PART III
NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2009 cannot be filed within the prescribed time period because the Company requires additional time for compilation and review to insure adequate disclosure of certain information required to be included in the Form 10-Q.

The company's quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended March 31, 2009 will be filed on or before the 5th Calendar day following the prescribed due date.

(Name)	(Area Code)	(Telephone Number)

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes x No o

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes x No o

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Patient Safety Technologies, Inc. anticipates that its revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2009 will increase to approximately $936 thousand as compared to $500 thousand for the three months ended March 31, 2008. The increase in revenue is the result of an increase in sales of the Company's Safety-Sponge TM system during the 2009 period. The Company anticipates that its operating expenses will increase to approximately $2.0 million for the three months ended March 31, 2009 as compared to $1.5 million for the three months ended March 31, 2008, primarily as a result of increases in salary and travel expenses relating to the sale of our product, severance payments made to our former executive officers and an increase in costs related to being a public company. The net loss for the three months ended March 31, 2009 is anticipated to be $3.6 million as compared to $1.6 million for the three months ended March 31, 2008.

Results for the three months ended March 31, 2009 remain subject to further adjustment, and actual results may differ from the foregoing estimates.
