Item 1. Security and Issuer

This Amendment No. 18 (the Eighteenth Amendment) amends the Schedule 13D filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 18, 2016, as subsequently amended (the Schedule 13D) by the Reporting Persons, with respect to the Class B shares, Ps. 1.00 par value per share (the Class B Shares), of Telecom Argentina S.A. (the Issuer), a portion of which is represented by American Depositary Shares (Class B ADSs) which are traded on the New York Stock Exchange. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in this Eighteenth Amendment have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Schedule 13D.

Item 2. Identity and Background

Item 2 is amended by adding the following:

The principal business address of Fintech Holdings Inc., a Delaware corporation (FH), is 375 Park Avenue, 38th Floor, New York, NY 10152. The name, citizenship, present principal occupation or employment of each director of FH is set forth in Schedule A hereto. FH has not appointed executive officers.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

Item 4 is amended by adding the following:

Intentions Relating to Long-Term Holdings

As of March 31, 2018, prior to the commencement of macroeconomic turbulence in the Argentine currency and capital markets, Fintech Telecom, LLC and its affiliates (Fintech) owned Class A Shares which represented approximately 31.53% of the total outstanding capital stock of Telecom Argentina S.A. (Telecom Argentina) and additionally owned Class B Shares and underlying ADRs which represent approximately 8.62% of the total capital stock of Telecom Argentina (the Class B Shares and ADRs collectively, the Shares). Cablevisión Holdings S.A. (CVH) owned approximately 38.81% of the total capital stock of Telecom Argentina in Class A Shares and the Argentine government-managed Fondo de Garantía y Sustentabilidad (ANSES) owned approximately 11.34% of the total capital stock of Telecom Argentina in Class B Shares.

It is the objective of Fintech to preserve the long term liquidity of the Shares and that the levels of trading in the market not be substantially reduced in detriment of such liquidity. Fintech is opposed to a squeeze-out of minority shareholders or a delisting of the Shares. CVH did not make any comment regarding its intentions. According to a public announcement previously filed on form Schedule TO-C, CVH has announced its intention to commence a mandatory tender offer in respect of the Shares.

Edgar Filing: TELECOM ARGENTINA SA - Form SC 13D/A

Pursuant to this objective, it is the intention of Fintech to maintain its long term holdings at the levels describe above. Notwithstanding, there have been in the past, and may be in the future, times in which, in Fintech's view, market prices substantially undervalue the Shares as compared to what Fintech may believe to be the fundamental long-term valuation of Telecom Argentina. In particular, this may occur during periods in which macroeconomic and other factors result in market volatility that is unrelated to the business and prospects of Telecom Argentina. In fact, during the recent macroeconomic adversities experienced in Argentina since March 31, 2018, Fintech acquired an aggregate of 3,842,865 additional Telecom Argentina ADRs which represent approximately 0.89% of the total capital stock of Telecom Argentina as of the date of this press release and, together with its long term holdings described above, amount to 40.66% of the total capital stock of Telecom Argentina.

Accordingly, and consistent with the above mentioned strategy, during these periods Fintech may temporarily increase its holdings by purchasing Shares, including through open-market transactions in compliance with Rule 10b-18 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, with the timing and number of shares purchased on any given day and in the aggregate depending on a variety of factors in addition to the price of the Shares, such as liquidity, corporate and regulatory requirements, alternative investment opportunities and other market and economic conditions, as it has done recently since March 31, 2018. Pursuant to this strategy Fintech may sell Shares at a time that their prices more fairly reflect the long term valuation of Telecom Argentina privately or into the market at any time it deems appropriate and in its sole discretion, with the objective of returning to its long-term target holdings described above. Such sales shall be made either pursuant to a valid exemption from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended or under a registration statement which may be filed by Telecom Argentina.

The strategy and intentions disclosed herein are simply a confirmation of the intentions of Fintech as of the date hereof and do not create or constitute a promise, right in expectation or obligation of any kind against any current or future holder of Shares of Telecom Argentina.

