About Trinity Biotech

Trinity Biotech plc, an Irish public limited company, was formed in January 1992 to acquire, develop, manufacture and market rapid and laboratory based diagnostic tests for the detection of various infectious diseases and other medical conditions. In addition, we manufacture and market diagnostic tests through our U.S. subsidiaries, Trinity Biotech (USA) Corp., MarDx Diagnostics Inc. and Trinity Biotech Distribution, Inc. (f/k/a Biopool U.S., Inc.). Our address is IDA Business Park, Bray, Co. Wicklow, Ireland, telephone number 011 353 1 276 9800.

Where You Can Find More Information

We file annual and special reports and other information with the SEC. You may read and copy any document we file at the SEC's public reference rooms in Washington, D.C., New York, New York and Chicago, Illinois. Please call the SEC at 1-800-SEC-0330 for further information on the public reference rooms.

Trinity is a "foreign private issuer" as defined in Rule 3b-4 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. As a result, our proxy solicitations are not subject to the disclosure and procedural requirements of Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act and transactions in Trinity's equity securities by its officers and directors are exempt from Section 16 of the Exchange Act. In addition, Trinity is not required under the Exchange Act to file periodic reports and financial statements as frequently or as promptly as U.S. companies whose securities are registered under the Exchange Act.

Our ADRs are listed for quotation on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market, and reports and other information filed by us can be inspected at the offices of Nasdaq. Each ADR represents one Class A Ordinary Share of Trinity.

Enforceability of Civil Liabilities Against Foreign Persons

We are a public limited company organized under the laws of the Republic of Ireland. Several of our directors and officers and certain experts named in the registration statement are residents of Ireland or other non-U.S. jurisdictions. Substantial portions of the assets of these persons and of Trinity are located in Ireland or other non-U.S. jurisdictions.

We have appointed Alan Bernstein of Carter, Ledyard & Milburn as our agent to receive service of process in any legal action against us. However, it may not be possible for investors to effect service of process upon Trinity or its non-U.S. directors, officers or experts named in the registration statement or to enforce any judgment obtained against these persons in U.S. courts. Also, it may not be possible to enforce U.S. securities laws or judgments obtained in U.S. courts against these persons in a non-U.S. jurisdiction.

Currency Translation

Trinity publishes its financial statements in United States dollars. Unless otherwise specified, all references to "U.S. dollars", "dollars", "$" or "U.S. $" are to United States dollars and references to "Euro," or "(euro)" are to the European Euro. This prospectus contains translations of certain Euro amounts into U.S. dollars at a specified rate. U.S. dollar equivalent information for Euros is based on the Interbank rate for September 30, 2002. The average exchange rate for January 31, 2003 was U.S. $1.0815 per 1 Euro. No representation is made that the Euro or U.S. dollar amounts shown in this prospectus could have been or could be converted into U.S. dollars or Euros, as the case may be, at any particular rate or at all.

Notice Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This prospectus and the documents incorporated in it by reference contain forward-looking statements which involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties. We include this notice for the express purpose of permitting Trinity to avail itself of the protections of the safe harbor provided by the

Edgar Filing: TRINITY BIOTECH PLC - Form F-3

Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 for all such forward looking statements. Examples of forward-looking statements include: (1) projections of capital expenditures, revenues, growth, prospects, financial resources and other financial matters; (2) statements of our plans or objectives; and (3) statements using the words "anticipate," "believe," "estimate," "expect," "may," "intend," "plan," "project," "understand" and other verbs suggesting uncertainty.

Our ability to predict results of Trinity's operations or the effects of certain events on Trinity's operating results is inherently uncertain. Therefore, we caution you to consider carefully the matters described under the caption "Summary of Risks" and certain other matters discussed in this prospectus, the documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus, and other publicly available sources. Such risks and many other factors beyond the control of Trinity's management could cause the actual results, performance or achievements of Trinity to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements that may be expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements.

Summary of Risks

Before you invest in our shares, you should be aware that there are various risks, including those described below. You should consider carefully these risks together with all of the other information included in this prospectus before you decide to purchase our shares.

