Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On March 20, 2008, Modine Manufacturing Company (the “Company” or “Modine”) issued a press release announcing that its President and Chief Executive Officer David B. Rayburn will be retiring from the Company and its Board of Directors, effective March 31, 2008. The Company has named Thomas A. Burke, its Chief Operating Officer, to succeed Mr. Rayburn and Bradley C. Richardson, its Chief Financial Officer, to a newly promoted position.

Effective April 1, 2008, Mr. Burke will assume the role of President and Chief Executive Officer and Mr. Richardson will assume the newly created position of Executive Vice President - Corporate Strategy and Chief Financial Officer. Both Mr. Burke and Mr. Richardson will be appointed to the Company’s Board of Directors concurrent with the assumption of their respective new positions, which will increase the Board to ten members. Messrs. Burke and Richardson are not expected to be appointed to any committees of the Board of Directors. Information as to Mr. Burke’s, Mr. Richardson’s and Mr. Rayburn’s historical compensation and the terms of their employment with the Company is included under the caption “Executive Compensation” in the proxy statement dated June 18, 2007 related to the Company’s 2007 annual meeting of shareholders. The Company expects to enter into a retirement agreement with Mr. Rayburn in connection with his retirement.

Mr. Burke, age 50, joined Modine in May 2005 as Executive Vice President, and was subsequently promoted to Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer in July 2006. Mr. Burke joined Modine from Visteon Corporation, a leading supplier of parts and systems to automobile manufacturers, in Dearborn, Michigan, where he held various positions over nine years including Vice President of North American Operations (2002 - May 2005) and Vice President, European and South American Operations (2001 - 2002). Mr. Burke’s experience also includes 13 years with Ford Motor Company.

Mr. Richardson, age 49, joined Modine in May 2003 as Vice President, Finance and Chief Financial Officer, and was subsequently promoted to Executive Vice President, Finance and Chief Financial Officer in January 2006. Mr. Richardson came to Modine from BP Amoco, now known as BP, where he spent over 20 years in various positions including Chief Financial Officer and Vice President of Performance Management and Control for BP’s Worldwide Exploration and Production division (2000-May 2003) and President of BP Venezuela (1999-2000). He is a member of the Boards of Directors of Brady Corporation and Tronox Inc. (formerly Kerr McGee Chemicals).

Also effective April 1, 2008, Gary L. Neale, currently Lead Director and Chair of the Officer Nomination and Compensation Committee of Modine’s Board of Directors, has been named Non-Executive Chairman of the Company. Mr. Neale has served on the Modine Board of Directors since 1977. Prior to his retirement in January 2007, Mr. Neale served as Chairman of NiSource, Inc. and, previous to that position, served as Chief Executive Officer and President at NiSource. Mr. Neale serves as a director of Chicago Bridge & Iron Company N.V.

Effective April 1, 2008, Modine director Marsha C. Williams will assume the role of Chairman of the Officer Nomination and Compensation Committee vacated by Mr. Neale. Ms. Williams currently serves as Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer with Orbitz Worldwide, Inc.

A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
