consultant. Mr. Skiptunis earned a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Rutgers University.

Committees of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors has established an audit committee and a compensation committee to assist the full Board in administering its duties.

Audit Committee

The Registrant has a separately-designated standing audit committee established in accordance with section 3(a)(58)(A) of the Exchange Act. Until recently, the members of the audit committee were John (B.J.) Lackland (Chairman) and Scott Straka. Mr. Straka resigned from the Board of Directors on March 18, 2004 leaving Mr. Lackland as the sole member of the audit committee. The Board of Directors intends to appoint a new board member to the audit committee at its next board meeting. The Board of Directors believes that each of the current and former members of the audit committee possess the requisite financial knowledge and experience to serve on the audit committee. However, the audit committee's current member is not a financial expert as defined in Item 401 of Regulation S-B. The Registrant's audit committee does not have a financial expert because the Registrant has not found a suitable candidate.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires that all executive officers and directors of the Company and all persons who beneficially own more than ten percent of the Company's Common Stock file an initial report of their ownership of the Company's securities on Form 3 and report changes in their ownership of the Company's securities on Form 4 or Form 5. These filings must be made with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the National Association of Securities Dealers with a copy sent to the Company.

Based solely on the review of copies of the forms provided to the Company and the representations by the executive officers, directors and ten percent shareholders during fiscal year 2003, the following failed to file on a timely basis, as disclosed in the above forms, reports required by Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act.

Anthony Acone inadvertently missed a filing deadline for reporting one transaction. Mr. Acone has since filed a Form 4 to report the transaction.

Richard Koch inadvertently missed 2 filing deadlines for reporting two transactions. Mr. Koch has since filed a Form 3 and a Form 4 to report the transactions.

Richard Pulford inadvertently missed a filing deadline for reporting one transaction. Mr. Pulford has since filed a Form 3 to report the transaction.

CODE OF ETHICS

The Registrant has not adopted a code of ethics. The Registrant has been focused on raising money and generating sales to support operations and consequently has not focused on adopting a code of ethics.

Item 10. Executive Compensation

STOCK OPTION GRANTS DURING 2003

Edgar Filing: POWER EFFICIENCY CORP - Form 10KSB/A

The following table shows information as to options granted during the year ended December 31, 2003.

Individual Grants						Potential Real Assumed Annual Price Apprecia Ter
Name	Number of securities underlying Options Granted	Percentage of Total Options Granted to Employees in Fiscal Year	Exercise Price in Dollars per Share	Market Price on Date of Grant	Expiration Date	5%
Richard J. Koch	52,631	15.6%	$5.67	$6.65	6/6/13	$271,689
Richard J. Koch	90,225	26.8%	$6.65	$6.65	6/6/13	$377,334
Keith Collin	57,142	17.0%	$6.09	$6.09	10/15/13	$218,852
Timothy Franzen	28,571	8.5%	$6.30	$7.35	2/5/13	$162,065
Thomas Mills	57,142	17.0%	$6.09	$6.09	11/12/13	$218,852

- The potential realizable value of the options granted is calculated by multiplying the difference between the exercise price of the option and the market value per share of the underlying stock (assuming a 5% or 10%, as the case may be, compounded annual increase of the stock price from the date of grant to the final expiration of the option) by the number of shares underlying the options granted. The price appreciation assumptions are required disclosures under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and are not to be viewed as any expectation or prediction by the Company of future value of the underlying common stock

The Registrant entered into an employment and compensation agreement with its CEO, Richard Koch, dated June 9, 2003. The agreement is for a base term of five years and is thereafter renewable for additional periods of one year unless the Company gives notice to the contrary not less than 90 days prior to the expiration of the term or any extension. In accordance with the terms of the agreement, the base salary for 2002 is $240,000, with annual increases and bonuses at the discretion of the compensation committee of the board of directors. During the first year of the Agreement, an amount equal to $60,000 of the base salary shall be accrued and paid at such time as the net cash provided by operating activities of the Company is greater than zero for a period of three consecutive months. The agreement with Mr. Koch also provides, among other things, for reimbursement of certain moving, living and automobile expenses and for certain payments to be made to Mr. Koch in the event of a change of control or termination of Mr. Koch without cause. Mr. Koch also received 1,000,000 stock options which will vest over a five-year period and have exercise prices of $.81 and $.95. The agreement also provides for severance payments to Mr. Koch in the event that he is terminated without cause. In such event, Mr. Koch would receive, over two years, either (i) $180,000 in the event that the Registrant is not cash flow positive, or (ii) $240,000 in the event that the Registrant is cash flow positive. The agreement also provides that Mr. Koch will receive a payment in the event of a change of control. In the event that a third party obtains more than 50% of the Registrant's common stock, Mr. Koch shall be entitled to 2% of the value of the Registrant which is in excess of $35,000,000 but less than $70,000,000; plus (b) 2.5% of the value of the Registrant which is in excess of $70,000,000 but less than $105,000,000; plus (c) 3.0% of the value of the Registrant which is in excess of $105,000,000.

Item 12. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

On September 22, 2003, the Registrant entered into a consulting agreement with Raymond J. Skiptunis. Mr. Skiptunis is a director of the Registrant and prior to September 22 was an employee of the Registrant. The agreement requires the Registrant to pay Mr. Skiptunis $4,000 per month and to accrue an additional $7,000 per month to be paid at such time that the Registrant closes on a debt or equity financing. The agreement with Mr. Skiptunis was terminated on March 31, 2004. During the term of the agreement, Mr. Skiptunis was paid $25,000 and the Registrant accrued an additional $47,750 which will be paid to Mr. Skiptunis at the time of an equity or debt financing.

Item 14. Principal Accountant Fees and Services.

(1) Audit Fees.

The aggregate fees billed in fiscal years 2003 and 2002 for professional services rendered by the principal accountant for the audit of the Registrant's annual financial statements and review of financial statements included in the Registrants Form 10-QSB or services that are normally provided by the accountant in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements for those fiscal years were $44,100 and $34,000, respectively.

(2) Audit-Related Fees.

Edgar Filing: POWER EFFICIENCY CORP - Form 10KSB/A

The aggregate fees billed in fiscal years 2003 and 2002 for assurance and related services by the principal accountant that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Registrant's financial statements and are not reported under Item 14(1) above were $0 and $0, respectively.

(3) Tax Fees.
