(b) Retirement.

Effective April 8, 2015, James R. Pagenkopf retired from his role as Executive Vice President and President of the Water, Environment and Infrastructure ( WEI ) segment of Tetra Tech, Inc. (the Registrant ). Mr. Pagenkopf, who joined the Registrant in 1976, is moving into a part-time position, supporting the Registrant 's U.S. Environmental Protection Agency programs and its key federal pursuits.

(c) Appointment.

Effective April 8, 2015, Leslie L. Shoemaker was named to succeed Mr. Pagenkopf as Executive Vice President and President of the WEI segment.

Dr. Shoemaker, age 57, joined the Registrant in 1991, and served as Senior Vice President of Strategic Initiatives since 2008. In November 2014, she was named Senior Vice President, Chief Strategy Officer and Infrastructure Group President. Dr. Shoemaker has supported the Chief Executive Officer in the definition of the Registrant 's vision and direction, and advancing its strategic growth initiatives. She led the Infrastructure Group across the Registrant 's global operations, developing and implementing new strategies for expanding services in core water and infrastructure programs, and integrating the Registrant 's data/analysis/design capabilities to provide the most efficient sustainable infrastructure solutions for clients around the world. Dr. Shoemaker has for the past decade coordinated the Registrant 's internal networks that link its scientists and engineers across its operations. She has more than 25 years of industry experience and has previously served in various technical and management capacities, particularly in the field of integrated water management and modeling. Dr. Shoemaker holds a B.A. degree in Mathematics from Hamilton College, a Master of Engineering from Cornell University, and a Ph.D. in Agricultural Engineering from the University of Maryland.

Dr. Shoemaker 's compensation was not changed in connection with her promotion.
