Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Amendment and Restatement of Fannie Mae Committed Purchase Facility for Early Funding

On June 13, 2016, PHH Mortgage Corporation (PHH Mortgage), a wholly owned subsidiary of PHH Corporation, amended and restated its committed purchase facility for early funding with Fannie Mae pursuant to an amended and restated committed purchase facility for early funding letter agreement (as amended and restated, the Committed Funding Letter Agreement). The Committed Funding Letter Agreement amends and restates the letter agreement dated as of December 14, 2015 between PHH Mortgage and Fannie Mae (the Prior Letter Agreement).

Subject to compliance with its terms and conditions and provided no termination event has occurred pursuant to which Fannie Mae has exercised its right to terminate the Committed Funding Letter Agreement, the Committed Funding Letter Agreement commits Fannie Mae to accept sale and delivery of, and to purchase, mortgage loans and pools of mortgage loans from PHH Mortgage pursuant to Fannie Mae's As Soon as Pooled and As Soon as Pooled Plus early funding programs from time to time during the term of the Committed Funding Letter Agreement. At the request of PHH Mortgage in order to reduce non-usage and commitment fees in light of low facility utilization in part due to PHH Mortgage's previously-announced decision to exit correspondent lending, such commitment to purchase mortgage loans or pools of mortgage loans Pending (as defined in the Committed Funding Letter Agreement) at any time was reduced to an aggregate principal balance of $300 million under the Committed Funding Letter Agreement, from an aggregate principal balance of $500 million under the Prior Letter Agreement.

The Committed Funding Letter Agreement further amended the Prior Letter Agreement by: (i) reducing the minimum tangible net worth requirement of PHH Corporation from $1 billion to $750 million; (ii) introducing a liquidity covenant requiring PHH Corporation to maintain $150 million of cash and cash equivalents in excess of its accrual for legal and regulatory matters, consistent with prior amendments to PHH Mortgage's mortgage repurchase facilities described in Note 7 to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements accompanying PHH Corporation's Form 10-Q filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission on May 5, 2016; and (iii) introducing a covenant requiring PHH Corporation to maintain a ratio of unsecured indebtedness to tangible net worth not to exceed 1.25 to 1.00.

The Committed Funding Letter Agreement is scheduled to terminate on December 13, 2016, subject to Fannie Mae's and PHH Mortgage's early termination rights. Upon the occurrence of a PHH Termination Event (as defined in the Committed Funding Letter Agreement), Fannie Mae may either waive the PHH Termination Event and continue the Committed Funding Letter Agreement in full force and effect or, at its option, terminate the Committed Funding Letter Agreement upon written notice to PHH Mortgage.

The foregoing description of the Committed Funding Letter Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Committed Funding Letter Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety.

As a Fannie Mae approved seller and servicer, PHH Mortgage sells a substantial portion of the mortgage loans it originates to Fannie Mae on a servicing-retained basis.
