This proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card are being sent to stockholders on or about April 30, 2002.

Voting Rights; Record Date

Only holders of record of shares of the Company's class A common stock, par value $.01 per share ("Class A Common Stock"), at the close of business on April 26, 2002 (the "Record Date") are entitled to notice of and may vote at the Annual Meeting. On the Record Date, there were issued and outstanding 18,853,203 shares of Class A Common Stock, each of which is entitled to one vote on the matters presented for stockholder action at the Annual Meeting.

With respect to each of the two proposals expected to be presented for a vote of stockholders, the presence, in person or by duly executed proxy, of the holders of a majority in voting power of the outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum in order to transact business. Abstentions will not be counted as votes cast and will have no effect on the result of the vote, although they will count toward the presence of a quorum.

The election of each of the Nominees requires a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting. The ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as independent auditors requires a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting.

The Company's officers and directors and a stockholder controlled by a trust for the benefit of the family of Samuel Zell, the Company's chairman of the board, own in the aggregate 9,490,810 shares of Class A Common Stock (approximately 50.3% of the outstanding shares) and have advised the Company that they intend to vote for (1) the election as a director of the Company of each of the Nominees, and (2) the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors for 2002.

Solicitation and Voting of Proxies; Revocation

All duly executed proxies received by the Company in time for the Annual Meeting will be voted in accordance with the instructions given therein by the person executing the proxy. In the absence of instructions, duly executed proxies will be voted for (1) the election as a director of the Company of each of the Nominees, and (2) the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors for 2002.

The submission of a signed proxy will not affect the right of a holder of Class A Common Stock to attend, or to vote in person at, the Annual Meeting. You may revoke or change your proxy at any time prior to its use at the Annual Meeting by giving the Company written direction to revoke it, by giving the

Edgar Filing: CAPITAL TRUST INC - Form DEF 14A

Company a new proxy or by attending the meeting and voting in person. Your attendance at the Annual Meeting will not by itself revoke a proxy given by you. Written notice of revocation or subsequent proxy should be sent to Capital Trust, Inc. c/o American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, 6201 Fifteenth Avenue, Brooklyn, New York 11219, Attention: Paula Caroppoli, or hand-delivered to Capital Trust, Inc. c/o American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, so as to be delivered at or before the taking of the vote at the Annual Meeting.

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company. In addition to soliciting proxies by mail, proxies may be solicited by the Company's directors, officers and other employees by personal interview, telephone, telegram and other means of communication. Such persons will receive no additional compensation for such services. Arrangements will also be made with brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for the forwarding of proxy solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of shares of the Company's stock held of record by such brokers and other fiduciaries. The Company will reimburse the brokers and other fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred when the solicitation materials are forwarded.

PROPOSAL 1 -- ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

All of the Company's directors will be elected at the Annual Meeting to serve as directors until the next succeeding annual meeting of stockholders and until their successors are elected and shall have qualified. The Nominees are all currently members of the board of directors. All Nominees, if elected, are expected to serve until the next succeeding annual meeting of stockholders.

The board of directors has been informed that all of the Nominees are willing to serve as directors but, if any of them should decline or be unable to act as a director, the individuals named in the proxies will vote for the election of such other person or persons as they, in their discretion, may choose. Six non-employee directors are not paid any cash fees for their services as such, but rather are compensated with an annual award of stock units under the Company's non-employee director stock plan with a value equal to $30,000. The remaining three non-employee directors are not compensated for their service as directors. The number of stock units awarded to each director, which are convertible into an equal number of shares of Class A Common Stock according to individual schedules set by each director, is determined quarterly in arrears by dividing one-quarter of the annual retainer amount ($7,500) by the average closing price of the Class A Common Stock for the quarter. The stock units vest when issued. There is no separate compensation for service on committees of the board of directors. All directors are also reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in attending board and committee meetings.

Employment Agreement

The Company is a party to an employment agreement with John R. Klopp. The employment agreement provides for a five-year term of employment commencing as of July 15, 1997. On the fifth anniversary of the commencement of the employment agreement, and on each succeeding anniversary, the terms of the employment agreement shall be automatically extended for one additional year unless, not later than three months prior to such anniversary date, either party shall have notified the other that it will not extend the term of the agreement. Pursuant to the employment agreement, Mr. Klopp currently receives for calendar year 2002 an annual base salary of $600,000, which is subject to further increases each calendar year to reflect increases in the cost of living or as otherwise determined in the discretion of the board of directors. Mr. Klopp is also entitled to an annual incentive cash bonus to be determined by the board of directors based on individual performance and the profitability of the Company. Mr. Klopp is also a participant in the incentive stock and other employee benefit plans of the Company.

