(1) COMMERCIAL CONSENSUS ON STRATEGIC INVESTMENT IN CHINA EASTERN AIRLINES CORPORATION LIMITED

(2) RESUMPTION OF TRADING IN SHARES

CEA and CEA Holding have reached commercial consensus with SIA and Temasek regarding the basis on which SIA and Temasek will proceed with a proposed strategic investment in CEA by way of subscription for new H Shares in CEA. In connection with the proposed strategic investment, CEA Holding will also subscribe for new H Shares in CEA. The commercial consensus is reflected in a heads of agreement entered into by CEA, CEA Holding, SIA and Temasek on 2 September 2007. The Heads of Agreement is not legally binding and is subject to definitive transaction agreements to be discussed and entered into between relevant parties.

Investors should note that the detailed terms regarding the Proposed Share Subscriptions and the proposed strategic cooperation have yet to be finalized and agreed on. Further, even if and when the detailed terms have been agreed on, completion of the Proposed Share Subscriptions and the proposed strategic cooperation will be subject to the obtaining of all applicable government approvals, regulatory approvals and shareholders approvals and other conditions precedent. Accordingly, there is uncertainty as to whether the Proposed Share Subscriptions and the proposed strategic cooperation will indeed materialize. Investors are advised to exercise caution when dealing in the shares of CEA.

Further announcements will be made by CEA if and when the detailed terms of the Proposed Share Subscriptions and the proposed strategic cooperation have been agreed on and definitive legally binding agreements have been signed.

At the request of CEA, trading in the H Shares of CEA on the Stock Exchange was suspended with effect from 9:47 a.m. on 22 May 2007. CEA has made an application to the Stock Exchange for the resumption of trading in its shares on the Stock Exchange with effect from 9:30 a.m. on 3 September 2007.

CEA and CEA Holding have reached commercial consensus with SIA and Temasek regarding the basis on which SIA and Temasek will proceed with a proposed strategic investment in CEA by way of subscription for new H Shares in CEA. In connection with the proposed strategic investment, CEA Holding will also subscribe for new H Shares in CEA. The commercial consensus is reflected in a heads of agreement entered into by CEA, CEA Holding, SIA and Temasek on 2 September 2007. The Heads of Agreement is not legally binding and is subject to definitive transaction agreements to be discussed and entered into. The commercial consensus reached is as follows:

I. THE PROPOSED SHARE SUBSCRIPTIONS

SIA and Temasek will, at the subscription price of HK$ 3.80 per share, subscribe in cash for 1,235,005,263 new H Shares and 649,426,737 new H Shares in CEA respectively. Immediately after completion of the Proposed Share Subscriptions, SIA and Temasek will hold new H Shares in CEA representing approximately 15.7% and 8.3% of the total enlarged share capital of CEA respectively.

In connection with the share subscriptions by SIA and Temasek, CEA Holding will, at the subscription price of HK$3.80 per share, subscribe in cash for 1,100,418,000 new H Shares in CEA. Immediately after completion of the Proposed Share Subscriptions, CEA Holding will hold new H Shares which together with the A Shares it already holds will represent in aggregate approximately 51% of the total enlarged share capital of CEA.

The subscription price of HK$3.80 per share represents a premium of 1.9% as compared to the closing price on 21 May 2007. The new H Shares subscribed for by each of SIA, Temasek and CEA Holding represent respectively 25.4%, 13.3% and 22.6% of the current total issued share capital of CEA. Completion of the share subscription by each of SIA, Temasek and CEA Holding is inter-conditional and will take place simultaneously. The board of directors of CEA does not currently have any general mandate (granted by shareholders) to issue new shares. Thus, it is anticipated that specific shareholders approvals will have to be obtained by CEA for the issue of the new H Shares under the Proposed Share Subscriptions.

The new H Shares issued to SIA, Temasek and CEA Holding pursuant to the Proposed Share Subscriptions will not be transferred within three years after the date of completion of the Proposed Share Subscriptions. However, during the three-year period, Temasek may, if permitted by applicable laws and regulations, transfer its H Shares to SIA.