The foregoing does not constitute an offer to buy or a solicitation of an offer to sell any securities of Telecom Argentina.

Reorganization

Prior to April 16, 2019, FTL was a wholly-owned subsidiary of FAI. On April 16, 2019, FAI entered into a corporate reorganization and Split-Off Agreement among FAI, Mr. David Martinez, and Fintech Advisory Escindida Inc. that transferred 100% of the equity interest in FTL from FAI to Fintech Advisory Escindida Inc., a corporation organized under the laws of Delaware. On April 16, 2019, Fintech Advisory Escindida Inc. changed its corporate name from Fintech Advisory Escindida Inc. to FH. David Martinez is the sole shareholder of FH. As a result of the corporate reorganization, FTL is now a wholly-owned subsidiary of FH.

Voting Trust

On April 15, 2019, CVH, VLG S.A.U. (formerly VLG Argentina LLC) (VLG, and together with CVH, the CVH Parties), FTL, FAI (FAI, together with FTL, the Fintech Parties), Mr. Héctor Horacio Magnetto (the CVH Co-Trustee), Mr. David Martínez (the FT Co-Trustee), and together with the CVH Co-Trustee, the Trustees), Mr. José Antonio Aranda and Mr. Lucio Rafael Pagliario entered into a voting trust agreement (the Voting Trust Agreement) in furtherance of the TEO Shareholders Agreement.

Pursuant to the Voting Trust Agreement, FTL contributed to a voting trust (the Voting Trust) the bare title (nuda propiedad) to 235,177,350 Class A Shares of the Issuer (the Class A Trust Shares) and the CVH Parties contributed to the Voting Trust 235,177,350 Class D Shares of the Issuer (the Class D Trust Shares , and together with the Class A Trust Shares, the Trust Shares), including, for the avoidance of doubt, the voting rights of such Class A Trust Shares and Class D Trust Shares. FTL and the CVH Parties retained all economic rights with respect to their respective Class A Trust Shares and Class D Trust Shares contributed by each of them (each, a Usufructo). The Trust Shares may not be converted into Class B Shares without the consent of both Trustees.

Except in respect of any vote relating to a Veto Matter (as such term is defined in the TEO Shareholders Agreement), the CVH Co-Trustee must vote all Trust Shares on all matters presented for vote generally to the Issuer's stockholders, including for the avoidance of doubt, the election of the members of the Board of Directors of the Issuer or other corporate bodies of the Issuer (a Stockholder Vote) in the same manner that CVH votes its shares in the Issuer or as instructed by CVH. If any Veto Matter is the subject of a Stockholder Vote, then the FT Co-Trustee shall be entitled to vote all the Trust Shares only in the same manner that FTL votes or consents with respect to its shares in the Issuer or as instructed by FTL. The appointment of the members of the Board of Directors of the Issuer does not constitute a Veto Matter.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, and exclusively in respect of the mechanism for attending and voting at the shareholders meeting convened for April 24th, 2019, the CVH Co-Trustee has been authorized to subscribe and confirm attendance with respect to the aforementioned meeting and to vote all matters included in the Agenda for such meeting (Orden del Día) including item number 14 of such Agenda.

The Voting Trust Agreement provides that if at any time the CVH Parties acquire, whether directly or indirectly, shares of the Issuer which result in the aggregate shares of the Issuer owned by the CVH Parties (including any Class D Trust Shares) to exceed 841,666,658 shares, a number of Class A Trust Shares (and/or Class B Shares if FTL has exercised any conversion rights) equivalent to such excess shares shall be released from the Voting Trust and delivered to FTL, and the same number of Class D Trust Shares (and/or Class B Shares if any of the CVH Parties has exercised any conversion rights) shall be released from the Voting Trust and delivered to the CVH Parties, as applicable.

The Voting Trust Agreement will terminate upon the earlier to occur of (a) June 30, 2030; (b) upon the occurrence of an anticipated termination event; or (c) by unilateral instruction of CVH delivered in writing to the Trustees.