If the employment of Mr. Klopp is terminated without cause, with good reason or following a change of control, as those terms are defined in the employment agreement, he would be entitled to (i) a severance payment equal to the greater of the amount payable to him over the remainder of the term of the employment agreement or an amount equal to the aggregate base salary and cash incentive bonus paid to him during the previous year; (ii) continued welfare benefits for two years; and (iii) automatic vesting of all unvested stock options such that all of his stock options would become immediately exercisable. Each vested option will remain exercisable for a period of one year following his termination. The employment agreement provides for a non-competition period of one year if Mr. Klopp terminates his employment voluntarily or is terminated for cause.

Stock Options

The following table sets forth stock options issued in 2001 to the Named Executive Officers. The table also sets forth the hypothetical gains that would exist for the stock options at the end of their ten-year terms, assuming compound rates of appreciation of 5% and 10% from the $4.50 and $5.00 market price on the February 1 and May 7, 2001, respectively, date of grant. The actual future value of the options will depend on the market value of the Company's Class A Common Stock.

Future compensation resulting from the options is based solely on the actual performance of the Company's share price in the trading market.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Company's officers and directors, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") and the NYSE. Officers, directors and greater than ten percent stockholders are required by regulation of the Commission to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely on its review of Forms 3, 4 and 5 and amendments thereto available to the Company and written representations from certain of the directors, officers and 10% stockholders that no form is required to be filed, the Company believes that no director, officer or beneficial owner of more than 10% of its Class A Common Stock failed to file on a timely basis reports required pursuant to Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act with respect to 2001, except that a Form 3 required to be filed in January 2001 and a Form 4 required to be filed in May 2001 by Citigroup Inc. and its affiliates as a result of the acquisition of beneficial ownership of shares underlying previously and newly acquired warrants was filed late in May 2001 in the case of the Form 3 and September 2001 in the case of the Form 4, and except that Forms 3 required to be filed in January 2001 by Rodney F. Dammeyer, GRG Investment Partnership LP, Crocker-CT General Partnership, Callahan-CT General Partnership and Rosenberg-CT General Partnership as a result of Citigroup Inc.'s and its affiliates' acquisition of beneficial ownership of shares underlying previously acquired warrants and the effect a voting agreement with an affiliate of Citigroup Inc.

Report on Executive Compensation²

Introduction

The Company's compensation committees administer its compensation programs. The compensation committee establishes and administers the compensation and benefit arrangements for officers and key employees (except to the extent vested in the performance compensation committee). The performance compensation committee (which is comprised of the independent members of the compensation committee) establishes and administers the compensation programs as they relate to executive officers of the Company and is empowered to accept or reject, or increase or decrease, any award or component of compensation recommended by the compensation committee.

Compensation for 2001

The Company's 2001 executive compensation program consisted of three elements: an annual base salary, annual bonus compensation and long-term incentive compensation.

Mr. Klopp received his $600,000 annual salary called for by his employment agreement that was previously approved by the board of directors and the other executive officers also received their previously established or negotiated salaries. The performance compensation committee's goal is to provide competitive executive compensation packages as means of retaining its executive officers. To that end, the committee strives to compensate executive officers with salaries that are commensurate with prevailing compensation practices in the financial services industry. Salaries vary according to the levels of responsibility undertaken by the executive officers.

The performance compensation committee's goals with annual bonus and long-term incentive compensation are to focus executive behavior on the fulfillment of long-term and annual business objectives, and to create a sense of ownership in the Company that causes executive decisions to be aligned with the best interests of the Company's stockholders.

Pursuant to a long-term strategic plan adopted by the board of directors in 1999, the Company continues to pursue a transition from being a balance sheet lender to managing investments on behalf of third parties. For 2001, the board of directors established the following goals for the Company:

- o maximizing the amount of capital raised for the Company's second real estate mezzanine fund, CT Mezzanine Partners II LP, which is referred to as Fund II;
- o originating new investments for funds under management consistent with their investment strategy;
- o simplifying the capital structure of the Company and eliminating the dividend paid on preferred stock; and
- o increasing earnings per share.

1 The material in this report is not "solicitation material," is not deemed filed with the Commission, and is not incorporated by reference in any filing of the Company under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, whether made before or after the date hereof and irrespective of any general incorporation language in any filing.

The performance compensation committee considered executive officer performance in achieving the Company's goals. The Company closed Fund II with aggregate capital commitments of $845 million, making Fund II the largest dedicated real estate mezzanine fund in the U.S. The Company originated over $500 million of new investments for its funds under management in 2001. The Company also repurchased from private investors more than one-third of the Company's outstanding stock including all of its preferred stock and thereby eliminated the preferred stock dividend, and the Company increased earnings per share by 12%. In recognition of his leadership in achieving these goals, the performance compensation committee awarded Mr. Klopp a $1,400,000 cash bonus and a stock option exercisable for 200,000 shares of Class A Common Stock for 2001. The performance compensation committee awarded cash bonuses, restricted stock and stock options to other executive officers again based on each executive officer's contribution to achieving the Company's goals for 2001. In connection with its evaluation, the committee considered the executive officer's level of job responsibility and relative influence on the Company's ability to manage successfully and accomplish the goals.