Potential Fluctuations in Results

- o Trinity's operating results may fluctuate as a result of many factors including size and timing of orders, the competitive conditions in the industry, loss of significant customers, delays in the development of new products, currency fluctuations and general economic conditions.

Future Need for Capital

- o Up to now Trinity has funded its operations through the sale of its shares and securities convertible into shares, revenues from operations and bank borrowings. In addition to our regular expenses, we are obligated to repay two promissory notes described below in the section "Recent Developments - Sale of Convertible Notes" beginning in the year 2004. The proceeds of the notes were used to make the purchase price payment for the asset acquisition on November 27, 2002 described below in the section "Recent Developments - Acquisitions". The total amount for these payments is approximately $4 million (including interest). Also, we will have to make the future purchase price payments described below in the section "Recent Developments - Acquisitions". We expect that our current working capital and sales revenues will fund our operations and payment obligations for the foreseeable future. However, if our capital requirements are greater than expected, or if our revenues are not sufficient to fund our operations, we may need to find additional financing which may not be available on attractive terms or at all. Any future financing could have an adverse effect on our current shareholders or the price of our shares in general.

Uncertainty of Product Development

- o The diagnostic test industry is characterized by ongoing technological developments and changing customer requirements. As a result, Trinity's success and continued growth depend, in part, on its ability in a timely manner to develop or acquire rights to, and successfully introduce into the marketplace, enhancements of existing products or new products that incorporate technological advances, meet customer requirements and respond to products developed by Trinity's competition. There can be no assurance that Trinity will be successful in developing or acquiring such rights to products on a timely basis or that such products will adequately address the changing needs of the marketplace.

Changing Market Conditions

- o The healthcare industry is in transition with a number of changes that affect the market for diagnostic test products. Changes in the healthcare industry delivery system have resulted in major consolidation among reference laboratories and in the formation of multi-hospital alliances, reducing the number of institutional customers for diagnostic test products. There can be no assurance that Trinity will be able to enter into and/or sustain contractual or other marketing or distribution arrangements on a satisfactory commercial basis with these institutional customers.

Uncertainty of Government Regulatory Approvals

- o Sales of our products are subject to regulation by health authorities in countries where they are marketed. We must obtain regulatory approval for any products which are successfully developed prior to their commercial sale. These approvals may take several years and may never be obtained.

Dependence Upon Sales to Major Customer

- o During the one year period ended December 31, 2001 and the nine months ended September 30, 2002, approximately 27% and 20% respectively of Trinity's revenues were derived from a distribution agreement between our U.S. subsidiaries and Carter Wallace, Inc. In 2001, Carter Wallace was acquired by Medpointe, Inc. The loss or interruption of the distribution agreements with Carter Wallace could be expected to have a material adverse effect on Trinity.

Dependence on Key Personnel

- o Trinity's success is dependent on certain key management personnel. Competition for qualified employees among biotechnology companies is intense, and the loss of key personnel, or the inability to attract and retain the additional highly skilled employees required for the expansion of our activities, could adversely affect our business.

Market Competition and Technological Obsolescence

- o The diagnostics industry is extremely competitive. Trinity is competing directly with companies which have greater capital resources and larger marketing and business organizations than Trinity. Trinity's ability to grow revenue and earnings may be adversely impacted by competitive product and pricing pressures and by its inability to gain or retain market share as result of the action of competitors. The Company has significantly invested in research and development but there can be no guarantees that its R&D programs will not be rendered technologically obsolete or financially non-viable by the technological advances of its competitors.

Ongoing Litigation

- o On December 19, 2002, Trinity filed a lawsuit against Xtrana, Inc. in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York in connection with an Asset Purchase Agreement entered into between Trinity and Xtrana on November 9, 2001. After the Asset Purchase Agreement was finalized, Xtrana entered into a consent judgment with Instrumentation Laboratories ("IL") in which it admitted that one of the products listed in the Asset Purchase Agreement (identified as "Bioclot") infringed on patents held by IL. Trinity has asserted claims against Xtrana for breach of contract, breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, unjust enrichment, common law fraud, negligent misrepresentation and violation of the Delaware Consumer Fraud Act as a result of misrepresentations made by Xtrana regarding the IL lawsuit and for entering into the consent judgment. Trinity seeks not less than $1,200,000 for each of its claims and punitive damages not less than $3,000,000 on its claims for common law fraud and violation of the Delaware Consumer Fraud Act. On or about January 17, 2003, Xtrana filed counterclaims for tortious interference with prospective economic advantage, breach of contract for failure to pay promissory notes in connection with the Asset Purchase Agreement, breach of covenant of good faith and fair dealing and seeking a declaratory judgment that Trinity is obligated to make payments under the promissory notes. Xtrana seeks not less than $27,000,000 for each of its claims and punitive damages not less than $30,000,000 on its claims for tortious interference and breach of covenant of good faith and fair dealing. Management sees no valid basis for alleging damages against Trinity.

