QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

1. Q: Who is entitled to vote?

A: Stockholders as of the close of business on the record date of April 10, 2002 are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

2. Q: How do I cast my vote?

A: There are four different ways you may cast your vote this year. You may vote by:

- (1) telephone, using the toll-free number listed on each proxy card (if you are a stockholder of record) or vote instruction card (if your shares are held by a bank or broker);
- (2) the Internet, at the address provided on each proxy or vote instruction card;
- (3) marking, signing, dating, and mailing each proxy card or vote instruction card and returning it in the envelope provided; or
- (4) attending the meeting (if your shares are registered directly in your name on Toys "R" Us' books and not held through a broker, bank or other nominee).

If you are the stockholder of record (that is, if you hold your stock in your name), you can vote by telephone or electronically through the Internet by following the instructions provided on the proxy card. You will need to use the individual control number that is printed on your proxy card in order to authenticate your ownership.

If your shares are held in "street name" (that is, they are held in the name of a broker, bank or other nominee) you will receive instructions with your materials that you must follow in order to have your shares voted. Please check your proxy or voting instructions card to determine whether you will be able to vote by telephone or electronically.

The deadline for voting by telephone or electronically is 11:59 a.m. Eastern U.S. Time, June 4, 2002.

Edgar Filing: TOYS R US INC - Form DEF 14A

3. Q: How do I revoke or change my vote?

A: To revoke or change your vote:

- (1) notify the Toys "R" Us Corporate Secretary in writing at any time before the meeting;
- (2) submit a later dated proxy by mail, telephone or via the Internet; or
- (3) vote in person at the meeting (if your shares are registered directly in your name on the Toys "R" Us' books and not held through a broker, bank, or other nominee).

The latest dated, properly completed proxy that you submit whether by mail, telephone or the Internet will count as your vote. If a vote has been recorded for your shares and you submit a proxy card that is not properly signed or dated, the previously recorded vote will stand.

4. Q: Who will count the vote?

A: Representatives of American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, our transfer agent, will count the votes and act as the inspector of election.

5. Q: Is My Vote Confidential?

A: Yes, your vote is confidential. Only the inspectors of election and certain employees associated with processing proxy cards and counting the vote have access to your vote. All comments you direct to management (whether written on the proxy card or elsewhere) will remain confidential unless you ask that your name or comments be disclosed.

6. Q: What shares are included on the proxy or vote instruction card(s)?

A: The shares on your proxy or vote instruction card(s) represent those shares registered directly in your name or those held in "street name" by your broker. If you do not cast your vote, your shares will not be voted.

7. Q: What does it mean if I get more than one proxy or vote instruction card?

A: If your shares are registered differently and are in more than one account, you will receive more than one card. Please complete and return all of the proxy or vote instruction cards you receive (or vote by telephone or the Internet) to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

8. Q: How many shares can vote?

A: As of the April 10, 2002 record date, 197,312,349 shares of Toys "R" Us common stock were issued and outstanding. Every stockholder of common stock is entitled to one vote for each share held as of the record date. In the election of directors, stockholders have cumulative voting rights. Each stockholder is entitled to one vote for each share held multiplied by the number of directors to be elected. Each stockholder may cast all those votes for a single director or may distribute them among all or some of the director nominees.

9. Q: What is a "quorum"?

A: A "quorum" is a majority of the outstanding shares. They may be present at the meeting or represented by proxy. There must be a quorum for the meeting to be held, and a proposal must receive more than 50% of the shares voting to be adopted. If you submit a timely, properly executed proxy or vote instruction card, then you will be considered part of the quorum, even if you abstain from voting.

Abstentions: Abstentions are not counted in the tally of votes FOR or AGAINST a proposal. A WITHHELD vote is the same as an abstention. Abstentions and withheld votes are counted as shares present and entitled to be voted.

Broker Non-Votes: Broker non-votes occur when shares held by a broker are not voted with respect to a proposal because (1) the broker has not received voting instructions from the stockholder, and (2) the broker lacks the authority to vote the shares at his/her discretion. Thus, broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of any of the matters being voted upon at the meeting, and they are not counted as shares present and entitled to be voted with respect to the matter on which the broker has not voted expressly.

10. Q: Who can attend the Annual Meeting?

A: All stockholders who owned shares on April 10, 2002 may attend. Just check the box on your proxy or vote instruction card, or as indicated on the Internet site, or press the appropriate key if voting by telephone.

11. Q: How will voting on any other business be conducted?

A: If any other business is presented at the Annual Meeting, your signed proxy or vote instruction card or your authenticated Internet or telephone proxy gives authority to John H. Eyler, Jr., Toys "R" Us' Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and Arthur B. Newman, a Toys "R" Us Director and Chairman of the Audit Committee, to vote on such matters at their discretion.

12. Q: Do I have to continue receiving multiple copies of the annual report and proxy statement in the mail?

A: With your consent and the consent of other stockholders in your household, we may send one set of the proxy statement and annual report to a household where two or more Toys "R" Us stockholders reside if we believe they are members of the same family. Each consenting shareholder would continue to receive a separate notice of annual meeting and proxy through the mail. This procedure, referred to as

"householding," would reduce the volume of duplicate information you receive, and would also reduce our Company's printing and mailing costs.