Section 162(m) of the Code limits the deductibility in the Company's tax return of compensation over $1 million to any of the executive officers of the Company unless, in general, the compensation is paid pursuant to a plan which is performance-related, non-discretionary and has been approved by the Company's stockholders. The performance compensation committee's policy with respect to Section 162(m) is to make every reasonable effort to ensure that compensation is deductible to the extent permitted while simultaneously providing Company executives with appropriate rewards for their performance. During 2001, the Company paid its executive officers approximately $1,834,175 aggregate cash compensation that was non-deductible pursuant to Section 162(m). In awarding the cash bonuses that produced the non-deductible compensation expense, the performance compensation committee determined that the advantages to the Company of awarding compensation at that level as a reward for the previously discussed leadership of Mr. Klopp and the contributions of the other executive officers outweighed the loss of the tax deduction. The performance compensation committee will continue to consider on a case-by-case basis whether particular compensation awards and programs that do not satisfy the conditions of Section 162(m) outweigh the costs to the Company of the loss of the related tax deduction.

Performance Graph

Set forth below is a line graph comparing the yearly percentage change in the cumulative total stockholder return on shares of Class A Common Stock against (i) the cumulative total return of companies listed on the New York Stock Exchange, (ii) the cumulative total return of a peer group selected in the previous years by the Company (iStar Financial Inc., Franchise Finance Corporation of America, Allied Capital Corp., LNR Property Corp. and Ocwen Financial Corp.) (the "Old Peer Group") and (iii) the cumulative total return of a peer group newly selected by the Company (iStar Financial Inc., Blackrock, Inc., Allied Capital Corp., LNR Property Corp. and Federated Investors, Inc.) (the "New Peer Group"). The Company has selected the New Peer Group as a basis for comparison because it believes that, as a result of changes in the Company's operations and the competitive environment and the acquisition of a peer company, a comparison of shareholder returns to the returns of its newly selected peer group companies provides a more appropriate basis of comparison. The five-year period compared commences December 31, 1996 and ends December 31, 2001. This graph assumes that $100 was invested on January 1, 1997 in the Company and each of the two market indices and the peer group index (at the December 31, 1996 closing prices), and that all cash distributions were reinvested. The Class A Common Stock price performance shown on the graph is not indicative of future price performance.

PROPOSAL 2 -- RATIFICATION OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Description of Proposal

The board of directors of the Company has appointed Ernst & Young LLP as independent auditors of the Company for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2001, and has further directed that the appointment of such accountants be submitted for ratification by the stockholders at the Annual Meeting. The Company has been advised by Ernst & Young LLP that neither that firm nor any of its associates has any relationship with the Company or its subsidiaries other than the usual relationship that exists between independent certified public accountants and clients. Ernst & Young LLP will have a representative at the Annual Meeting who will have an opportunity to make a statement, if he or she so desires, and who will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Stockholder ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors is not required by the Company's charter or otherwise. However, the board of directors is submitting the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP to the stockholders for ratification as a matter of what it considers to be good corporate practice. Even if the appointment is ratified, the board of directors in its discretion may direct the appointment of a different independent accounting firm at any time during the year if the board of directors determines that such a change would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

Fees billed to Company by Ernst & Young LLP for Fiscal 2001

Audit Fees:

Edgar Filing: CAPITAL TRUST INC - Form DEF 14A

Audit fees billed to the Company by Ernst & Young LLP for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001 included in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K and the review of interim financial statements included in the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q totaled $146,000.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees:

The Company did not engage Ernst & Young LLP to provide advice to the Company regarding financial information systems design and implementation during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001.

All Other Fees:

Fees billed to the Company by Ernst & Young LLP for all other non-audit services rendered to the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, including tax related services, totaled $141,650.

The audit committee of the board of directors was advised of the services provided by Ernst & Young LLP that are unrelated to the audit of the annual fiscal year end financial statements and the review of interim financial statements and has considered whether the provision of such services is compatible with maintaining Ernst & Young LLP's independence as the Company's independent auditor.

Vote Required; Recommendation

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting is required to ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors. The board of directors unanimously recommends that stockholders vote for the ratification of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors.

ANNUAL REPORT

The Company's annual report to stockholders is being concurrently distributed to stockholders herewith.

OTHER MATTERS

The management of the Company does not know of any other matters to come before the Annual Meeting. If, however, any other matters do come before the Annual Meeting, it is the intention of the persons designated as proxies to vote in accordance with their discretion on such matters.
