Section 5 – Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers: Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers

(c) On March 23, 2009, the Board appointed Robert B. McIntosh as Chief Operating Officer of American Petro-Hunter Inc. (the “Company”).

Mr. McIntosh has been a businessman and consulting geologist for the past 25 years. He offers experience both as a resource exploration geoscientist alongside noteworthy strengths in all facets of corporate development. Since 1983 his career has taken him across the Americas and abroad where he has been instrumental in the design, implementation, execution and management of programs in the oil, gas, precious and base metals segments of the resource sector. His skills encompass virtually every aspect of oil & gas exploration, well completion and production techniques alongside a diverse experience in project acquisition, negotiations, contracts, and project divestitures within the petroleum industry. He has developed significant expertise and industry contacts in his various roles across the publicly traded market sector as well as with private junior E&P companies. Mr. McIntosh has successfully assisted his clients and stakeholders in the U.S.A. and Canada on projects that ultimately became producing properties where he has contributed in full field exploitation programs with additional traditional and secondary forms of drilling and completions, along with ongoing well site supervision aimed at fully optimizing the overall asset.

Mr. McIntosh has not previously held any positions with the Company and there have been no related party transactions between Mr. McIntosh and the Company. Mr. McIntosh has no family relationships with any director or executive officer of the Company, or persons nominated or chosen by the Company to become directors or executive officers.

In connection with Mr. McIntosh’s appointment, Mr. McIntosh and the Company entered into a one-year Management and Governance Consultant Agreement where Mr. McIntosh will provide services to the Company relating to corporate management including day-to-day operations, marketing and investor relation services for compensation of $15,000 per month subject to certain deferred provisions. The agreement is terminable at any time upon 30 days prior notice.

(d) On March 23, 2009, the Board appointed Mr. McIntosh as a new member of the Board of Directors of the Company. Mr. McIntosh is expected to be appointed to one or more committees of the Board at future meetings, but currently serves on no committee. For more information, please refer to (c) above.