(1) If you are a registered stockholder: contact our transfer agent

Edgar Filing: TOYS R US INC - Form DEF 14A

at (877) 777-0800 and arrange to receive only one copy of Toys "R" Us' annual report and other mailings during the year, regardless of the number of accounts you have; or

- (2) If you hold shares through a stock broker: contact your broker to determine if you are eligible to receive one set of materials.

13. Q: Does any stockholder own 5% or more of Toys "R" Us' common stock?

A: The information below is based on a review of all statements on Schedules 13D and 13G filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, except as otherwise known by the Company. As of April 10, 2002, these stockholders have reported the following ownership of Toys "R" Us' common stock:

A: The Board of Directors of Toys "R" Us is soliciting this proxy and Toys "R" Us will bear the cost of soliciting proxies pursuant to this proxy statement. PROPOSALS ON WHICH YOU MAY VOTE

1. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

There are 10 nominees for election this year. Detailed information on each is provided on pages 6 and 7. All directors are elected annually, and serve a one-year term until the next Annual Meeting or until a successor has been elected. If any director is unable to stand for re-election, the board may reduce its size or designate a substitute. If a substitute is designated, proxy votes in favor of the original director candidate will be counted for the substituted candidate.

Your Board unanimously recommends a vote FOR each of these directors.

NOMINEES FOR THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Nominating Committee of the Board of Directors has proposed for election at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders the 10 individuals listed below to serve (subject to the Company's By-Laws) as directors of the Company until the next annual meeting and until the election and qualification of their successors. All of the nominees are current directors of the Company and were elected by the stockholders at the annual meeting held in 2001, except for Roger N. Farah and Peter A. Georgescu who were elected on September 7, 2001. If any person nominated should be unwilling or unable to serve as a director of the Company (which is not anticipated) the persons named in the proxy will vote the proxy for substitute nominees selected by them unless the number of directors has been reduced to the number of nominees willing and able to serve.

In electing directors, holders of Common Stock have cumulative voting rights; that is, each holder of record of Common Stock is entitled to as many votes as the number of shares they owned of record multiplied by the number of directors to be elected, and may cast all of those votes for a single director or may distribute them among all or some of the directors to be voted for, as the stockholder sees fit. Unless contrary instructions are given, the persons named in the proxy will have discretionary authority to accumulate votes in the same manner.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

In accordance with its written charter adopted by the Board of Directors (the "Board"), the Audit Committee of the Board (the "Committee") assists the Board in fulfilling its responsibility for oversight of the quality and integrity of the accounting, internal auditing, and financial reporting practices of the Company and the independence and performance of the Company's independent auditors. During fiscal 2001, the Committee met seven times.

In discharging its oversight responsibility as to the audit process, the Committee obtained from the independent auditors a formal written statement describing all relationships between the auditors and the Company that might bear on the auditors' independence consistent with Independence Board Standard No. 1, "Independence Discussions with Audit Committees," discussed with the auditors any relationships that may impact their objectivity and independence and satisfied itself as to the auditors' independence. The Committee has considered whether the provision of non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the auditors' independence. The Committee did not identify any factors that would indicate such an impairment. The Committee also discussed with management, the internal auditors and the independent auditors the quality and adequacy of the Company's internal controls and the internal audit function's organization, responsibilities, budget and staffing. The Committee reviewed with both the independent and the internal auditors their audit plans, audit scope, and identification of audit risks.

The Committee discussed and reviewed with the independent auditors all communications required by generally accepted auditing standards, including those described in Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended, "Communication with Audit Committees" and, with and without management present, discussed and reviewed the results of the independent auditors' examination of the financial statements. The Committee also discussed the results of the internal audit examinations.

The Committee reviewed the audited financial statements of the Company as of and for the fiscal year ended February 2, 2002, with management and the independent auditors. Management has the responsibility for the preparation of the Company's financial statements and the independent auditors have the responsibility for the examination of those statements.

Based on the above-mentioned review and discussions with management and the independent auditors, the Committee recommended to the Board that the Company's audited financial statements be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 2, 2002, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Committee also recommended the reappointment of Ernst & Young LLP as independent auditors of the Company and the Board concurred in such recommendation.

This involvement enables the Board to provide guidance to management in formulating and developing plans and to exercise independently its decision-making authority on matters of importance to the Company. Acting as a full Board and through the Board's five committees, the Board is fully involved in the Company's strategic planning process. Each year, the Board devotes one meeting to develop, discuss and refine the Company's long-range operating plan and overall corporate strategy. Following the Board's annual strategic planning meeting, the Board reviews the progress of one or more strategic initiatives at each scheduled meeting. In addition, throughout the entire year directors may add strategic planning items to the agenda of any Board meeting.

