Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement

Commencing in October 2011, PetroLogistics LP entered into certain commodity derivative contracts (the propane swaps) with monthly settlement dates through the end of 2013 in order to hedge our exposure to fluctuations in the price of propane. In connection with our initial public offering, we entered into an omnibus agreement, with PetroLogistics GP LLC (our general partner), PL Manufacturing LLC, and certain other parties pursuant to which PL Manufacturing, through our general partner, was allocated all of our obligations under the propane swaps for so long as the propane swaps remain outstanding. On April 19, 2013, we, PL Manufacturing and the counterparty to the propane swaps agreed to terminate the propane swaps remaining as of May 1, 2013. In addition to any ordinary settlement payments that are payable under the propane swaps as of May 1, 2013, we will pay the counterparty a $34.4 million cancellation payment, for which we will be promptly reimbursed by PL Manufacturing in accordance with the terms of the omnibus agreement. As and when final payments are made with respect to the propane swaps, the hedge counterparty will return to us $40.0 million, which was posted with the hedge counterparty as cash collateral for the propane swaps. Upon the termination of the propane swaps, and once we have been reimbursed for any final settlement payments that we have made to the hedge counterparty, the omnibus agreement will terminate.
