SEC s Collection of Information

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. Filing of Form N-17f-2 is mandatory for an investment company that has custody of securities or similar investments. Rule 17f-2 under section 17(f) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 requires the investment company to retain an independent public accountant to verify the company securities and similar investments by actual examination three times during each fiscal year. The accountant must prepare a certificate stating that the examination has occurred and describing the examination, and must transmit the certificate to the Commission with Form N-17f-2 as a cover sheet. The Commission uses the Form to ensure that the certificate is properly attributed to the investment company. The Commission estimates that the burden of completing Form N-17f-2 is approximately 1.0 hours per filing. Any member of the public may direct to the Commission any comments concerning the accuracy of the burden estimate of this Form, and any suggestions for reducing this burden. This collection of information has been reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget in accordance with the clearance requirements of 44 U.S.C. § 3507. Responses to this collection of information will not be kept confidential.

RE: Management Statement Regarding Compliance with Certain Provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940
Ladies and Gentlemen:
We, as members of management of the Voya funds (formerly known as the ING Funds) listed in Appendix A (the Funds), are responsible for complying with the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of rule 17f-2, Custody of Investments by Registered Management Investment Company, of the Investment Company Act of 1940. We are also responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal controls over compliance with those requirements. We have performed an evaluation of the Funds compliance with the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of rule 17f-2 as of February 28, 2013, July 31, 2013, and October 31, 2013, and for the period from October 1, 2012 through October 31, 2013.
Based on this evaluation, we assert that the Funds were in compliance with the applicable requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of rule 17f-2 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 as of February 28, 2013, July 31, 2013, and October 31, 2013, and for the period from October 1, 2012 through October 31, 2013 with respect to securities reflected in the investment accounts of the Funds that are held by affiliated foreign sub-custodians. We note that all affiliated sub-custodians that maintained assets of the Funds during the applicable period qualified as Eligible Foreign Custodians under rule 17f-5.
Very truly yours,

Voya funds