Specific operating priorities are developed to effectuate the Company's long-range plan. Some of the priorities are short-term in focus; others are based on longer-term planning horizons. Senior management reviews the conclusions reached by the Board and is charged with implementing those conclusions. At subsequent Board meetings, the Board continues to substantively review the Company's progress against its strategic plans and to exercise oversight and decision-making authority regarding strategic areas of importance. For example, the Board annually reviews the Company's overall annual performance and considers the following year's operating budget and capital expenditures plan. The Board establishes specific criteria against which the Company's performance will be evaluated for that year. Through the established procedures, the Board, consistent with good corporate governance, encourages the long-term success of the Company by exercising sound and independent business judgment on the strategic issues that are important to the Company's business.

DIRECTORS' COMPENSATION

Directors who are not officers or employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries ("Non-Employee Directors") are compensated pursuant to: (i) the Non-Employee Directors' Stock Option Plan (the "Directors' Option Plan"); (ii) the Non-Employee Directors' Stock Unit Plan (the "Directors' Unit Plan"); and (iii) the Non-Employee Directors' Deferred Compensation Plan (the "Directors' Deferred Plan"). Each of the Directors' Option Plan, Directors' Unit Plan, and Directors' Deferred Plan was approved by stockholders and became effective on June 10, 1999. Directors who are also officers or employees of the Company receive no additional compensation for services as a Director, Committee participation, or special assignments.

Edgar Filing: TOYS R US INC - Form DEF 14A

Non-Employee Directors receive an annual cash retainer of $30,000 for service on the Board. Meeting fees are paid in the form of stock units valued at $1,500 for each Board meeting attended and $1,000 for each Committee meeting attended. Each Non-Employee Director who serves as a Chairperson of a Committee receives additional stock units valued at $10,000. Each Non-Employee Director who serves on the Executive Committee receives additional stock units valued at $35,000. New Non-Employee Directors receive stock units valued at $50,000 after six months of service. Stock units generally vest one year from the initial award date and are awarded and valued, pending vesting, during the first week of each fiscal quarter. Unless a deferral election is made, stock units will generally be settled: (i) by delivery of common stock upon vesting; or (ii) upon termination due to a Non-Employee Director's earlier (a) death; (b) retirement after age 60 at least six months after the date of the award; (c) resignation to enter public service; or (d) disability.

Non-Employee Directors are granted stock options pursuant to the Directors' Option Plan. Non-Employee Directors were granted options to purchase 30,000 shares of stock on June 10, 1999, and will receive a further grant of an option to purchase 30,000 shares on each three-year anniversary of such original option grant date. In addition, new Non-Employee Directors are entitled to receive stock option grants after one year of service, to purchase a pro-rated number of shares of common stock based on the number of months remaining in any respective three-year cycle of options granted to existing Non-Employee Directors. Subject to certain exceptions, one-third of such options become exercisable on a cumulative basis on each of the third, fourth, and fifth anniversaries of the date of grant. Non-Employee Directors may elect to receive the grant of an option in lieu of the payment of all or any portion of the annual cash retainer or stock units at the exchange ratio specified by the Directors' Option Plan and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Plan.

Pursuant to the Directors' Deferred Plan, Non-Employee Directors can elect to defer compensation, which may be in the form of cash, shares of stock, stock units, and shares of common stock receivable upon the exercise of a stock option. Any such election is generally irrevocable. Payment in settlement of any amounts of cash, common stock, or other property deposited in the deferral accounts established for Non-Employee Directors will generally be made as soon as practicable after the expiration of the deferral period, and in such number of installments as elected by a Non-Employee Director.

Effective January 31, 1994, Charles Lazarus terminated his employment as Chief Executive Officer of the Company and, pursuant to his employment agreement, exercised his right to become a consultant to the Company for a five-year period. Under the terms of his agreement, Mr. Lazarus is required to refrain from competing either directly or indirectly with any business carried on by the Company during the term of his consulting period and for three years thereafter. The employment agreement also provides that Mr. Lazarus is entitled to receive a retirement benefit payment of $200,000 a year for five years commencing February 1999, the termination of his consulting period.

Effective June 6, 2001, Michael Goldstein terminated his employment as Chairman of the Board of the Company. Thereafter, Mr. Goldstein has served as a Non-Employee Director of the Company.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION: REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION AND ORGANIZATIONAL DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

The Compensation and Organizational Development Committee (the "Committee") is composed entirely of independent outside Directors, none of whom is or has been an officer or employee of the Company.

The Company's executive compensation program is based on its pay for performance policy and has been designed to:

- o attract high-caliber talent to meet the organization's executive resource needs;
- o retain top-performing executives at the corporate level and in each of the divisions;
- o provide compensation opportunities that are fair and competitive with those offered by comparable organizations with whom the Company competes for business and talent;
- o motivate high performance by executive officers and all employees;
- o reward executives based on corporate and division annual and long-term strategic progress, business results, and the creation of stockholder value; and
- o align executive officers and all employees with stockholders' interests.

Compensation for the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

During the fiscal year ended February 2, 2002, John H. Eyler, Jr. served as the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Eyler has entered into an employment agreement with the Company, as described under "Employment Agreements."

