervisory and other powers and responsibilities as set forth in this Charter. The Committee may take such actions with respect to such matters as it deems necessary or advisable in fulfilling its duties and the members of the Committee in their judgment may determine the relevance thereof and the attention such items shall receive in any particular context. It is not the duty of the Committee in the first instance to plan or conduct audits, to implement internal controls, or to determine or certify that the Company's financial statements are complete and accurate or are in compliance with GAAP. These matters and tasks are the responsibility of the Company's management, internal auditor, if any, and the independent auditor, and the Committee has the responsibility to oversee these tasks. It is the responsibility of the Company's management, internal auditor, if any, and/or the independent auditor to bring appropriate matters to the attention of the Committee, and to keep the Committee informed of matters which the Company's management, internal auditor, if any, or the independent auditor believe require attention, guidance, resolution or other actions, the bases therefore and other relevant considerations. The Committee shall take such actions with respect to such matters as it deems necessary or advisable in fulfilling its duties identified above.
