Clause (h) of the section of the Offer and Circular entitled Offer to Purchase 5. Conditions of the Offer is amended and restated as follows:

any change shall have occurred or been proposed to the Income Tax Act (Canada) (including the regulations thereto), the application thereof pursuant to any judicial decision or to the publicly available administrative policies or assessing practices of the Canada Revenue Agency that, in the reasonable judgment of the Company, is detrimental to Atlantic Power, its subsidiaries or affiliates or a Debentureholder, or with respect to making the Offer or taking up and paying for the Debentures pursuant to the Offer.

In the ultimate paragraph of the section of the Offer and Circular entitled Offer to Purchase 5. Conditions of the Offer the first sentence shall be replaced with the following two sentences:

The foregoing conditions are for the exclusive benefit of the Company and may be asserted by the Company at any time prior to the Expiration Date in its reasonable discretion regardless of the circumstances giving rise to any such assertion, or may (subject to applicable law) be waived by the Company in whole or in part at any time prior to the Expiration Date in its discretion, without prejudice to any other rights which the Company may have. Each of the foregoing conditions must be satisfied or waived at or prior to the Expiration Date.

In the section of the Offer and Circular entitled Issuer Bid Circular 11. Other Terms the last two sentences of the fifth paragraph are hereby amended and restated as follows:

The Offer is not being made to (nor will deposits of Debentures be accepted from or on behalf of) any person in any state jurisdiction within the United States of America in which the Company is prohibited from making such offer or solicitation by administrative or judicial action pursuant to a state statute after a good faith effort of the Company to comply with such statute. If after a good faith effort, the Company cannot comply with the law of that state jurisdiction, it will not market the Offer to, nor will it accept Debentures from or on behalf of, Debentureholders from that jurisdiction.

The second paragraph on the front page of the Offer and Circular is amended and restated as follows:

This document does not constitute an offer or a solicitation to any person in any state jurisdiction within the United States of America in which the Company (as defined herein) is prohibited from making such offer or solicitation by administrative or judicial action pursuant to a state statute after a good faith effort of the Company to comply with such statute. If the Company becomes aware of any valid law of any state jurisdiction prohibiting the making of the Offer or the acceptance of Debentures (as defined herein) (and from which it does not have an exemption), it will make a good faith effort to comply with that law or seek to have such law declared inapplicable to the Offer. If after a good faith effort, the Company cannot comply with the law of that state jurisdiction, it will not market the Offer to, nor will it accept Debentures from or on behalf of, Debentureholders (as defined herein) from that jurisdiction.

In the second paragraph in the section of the Offer and Circular entitled Issuer Bid Circular 5. Valuation of the Debentures Assumptions and Limitations the following sentence is deleted:

Alexander Capital disclaims responsibility for the information furnished by Atlantic Power.

In the second paragraph on page A-5 in Schedule A of the Offer and Circular, the following sentence is deleted:

Alexander Capital assumes no responsibility for the information furnished to us.

The first sentence of the third paragraph in the section of the Offer and Circular entitled Issuer Bid Circular 5. Valuation of the Debentures Assumptions and Limitations is replaced with the following sentences:

Alexander Capital's Formal Valuation states that Alexander Capital shall have no responsibility whatsoever to any third party, that any use a third party makes of the Formal Valuation is entirely at its own risk, that the Formal Valuation has been prepared and provided solely for the use of the Board and for inclusion in the Offer and Circular, and that it may not be used or relied upon by any other person without Alexander Capital's express prior written consent (the Disclaimer Statements). The Formal Valuation is addressed to the Board of Directors of Atlantic Power, and was prepared solely for the purpose of providing advice to the Board of Directors in forming its view regarding the value of the Debentures. The engagement letter between Alexander Capital and Atlantic Power specifically provides that the opinions, advice and materials, including any report, to be provided by Alexander Capital in carrying out its engagement are intended solely for the use of Atlantic Power, its Board of Directors and its affiliates. Therefore, Alexander Capital believes that under applicable law, holders of Debentures cannot rely on its Formal Valuation. Alexander Capital has indicated that it intends to assert the substance of the Disclaimer Statements as a defense to any claims by Debentureholders that might be brought against it under applicable law. Alexander Capital does not believe that applicable law has addressed the availability of such a defense in connection with any such Debentureholder claim. The issue necessarily would have to be resolved by a court of competent jurisdiction, and the availability or non-availability of such a defense will have no effect on the rights and responsibilities of the Company's Board of Directors under any applicable law, or the rights and responsibilities of the Board of Directors or Alexander Capital under the U.S. federal securities laws.