The Chief Executive Officer of the Company participates in the Company's executive compensation plans on the same basis as all other executive officers and key employees. In determining the Chief Executive Officer's compensation opportunities and performance goals, the Committee periodically conducts a competitive review and analysis, as it does for other executive officers. For the fiscal year ended February 2, 2002, the Committee established the Chief Executive Officer's total compensation (base salary, annual incentives, restricted stock and stock options) for target performance between the 50th and the 75th percentiles for chief executive officers from the competitive marketplace.

Mr. Eyler's base salary was $1,000,000, as described under "Employment Agreements". Under the Management Incentive Compensation Plan, two-thirds of Mr. Eyler's bonus is based on predetermined objectives for improving the operating performance of the entire corporation. One-third of the bonus is based on achieving certain strategic goals. During the fiscal year ended February 2, 2002, the Company did not meet its predetermined objectives for improving its operating performance, and therefore Mr. Eyler did not receive that portion of his bonus. The Committee determined that Mr. Eyler achieved his strategic objectives relating to corporate, store and merchandise transformation and awarded him one-third of his target bonus, an amount of $700,000. The Committee, in recognition of his outstanding leadership and performance on several critical strategic initiatives, approved a supplemental discretionary award to Mr. Eyler in the amount of $250,000, to be deferred under the Company's Deferred Compensation Plan until a date at least six months after Mr. Eyler's retirement from the Company.

The Committee determined that in order to ensure alignment of interests between management and stockholders, equity awards to senior management should continue to be a significant amount of total annual compensation during the fiscal year ended February 2, 2002. Mr. Eyler, as well as other officers and key employees, was eligible to receive an award of stock options and restricted units. For the fiscal year ended February 2, 2002, Mr. Eyler received an award of 320,000 stock options.

Compensation of Other Executive Officers

Total compensation for target performance under the Company's compensation program for executive officers for the fiscal year ended February 2, 2002 was generally positioned at the 50th to the 75th percentile of the competitive marketplace, depending upon the individual's level, position, responsibilities and degree of difficulty and challenge associated with the fiscal year ended February 2, 2002's performance objectives.

Base salaries for Executive Officers are reviewed annually. Base salary levels are set so that the principal compensation opportunities are derived from annual cash incentives and increases in the market value of the Company's common stock. During the fiscal year ended February 2, 2002 several officers and key employees took on significantly larger responsibilities. Base salaries for those officers were increased to reflect the new roles.

Annual incentives for executive officers are governed by the Company's Management Incentive Compensation Plan (the same plan that applies to the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer). Each officer was eligible to receive a target bonus based on meeting predetermined financial and strategic objectives. Two-thirds of the annual incentive opportunity for executive officers were based on improvement in operating performance of the entire Company, with combined corporate and division performance for certain executive officers who also have divisional responsibilities. The plan is designed to provide participants above market total cash compensation for meeting or exceeding performance objectives and below market total cash compensation for not meeting those objectives. For the fiscal year ended February 2, 2002, Messrs. Staley, Markee and Barbour received a portion of their bonus based on achieving the operating performance improvement goals within certain divisions. All executive officers received a portion (or some sub-part thereof) of their bonus, which was based on achieving predetermined strategic objectives. Mr. D'Ambrose received an incentive award based on his employment agreement (see "Employment Agreements").

Equity compensation has historically been a cornerstone of the Company's program for executive and employee compensation. For the fiscal year ended February 2, 2002, the Committee authorized grants of stock options and restricted units to certain executive officers, including the Chief Executive Officer, to reinforce the Company's ability to attract, retain and motivate a highly qualified management team.

Tax Considerations

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code limits the Company's tax deduction to $1 million for compensation paid to the named proxy officers unless certain exemptions apply. One of the exemptions is for performance-based compensation. The Management Incentive Compensation Plan and the 1994 Stock Option and Performance Incentive Plan, which were approved by stockholders, are designed to qualify for this exemption. The Committee's policy is to preserve corporate tax deductions attributable to the compensation of executives while maintaining flexibility to approve, when appropriate, compensation arrangements which it deems to be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, but which may not always qualify for full tax deductibility.

Option Grant Table

The following table sets forth certain information concerning stock options granted by the Company during the fiscal year ended February 2, 2002 to the Named Executive Officers. The hypothetical present value on date of grant shown below is presented pursuant to the rules of the Commission and is calculated under the Modified Black-Scholes Model for pricing options. The actual before-tax amount, if any, realized upon the exercise of a stock option will depend upon the excess, if any, of the market price of the Common Stock over the exercise price per share of the stock option at the time the stock option is exercised. There is no assurance that the hypothetical present value or any value of the stock options reflected in these tables will be realized.

Upon exercise of options, the number of shares having a value equal to the aggregate fair market value over the exercise price of the options is generally subject to forfeiture if the grantee does not remain with the Company until the second anniversary from the date the options are granted. In addition, 50% of the number of shares having a value equal to the aggregate fair value over the exercise price of the options are generally subject to forfeiture if the grantee does not remain with the Company until the third anniversary from the date the options are granted.
- (2) Based upon a total of 8,609,015 Toys "R" Us, Inc. options granted to 32,235 employees of the Company.
- (3) The hypothetical present values on grant date are calculated under the Modified Black-Scholes Model, which is a mathematical formula used to value options traded on stock exchanges. This formula considers a number of factors in estimating an option's present value. Factors used to value original options issued in the fiscal year ended February 2, 2002 include the following:

Toys "R" Us, Inc.

