RECORD DATE AND VOTING RIGHTS

We are currently authorized to issue up to 100,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share and 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock, no par value.

As of February 22, 2012, there were 37,239,536 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding. Each share of Common Stock shall be entitled to one (1) vote on all matters submitted for stockholder approval. No shares of preferred stock are outstanding. The record date for determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting is February 22, 2012.

Pursuant to our Bylaws, as amended, a majority of the shares entitled to vote, which includes the voting power that is present in person or by proxy, regardless of whether the proxy has authority to vote on all matters, constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business; and action by the stockholders on a matter other than the election of directors and amendment to the Articles is approved if the number of votes cast in favor of the action exceeds the number of votes cast in opposition to the action.

Abstentions and broker non-votes that indicate a vote for one or more of the proposals will be included in the calculation of the number of shares considered to be present at the meeting for quorum purposes. For the election of directors, the nominees for director shall be elected by a vote of a majority of shares present or represented and entitled to vote at the meeting. A vote of majority of quorum is required to approve Proposals No. 1 and No. 2.

An abstention is the voluntary act of not voting by a stockholder who is present at a meeting and entitled to vote. Abstentions will have no effect on the election of the director nominees but will be counted as votes against the ratification of the appointment of Windes & McClaughry Accountancy Corporation.

A broker “non-vote” occurs when a broker nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary power for that particular item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner. Brokers that hold shares of our common stock in “street” name for customers that are the beneficial owners of those shares may not give a proxy to vote those shares on certain non routine matters without specific instructions from those customers. Of the proposals contained herein, Proposal 1 is considered a non routine matter. Therefore, brokers that do not receive instructions are not entitled to vote on the election of directors. Should a broker non-vote occur, it will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on any of the proposals. Proposal 2 is considered routine matter. Therefore, brokers that do not receive instructions are entitled to vote on the ratification of the appointment of our independent registered public accounting firm.