Patent Protection

- o We can provide no assurance that the patents Trinity may apply for will be obtained or that existing patents will not be challenged. The patents owned by Trinity and its subsidiaries may be challenged by third parties through litigation and could adversely affect the value of our patents. We can provide no assurance that our patents will continue to be commercially valuable.
- o Also, our technologies could be subject to claims of infringement of patents or proprietary technology owned by others. The cost of enforcing our patent and technology rights against infringers or defending our patents and technologies against infringement charges by others may be high and could adversely affect our business.
- o Trade secrets and confidential know-how are important to our scientific and commercial success. Although we seek to protect our proprietary information through confidentiality agreements and other contracts, we can provide no assurance that others will not independently develop the same or similar information or gain access to our proprietary information.

Edgar Filing: TRINITY BIOTECH PLC - Form F-3

Dependence Upon Suppliers

- o The primary raw materials required for Trinity's test kits consist of antibodies, antigens or other reagents, glass fibre and packaging materials to be acquired from third parties. Although Trinity does not expect to be dependent upon any one source for these raw materials, alternative sources of antibodies with the specificity and sensitivity desired by Trinity may not be available. Such unavailability could affect the quality of our products and our ability to meet orders for specific products.

Risk of Product Liability

- o Trinity may be subject to claims for personal injuries or other damages resulting from its products or services. There can be no assurance that our product liability insurance is sufficient to protect us against liability that could have a material adverse effect on our business.

Risk of Foreign Exchange Fluctuations

- o Trinity records its transactions and prepares its financial statements in U.S. dollars. A substantial portion of our expenses are denominated in Euros. However, Trinity's revenues are primarily denominated in U.S. dollars. As a result, we are affected by fluctuations in currency exchange rates, especially the exchange rate between the U.S. dollar and the Euro. Fluctuations between these and other exchange rates may adversely affect our earnings and assets.

Penny Stock Regulations and Restrictions on Marketability

- o SEC regulations concerning "penny stock" apply to our shares. These regulations impose sales practice requirements on broker-dealers who sell our shares to persons other than established customers and "accredited investors" as defined in SEC regulations. For transactions covered by the regulations, broker-dealers must make a suitability determination and receive a written agreement from the purchaser prior to the sale. These regulations may affect the ability of broker-dealers to sell our shares in the secondary market and thus adversely affect our share price.

Recent Developments

Sale of Convertible Notes

On November 27, 2002, we issued Convertible Notes with an aggregate principal amount of $3,500,000 and warrants to purchase an aggregate of 50,000 of our Class A Ordinary Shares for an aggregate sale price of $3,500,000 to The Tail Wind Fund Ltd. and Solomon Strategic Holdings, Inc., $1,000,000 of which was paid for through the surrender of a debenture issued to The Tail Wind Fund Ltd. in 1999. The Notes are divided into two tranches, designated Tranche A, in the principal amount of $2,500,000, and Tranche B, in the principal amount of $1,000,000. Tranche A matures on July 2, 2007 and Tranche B matures on December 31, 2005. Tranche A bears annual interests at the rate of 5.25%, unless Trinity is unable to grant a mortgage for the benefit of the investors on a recently acquired facility in Lemgo, Germany by March 12, 2003, in which event Tranche A shall bear annual interest at the rate of 6.00%. Tranche B bears annual interests at the rate of 6.00%. Trinity shall pay the interest accrued under both tranches quarterly in arrears on the first business day of each consecutive calendar quarter beginning on January 2, 2003.