	April 6, 2001 ----	April 16, 2001 ----
Volatility.....	52.30%	52.28%
Risk Free Rate.....	4.578%	5.003%

Additional assumptions of 0% dividend yield, 5 year projected time to exercise, and 8% to 10% per annum risk of forfeiture are applied to all original options granted in 2001. Restoration option values are calculated using the same model and factors as original options, except that the projected date of exercise is generally the remaining term of the prior option and the stock's expected volatility rate and risk free rate of return are calculated at date of grant of the restoration option.

- (4) Each option vests on the fifth anniversary of the date of grant subject to certain specified performance criteria.

Toys "R" Us Employment Agreements

Retention Agreement--Mr. Eyler

On January 6, 2000, the Company entered into a retention agreement with John H. Eyler, Jr. upon his selection as President and Chief Executive Officer. The original term of employment under the agreement was to expire on January 17, 2002, subject to renewal as described below. The retention agreement was automatically renewed for the fiscal year ending February 3, 2003. The agreement provides for automatic one-year renewals, unless terminated by either party in accordance with the terms thereof. Mr. Eyler's agreement provides for a base salary of $1,000,000. The agreement also provides for participation in any and all insurance and other plans for the benefit of the Company's officers, which are in effect during the employment period and entitle the executive to participate in the Company's various incentive bonus plans on a basis commensurate with his prior participation.

If the executive's employment is terminated for death, disability, or retirement, he would be entitled to a lump sum cash payment equal to the sum of: (i) his pro-rated annual base salary payable through the date of termination and his actual earned incentive bonus for any completed fiscal year to the extent not already paid; and (ii) his pro-rated targeted amount of incentive bonus that would have been payable with respect to the fiscal year in which the date of termination occurs. The executive would be vested in all equity awards and account balances under the Company's plans. Vested options would remain exercisable through the expiration date of such options. The Company would be obligated to provide for the continuation of benefits (or benefits to the executive's spouse and dependent children in the event of his death) under the Company's benefit plans. In consideration for these payments and benefits, the executive must comply with a three-year non-solicitation/ non-hiring of employees restrictive covenant as well as a two-year non-competition covenant.

Upon termination of the executive's employment by the Company without "Cause" (as defined in the agreement) or by the executive for "Good Reason," he would be entitled to receive: (i) his pro-rated annual base salary on the date of termination, plus his pro-rated targeted annual and long-term incentive awards through the date of termination; and (ii) his annual base salary on the date of termination, plus the targeted annual and long-term incentive awards that would have been paid to him during the fiscal period in which he was terminated, in equal installments to be paid at least monthly during each of the two years following his termination. Receipt of such payments and the continuation of benefits under the Company's benefit plans and immediate vesting of all awarded options is conditioned upon the executive's compliance with non-competition and non-solicitation/non-hiring of employee's restrictive covenants for a two-year period.

If the executive's employment is terminated within three years after a Change of Control (as defined in the agreements), other than for "Cause," the executive will be entitled to receive the amounts described in the first sentence of the paragraph above, plus an additional year's worth of annual base salary and targeted incentive awards, and such payments will not be subject to the restrictive covenants. Following termination of employment, the executive would also be entitled to exercise any stock options granted under any stock option plan of the Company for their full term. If termination of employment were to occur in connection with a Change of Control, the executive would also be paid an amount pursuant to his agreement intended to reimburse him for any excise tax imposed under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, including any tax payable by reason of such reimbursement.

Retention Agreements--Messrs. Markee, Shannon, and Staley

The Company is also party to retention agreements (each a "Retention Agreement") with each of Messrs. Markee, Shannon, and Staley. The current term of employment under the Retention Agreements with Messrs. Markee and Staley expires on May 1, 2002. Mr. Shannon terminated his employment with the Company on February 1, 2002, subject to the terms and conditions of his Retention Agreement. Each Retention Agreement provides for automatic one-year renewals, unless the Company provides the executive with notice of non-renewal at least six months prior to the next renewal date. Each Retention Agreement provides for a base salary per year commensurate with the executive's current base salary plus participation in any and all insurance and other plans for the benefit of the Company's officers, which are in effect during the employment period. The executives are also entitled to participate in the Company's incentive bonus plans.