II. AGREEMENTS CONTEMPLATED AND KEY TERMS

CEA, SIA and Temasek will endeavour to agree on the detailed terms of the share subscription agreement(s) within two months after the date of the Heads of Agreements. Such period may be extended by agreement of the parties. At the same time when CEA, SIA and Temasek enter into the share subscription agreement(s), CEA Holding will enter into a share subscription agreement with CEA. It is also expected that CEA Holding, SIA and Temasek will enter into a shareholders agreement which sets forth the key terms and conditions of strategic partnership between CEA Holding, SIA and Temasek with respect to CEA. CEA and SIA will also enter into (1) a cooperation agreement which sets forth the key areas of strategic alliance and cooperation between CEA and SIA, and (2) a personnel secondment agreement.

Completion of the share subscriptions by SIA and Temasek are expected to be subject to a number of conditions precedent including the obtaining of all applicable government approvals, regulatory approvals and shareholders approvals.

The shareholders agreement, or where appropriate the share subscription agreement(s), are expected to contain the following key terms:

Board representation

SIA will have the right to nominate two persons as directors of CEA. Such number of persons will change proportionally if the shareholding of SIA in CEA changes. Temasek will have the right to nominate one person as a director of CEA so long as Temasek holds not less than 5% of the total registered share capital of CEA.

Executive appointments

Each of SIA and CEA Holding will have the right to nominate personnel for certain executive positions at CEA. In addition, SIA will have consent right to the nomination of key executive positions of CEA.

Key strategic and financial decisions

Minority shareholder protection mechanism for SIA in respect of certain major corporate actions of CEA will be established.

Alliance

Whether or not CEA joins a global alliance that competes with the global alliance that SIA is in will be discussed and jointly decided by CEA and SIA.

Competition

CEA and CEA Holding undertake not to issue or sell their shares to SIA's competitors. SIA undertakes that, from the date of the share subscription agreement and as long as the cooperation agreement between CEA and SIA has not been terminated, SIA will not make any new investments in another PRC-based airline company which by itself or through its subsidiaries holds an Air Operator's Certificate issued by the PRC government, where SIA does not already have any interest.

Finance committee

If permitted by applicable laws and listing rules, a finance committee comprising members from SIA, CEA and other persons elected by the board of directors of CEA will be established by the board of directors of CEA.

Anti-dilution

If permitted by applicable laws and regulatory authorities, CEA and CEA Holding will grant SIA the right to subscribe for new shares in proportion to SIA's shareholding in the event of a private or public placement of CEA shares.

Increase in shareholding percentage

SIA will have the right to increase its shareholding percentage when PRC foreign ownership restriction laws are relaxed.

Right to first refusal over CEA shares

If permitted by applicable laws and regulatory authorities, SIA will have the right of first refusal over any CEA shares to be sold by CEA Holding. CEA Holding will have the right of first refusal over any CEA shares to be sold by SIA.

As regards the term about "Anti-dilution" above, CEA will endeavour to ensure CEA's compliance with applicable listing rules at the time of further subscriptions by SIA for new CEA shares, and CEA will seek to make this point clear in the definitive legally binding agreements to be entered into.

Investors should note that the detailed terms regarding the Proposed Share Subscriptions and the proposed strategic cooperation (which are to be reflected in share subscription agreements, a shareholders agreement, a cooperation agreement and a personnel secondment agreement) have yet to be finalized and agreed on. Further, even if and when the detailed terms have been agreed on, completion of the Proposed Share Subscriptions and the proposed strategic cooperation will be subject to the obtaining of all applicable government approvals, regulatory approvals and shareholders approvals and other conditions precedent. Accordingly, there is uncertainty as to whether the Proposed Share Subscriptions and the proposed strategic cooperation will indeed materialize. Investors are advised to exercise caution when dealing in the shares of CEA.

Further announcements will be made by CEA if and when the detailed terms of the Proposed Share Subscriptions and the proposed strategic cooperation have been agreed on and definitive legally binding agreements have been signed.

At the request of CEA, trading in the H Shares of CEA on the Stock Exchange was suspended with effect from 9:47 a.m. on 22 May 2007. CEA has made an application to the Stock Exchange for the resumption of trading in its shares on the Stock Exchange with effect from 9:30 a.m. on 3 September 2007.

In relation to the proposed strategic investment in CEA, Goldman Sachs (Asia) L.L.C. has been appointed by CEA as its financial adviser, and UBS AG, acting through its business group, UBS Investment Bank, has been appointed by SIA as its financial adviser.