Commencing January 2, 2004, Trinity is required to repay quarterly in the aggregate U.S. $200,000 in principal amount plus accrued interest due under Tranche A of the Notes, either in cash or in Class A Ordinary Shares at Trinity's option, subject to certain exceptions.

The Notes are convertible into our Class A Ordinary Shares. The holders of the Notes may exercise this right to convert at any time and from time to time before we repay the Notes. The number of shares to be received upon conversion is calculated by dividing the amount of the Notes being converted by $1.50. However, if Trinity does not grant the above described mortgage by March 12, 2002, this conversion price will be $1.25.

As part of the sale of the Notes, we issued Warrants to buy 50,000 of our Class A Ordinary Shares to the purchasers of the Notes. These Warrants allow the purchasers to buy these shares at $1.50 each any time until November 27, 2007. However, if Trinity does not grant the above described mortgage by March 12, 2003, this exercise price shall be $1.25. In addition, The Tail Wind Fund Ltd. still holds a five year warrant issued to it on December 27, 1999 which grants the right to purchase 333,701 shares. The resale of these shares has been registered under a registration statement on Form F-3, Registration No. 333-11360.

We agreed to file a registration statement with the SEC covering the public sale of 175% of the shares which we may issue if the Notes are converted in full and 100% of the shares issuable upon full exercise of the Warrants. Such registration statement also covers shares issued in payment of principal or interest on the Notes. This prospectus forms a part of that registration statement. We agreed to use our best efforts to have this registration statement declared effective by the SEC. If (i) after the registration statement has been declared effective, sales cannot be made for any reason, (ii) the ADRs to be registered are not listed on the Nasdaq National or SmallCap Market, the New York State Exchange, or the American State Exchange, or (iii) Trinity does not issue the shares upon conversion of the Notes or exercise of the Warrants, Trinity must pay liquidated damages in an amount equal to 2% of the principal outstanding with the Notes after and as long as one of these events have occurred and continue.

Acquisitions

Effective as of November 27, 2002, Trinity and several of its subsidiaries acquired from Sigma certain assets of its clinical chemistry and cardiac chemistry business lines for a total purchase price of $4,350,000, of which $2,540,000 was paid on November 27, 2002, $1,010,000 is payable on May 27, 2003 and $800,000 is payable on November 27, 2003.

Effective as of August 26, 2002, Trinity and several of its subsidiaries acquired from Sigma Diagnostics, Inc., a Missouri based company, certain assets of Sigma's coagulation business line, including Sigma's coagulation products facility in Amelung, Germany, for a total purchase price of $1,300,000.

In December 2001, Trinity acquired the assets and goodwill of the Biopool hemostasis business of Biopool US Inc. for a consideration of $6.3 million before costs comprising US$3.7 million in cash and $2.6 million in deferred consideration. The first installment of the deferred consideration in the amount of $0.9 million was paid recently and two additional installments of $1.1 million and $0.6 million are payable on December 21, 2003 and 2004, respectively.

Use of Proceeds

Trinity will not receive any additional proceeds from the sale of the shares offered by this prospectus. However, we will receive the proceeds of any exercise of the Warrants as discussed above for cash, which proceeds will be used for working capital and general corporate purposes. If the investors exercise all of the Warrants, Trinity would receive proceeds of $75,000 if the exercise price of $1.50 applies and $62,500 if the exercise price of $1.25 applies.

The table above represents the number of Class A Ordinary shares beneficially owned by each selling shareholder assuming for each selling shareholder the conversion of the Notes and exercise of the warrants described above in "Recent Developments" at a conversion and exercise price of $1.50.

The registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part covers up to 4,133,333 Class A Ordinary Shares represented by ADRs issued or issuable upon conversion of, exchange for or in payment of principal or interest on, the Notes issued to the selling stockholders and upon exercise of the Warrants issued to the selling stockholders on November 27, 2002.

None of the selling shareholders has held any position, office or other material relationship with Trinity or any of its affiliates within the past three years other than as a result of his or its ownership of Trinity shares, debentures or warrants. The shares may be offered from time to time by the selling shareholders named above. However, the selling shareholders are under no obligation to sell any portion of their shares. All information about share ownership has been furnished by the selling shareholders. Because the selling shareholders may sell all or part of their shares, no estimate can be given for the number of shares that will be held by any selling shareholder upon termination of this offering.