Each Retention Agreement provides that, if, prior to the expiration or termination thereof, a Change of Control (as defined in the Retention Agreement) occurs and thereafter the Company terminates his employment without "Cause" (as defined in the Retention Agreement), or, if the executive terminates his employment for "Good Reason" (as defined in each Retention Agreement) or is terminated by the Company without "Cause" prior to a Change of Control, the executive would be entitled to receive payment of a lump sum cash amount consisting of: (i) his pro-rated annual base salary on the date of termination to the extent not paid plus his pro-rated targeted annual and long-term incentive awards through the date of termination, payable within 30 days after termination; and (ii) his annual base salary on the date of termination, plus the targeted annual awards that would have been paid to him during the fiscal period in which he was terminated, in equal installments to be paid at least monthly during each of the two years following his termination. Unvested options would continue to vest in accordance with their terms for two years after the date of termination, with all remaining unvested options vesting on the second anniversary of the termination date. Options that are vested at termination or vest thereafter would be exercisable until the earlier of the thirty-month anniversary of the termination date or the expiration date of the options. Any other unvested equity-based awards (including, without limitation, restricted stock and stock units) would vest on a pro rata basis on the second anniversary of the date of termination. In addition, the executive would be entitled to continuation of health benefits, with the Company obligated to pay the medical premiums for the first two years after the date of termination. The executive would be fully vested in any account balance or other benefits provided under any of the Company's benefit plans. Each executive would also be paid an amount pursuant to his Retention Agreement intended to reimburse the executive for any excise tax imposed under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, including any tax payable by reason of such reimbursement. In exchange for these payments and benefits, the executives are subject to a two-year non-competition covenant (other than in the event of termination following a Change of Control) and a two-year non-solicitation/non-hiring covenant.

Employment Agreement--Mr. D'Ambrose

On April 16, 2001, the Company entered into an employment agreement ("Employment Agreement") with Michael D'Ambrose. The Employment Agreement provides for a two-year term with automatic one-year renewals, unless the Company provides a notice of non-renewal at least six months prior to the next renewal date. The Employment Agreement provides for an initial base salary of $600,000 with annual compensation evaluations. The executive is eligible to receive annual incentive awards paid in accordance with the Company's incentive plans. For the fiscal year ending February 2, 2002, the executive was guaranteed an annual incentive of at least $600,000. Thereafter, there will be no guarantee and he will participate in the same plan as other senior executives. During the employment period, the executive may participate in all other Company plans at a level commensurate with his position. In conjunction with joining the Company, the executive received 25,000 restricted units and 80,000 stock options.

The Employment Agreement with Mr. D'Ambrose includes termination provisions similar to those of the other Named Executives discussed above (excluding Mr. Eyler). Additionally, the Employment Agreement provides for a cash payment in the event that employment is terminated upon expiration of the initial two-year term due to the decision not to renew or extend the employment period other than for "Cause" by the Company or by the executive for "Good Reason." Under these circumstances, the executive would be entitled to a lump sum cash payment within 30 days of termination consisting of: (i) his pro-rated annual base to the extent unpaid; (ii) his pro-rated target annual bonus and incentive awards that would have been paid to him during the fiscal period in which he was terminated; and (iii) any unpaid earned annual bonus or incentive awards. All unvested options, profit shares, or other equity-based awards would vest at termination. Options would be exercisable until the earlier of the thirty-month anniversary of the termination date or the expiration date.

Employment Agreement--Mr. Barbour

On July 19, 1999, the Company entered into an employment agreement ("Employment Agreement") with John Barbour. In addition to base salary and annual incentive awards, the executive is eligible to participate in all employee benefit plans. If the executive's employment is terminated without "Cause" or he terminates for "Good Reason," for the one-year period following the date of written notice, he would be entitled to receive an amount equal to two times his current base salary plus he would be entitled to continue to participate in his current employee benefit plans. In addition, the executive would receive: (i) the greater of (a) fifty percent of his signing grant of options for shares of toysrus.com stock; or (b) the number of such options that would vest through the first anniversary of the date of termination; plus (ii) the number of options in Company stock that would vest through the first anniversary of the date of termination. Any options that are unvested at the first anniversary of the date of termination would be cancelled. In the event of termination due to disability, for the one-year period following the date of termination, the executive would continue to receive his annual salary plus he would be entitled to continue participating in his current employee benefit plans. Depending on the circumstance of the termination, the executive may be subject to non-competition and non-solicitation covenants for a period of one year from the date of termination. If a Change of Control occurs, all options to acquire both toysrus.com shares and Toys "R" Us shares would immediately vest and become exercisable.

TOYS "R" US, INC.

Adopted as of March 13, 2002

Toys "R" Us, Inc.

Corporate Governance Guidelines

The following Corporate Governance Guidelines (the "Guidelines") have been adopted by the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Toys "R" Us, Inc. (the "Company" or "Toys "R" Us") to assist the Board in the exercise of its responsibilities. These Guidelines reflect the Board's commitment to monitor the effectiveness of policy and decision-making both at the Board and management level, and to enhance stockholder value over the long term. These Guidelines are a statement of policy and are not intended to change or interpret any federal or state law or regulation, including the Delaware General Corporation Law, or the Certificate of Incorporation or By-laws of the Company. The Guidelines are subject to periodic review by the Corporate Governance Committee of the Board and to modification from time to time by the Board.

BOARD COMPOSITION

1. Selection of Chair of the Board and Chief Executive Officer

The Board shall be free to choose its Chair in any way that seems best for the Company at any given point in time. The Board believes, however, that if the offices of the Chief Executive Officer and Chair of the Board are filled by different people, the Chair of the Board should be selected from the non-employee directors.

Edgar Filing: TOYS R US INC - Form DEF 14A

2. Size of the Board

The Board believes that it should generally have no fewer than nine and no more than eleven directors. This range permits diversity of experience without hindering effective discussion or diminishing individual accountability.

3. Selection of New Directors

The entire Board shall be responsible for nominating candidates for election to the Board at the Company's annual meeting of stockholders and for filling vacancies on the Board that may occur between annual meetings of stockholders. The Nominating Committee is responsible for identifying, screening and recommending candidates to the entire Board for Board membership. When formulating its Board membership recommendations, the Nominating Committee shall also consider any advice and recommendations offered by the Chief Executive Officer or the stockholders of the Company or any outside advisors the Nominating Committee may retain.

4. Board Membership Criteria

Nominees for director shall be selected on the basis of broad experience; wisdom; integrity; ability to make independent analytical inquiries; understanding of the Company's business environment; and willingness to devote adequate time to Board duties.

The Nominating Committee shall be responsible for assessing the appropriate balance of skills and characteristics required of Board members.

The Board shall be committed to a diversified membership, in terms of both the individuals involved and their various experiences and areas of expertise.

Each director shall be expected to have purchased at least 1000 shares of stock within (1) year of first becoming a Board member.

5. Percentage of Independent Directors on Board

Independent directors shall constitute a substantial majority of the Board. The Board should be encouraged to invite senior management to attend board meetings, but Company executives should understand that board membership is generally limited to outside directors. No more than two Company employees may serve on the Board at the same time.

6. Board Definition of Director Independence

An independent director is one who is free from any relationship that would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a director. No officer or employee of Toys "R" Us or its subsidiaries nor any immediate family member of any officer or employee of Toys "R" Us or its subsidiaries shall qualify as an independent director. A director who is an executive officer of another corporation where any of the Company's executives serves on that corporation's compensation committee shall not qualify as an independent director. An individual (a) who is a partner, controlling stockholder, or executive officer of an organization that has a business relationship with the Company that is material either to the director or to the Company or (b) who has a direct business relationship with the Company that is material either to the director or to the Company, may not serve as an independent member of the Board. The materiality of the business relationship shall be determined by the Corporate

Edgar Filing: TOYS R US INC - Form DEF 14A

Governance Committee, and its determination shall be final. Further, an individual may not serve as an independent member of the Board for a period of three years following the termination of any of the relationships delineated above, unless the Board expressly determines otherwise.

7. Chair of the Corporate Governance Committee

The Chair of the Corporate Governance Committee shall be an independent director.

8. Retirement Age

No director after having attained the age of 72 years shall be nominated for re-election or reappointment to the Board, without the prior approval of the Corporate Governance Committee.

9. Directors Who Change Their Present Job Responsibility

The Corporate Governance Committee shall review the continued appropriateness of Board membership if a Board member has a material change in employment circumstances and the affected director shall be expected to act in accordance with the Corporate Governance Committee's recommendation.

10. Term Limits

The Board does not mandate term limits for its directors.

11. Board Compensation

The Company's employees shall not receive additional compensation for their service as directors. Director compensation shall be reviewed annually as determined by the Compensation and Organizational Development Committee.

The Company believes that compensation for non-employee directors should be competitive. Further, the Company believes is in the best interest of its shareholders that a portion of annual director compensation be paid in Company stock.

12. Evaluation of Board

The Board shall be responsible for annually conducting a self-evaluation of the Board as a whole. The Corporate Governance Committee shall be responsible for establishing the evaluation criteria and implementing the process for such evaluation.

13. Evaluation of Committees of the Board

The Corporate Governance Committee shall conduct an annual review of each committee's contribution to the Company. In its review of the committees, the Corporate Governance Committee shall review each committee's objectives, as stated at the beginning of each fiscal year, and compare those stated objectives to the results and time expended to achieve such results at the end of that year.

A-2

14. Evaluation of Board Members

The Corporate Governance Committee shall conduct an annual review of each

Edgar Filing: TOYS R US INC - Form DEF 14A

Board member. It shall be responsible for establishing the evaluation criteria and implementing the evaluation process.

15. Board Contact with Senior Management

Board members shall have complete access to management. Board members shall use sound business judgment to ensure that such contact is not distracting, and, if in writing, shall be copied to the Chief Executive Officer and the Chair of the Board.

Furthermore, the Board encourages senior management, from time to time, to bring employees into Board meetings who: (a) can provide additional insight concerning the items being discussed because of personal involvement in these areas; (b) represent significant aspects of the Company's business; and (c) assure the Board of exposure to employees with future potential to assure adequate plans for management succession within the Company.

16. Board Interaction with Institutional Investors and Press

The Board believes that management generally should speak for the Company, consistent with all regulations governing such communications and with common sense. Unless otherwise agreed to or requested by the Chair, each director shall refer all inquiries from institutional investors and the press to designated members of senior management or to the Chair.

BOARD MEETINGS

17. Frequency of Meetings

There shall be at least five regularly scheduled meetings of the Board each year.