Plan of Distribution

Trinity is registering all of the shares on behalf of the selling shareholders. "Selling shareholders," as used in this prospectus, includes anyone who receives the shares from the named selling shareholders after the date of this prospectus. The selling shareholders may sell their shares from time to time. The selling shareholders will act independently of Trinity in making decisions about the timing, manner and size of each sale. The selling shareholders may sell shares on one or more exchanges or in the over-the-counter market or otherwise, at prices and at terms then prevailing or at prices related to the then current market price, or in negotiated transactions. The selling shareholders may use one or more, or a combination, of the following methods to sell their shares:

- o purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and the resale by such broker or dealer for its account pursuant to this prospectus;
- o ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker solicits purchasers;
- o block trades in which the broker-dealer so engaged will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- o in options transactions;
- o for shares that qualify for resale under Rule 144 of the Securities Act of 1933, or the Securities Act, under that rule rather than this prospectus; or in privately negotiated transactions; and/or
- o in any other manner permitted under law.

Edgar Filing: TRINITY BIOTECH PLC - Form F-3

The selling shareholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers in connection with distributions of the shares or otherwise. In these transactions, broker-dealers may engage in short sales of the shares in the course of hedging the positions they assume with the selling shareholders. The selling shareholders also may sell shares short and redeliver the shares to close out these short positions. The selling shareholders may enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers which require the delivery to the broker-dealer of the shares. The broker-dealer may then resell or otherwise transfer these shares through this prospectus. The selling shareholders also may loan or pledge the shares to a broker-dealer. The broker-dealer may sell the shares so loaned, or upon a default the broker-dealer may sell the pledged shares by use of this prospectus.

In effecting sales, broker-dealers engaged by the selling shareholders may arrange for other broker-dealers to participate. Broker-dealers will receive commissions or discounts from the selling shareholders in amounts to be negotiated immediately prior to the sale. In offering the shares covered by this prospectus, the selling shareholders and any broker-dealers who execute sales for the selling shareholders may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. Any profits realized by the selling shareholders and the compensation of any broker-dealers may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions. Because the selling shareholders may be deemed to be underwriters, they will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. The selling shareholders have advised Trinity that they have not entered into any agreements, understandings or arrangements with any underwriters or broker-dealers regarding the sale of the shares. No underwriter or coordinating broker is acting in connection with the selling shareholders' proposed sale of shares.

The selling shareholders will sell their shares only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers if required under applicable state securities laws. In addition, in some states the selling shareholders may not sell their shares unless the shares have been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or the selling shareholders comply with an available exemption from the registration or qualification requirements.

Under applicable rules and regulations of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or the Exchange Act, any person engaged in the distribution of the shares may not simultaneously engage in market making activities with respect to Trinity's common stock for a period of two business days before the commencement of this distribution. In addition, the selling shareholders will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the associated rules and regulations under the Exchange Act, including Regulation M, which provisions may limit the timing of the selling shareholders' purchases and sales of shares of Trinity's common stock. Trinity will make copies of this prospectus available to the selling shareholders and has informed the selling shareholders of the need for delivery of copies of this prospectus to potential purchasers at or before the time of any sale of the shares.

If Trinity enters into any material arrangement with a broker-dealer for the sale of any shares offered by this prospectus, through a block trade, special offering, exchange distribution or a purchase by a broker or dealer, Trinity will file a supplement to this prospectus, if required, pursuant to Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act, disclosing

Item 10. Undertakings.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes as follows:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:
 - (i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act");
 - (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;
 - (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (i) and (ii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.

- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (4) To file a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement to include any financial statements required by Rule 319 of Regulation S-X at the start of any delayed offering or throughout a continuous offering, provided that a post-effective amendment need not be filed to include financial statements and information required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act or Rule 31a of Regulation S-X if such financial statement and information are contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.

- (5) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (6) For purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, the information omitted from the form of prospectus filed as part of this registration statement in reliance upon Rule 430A and contained in a form of prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(1) or (4) or 497(h) under the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of this registration statement as of the time it was declared effective.
- (7) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the provisions referred to in Item 15, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