18. Selection of Agenda Items for Board Meetings

The Chair of the Board, in consultation with the Corporate Secretary and the Chief Executive Officer, shall annually prepare a "Board of Directors Master Agenda." This Master Agenda shall set forth a minimum agenda of items to be considered by the Board at each of its specified meetings during the year. Each meeting agenda shall include an opportunity for each committee chair to raise issues or report to the Board. Thereafter, the Chair of the Board, and the Chief Executive Officer, may adjust the agenda to include special items not contemplated during the initial preparation of the annual Master Agenda.

Upon completion, a copy of the Master Agenda shall be provided to the entire Board. Each Board member shall be free to suggest inclusion of items on the Master Agenda for any given meeting. Thereafter, any Board member may suggest additional subjects that are not specifically on the agenda for any particular meeting. In that case, the Board member should contact the Chair or the Secretary at least ten days prior to the relevant meeting.

19. Strategic Discussions at Board Meetings

At least one Board meeting will be primarily devoted to long-range strategic plans. It is also probable that specific short and/or long-range strategic plans will be discussed at other Board meetings throughout the year.

20. Executive Sessions

The Board shall meet in executive session, without the presence of the Company's officers, on at least two occasions each year. These meetings can be in person or held telephonically.

Edgar Filing: TOYS R US INC - Form DEF 14A

21. Board Materials Distributed in Advance

Information and data is important to the Board's understanding of the business and essential to prepare Board members for productive meetings. Presentation materials relevant to each meeting will be distributed in writing to the Board in advance of the meeting unless doing so would compromise the confidentiality of competitive information. In the event of a pressing need for the Board to meet on short notice, it is recognized that written materials may not be available in advance of the meeting. Management will make every effort to provide presentation materials that are brief and to the point, yet communicate the essential information.

COMMITTEE MATTERS

22. Number and Names of Board Committees

The Company shall have five standing committees: Audit, Nominating, Corporate Governance, Compensation and Organizational Development, and Executive. The duties for each of these committees shall be outlined in each of the committee's charter and by resolution of the Board. The Board may form a new committee or disband a current committee depending on circumstances.

23. Independence of Audit and Corporate Governance and Compensation and Organizational Development Committee

The Audit, Corporate Governance, and Compensation and Organizational Development committees shall be composed entirely of independent directors.

24. Assignment and Rotation of Committee Members

The Nominating Committee shall be responsible, after consultation with the Chair of the Board, for making recommendations to the Board with respect to the assignment of Board members to various committees. After reviewing the Nominating Committee's recommendations, the Board shall be responsible for appointing the Chairs and members to the committees on an annual basis.

The Chair and the Nominating Committee shall annually review the Committee assignments and shall consider the rotation of Chairs and members with a view toward balancing the benefits derived from continuity against the benefits derived from the diversity of experience and viewpoints of the various directors.

25. Annual Review by Committee

Each Board Committee shall annually review its charter and recommend to the Board any changes it deems necessary. In addition all Board Committees shall annually review the Corporate Governance guidelines, and recommend to the Corporate Governance Committee any changes it deems necessary. In addition to its charter, the Corporate Governance Committee will annually review the Corporate Governance Guidelines and recommend to the full Board any changes it deems necessary.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

26. Evaluation of Chief Executive Officer

Edgar Filing: TOYS R US INC - Form DEF 14A

The Board shall conduct an ongoing evaluation of the Chief Executive Officer. The evaluation of the Chief Executive Officer is accomplished through the following process:

- o The Chief Executive Officer meets with the Compensation and Organizational Development Committee to develop appropriate goals and objectives for the next year, which are then discussed with the entire Board.
- o At year end, the Compensation and Organizational Development Committee, with input from the Board, evaluates the performance of the Chief Executive Officer in meeting those goals and objectives.
- o This evaluation is communicated to the Chief Executive Officer at an executive session of the Board.
- o The Compensation and Organizational Development Committee uses this evaluation in determining the Chief Executive Officer's compensation.

A-4

27. Succession Planning

The Company understands the importance of succession planning. Therefore, the Compensation and Organizational Development Committee, along with the Chief Executive Officer, shall analyze the current management, identify possible successors to senior management, and timely develop a succession plan. The plan shall then be reviewed by the entire Board, and reviewed periodically thereafter.

28. Management Development

The Board, with the assistance of the Compensation and Organizational Development Committee, shall periodically review the plans for the education, development, and orderly succession of senior and mid-level managers throughout the Company.

29. Interpretation

In cases where the Chair of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer are the same individual, procedures calling for consultation or communications between such positions need not be followed.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

30. Interest Matters

If a director, directly or indirectly, has a financial or personal interest in a contract or transaction to which the corporation is to be a party, or is contemplating entering into a transaction that involves use of corporate assets or competition against the corporation, the director is considered to be 'interested' in the matter. The director should contact the Chief Executive Officer, the Corporate Secretary or the Chairman of the Corporate Governance Committee. The director's involvement or interest will be reviewed by the Company's General Counsel, and then referred for resolution to the Corporate Governance Committee. Interested directors should be identified and/or disclosed, and they shall not participate in any discussion or any vote relating to the matter in which they have been deemed to be interested. The decision of the Corporate Governance Committee on all matters of "interest" shall be final.
