Notes:

1. CORPORATE INFORMATION

China Eastern Airlines Corporation Limited (the “Company”), a joint stock company limited by shares, was incorporated in the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC”) on 14 April 1995. The address of the Company’s registered office is 66 Airport Street, Pudong International Airport, Shanghai, the PRC. The Company and its subsidiaries (together, the “Group”) are principally engaged in the operation of civil aviation, including the provision of passenger, cargo, mail delivery, tour operations and other extended transportation services.

The Company is majority owned by China Eastern Air Holding Company (“CEA Holding”), a state-owned enterprise incorporated in the PRC.

The Company’s shares are traded on the Shanghai Stock Exchange, The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and The New York Stock Exchange.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION

The financial statements of the Group have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) as issued by the International Accounting Standard Board and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of available-for-sale financial assets and financial assets and financial liabilities (including derivative instruments) at fair value through profit or loss.

As at 31 December 2013, the Group’s accumulated losses were approximately RMB2.59 billion and its current liabilities exceeded its current assets by approximately RMB40.47 billion. In preparing the financial statements, the Board conducts adequate and detailed review over the Group’s going concern ability based on the current financial situation.

The Board has taken active actions to deal with the situation that current liabilities exceeded its current assets, and the Board is confident that they have obtained adequate credit facility from the banks to support the floating capital. As at 31 December 2013, the Group had total unutilised credit facility amounting approximately to RMB37.60 billion from banks.

Based on the bank facility obtained by the Group, the past record of the financing and the good working relationship with major banks and financial institutions, the Board considers that the Group will be able to obtain sufficient financing to enable it to operate, as well as to meet its liabilities as and when they become due, and the capital expenditure requirements for the upcoming twelve months. Accordingly, the Board believes that it is appropriate to prepare these financial statements on a going concern basis without including any adjustments that would be required should the Company and the Group fail to continue as a going concern.

3. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Except as described in note 3(i) below, the accounting policies applied are consistent with those of the annual financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2012, as described in these annual financial statements.

(i) New and amended standards adopted by the Group

Other than as further explained below regarding the impact of amendments to IAS 1 and IAS 19 (2011), and certain amendments included in Annual Improvements 2009-2011 Cycle (include other standards as appropriate), the adoption of the new and revised IFRSs has had no significant financial effect on these financial statements.

The IAS 1 Amendments change the grouping of items presented in other comprehensive income (“OCI”). Items that could be reclassified (or recycled) to profit or loss at a future point in time (for example, exchange differences on translation of foreign operations, net movement on cash flow hedges and net loss or gain on available-for-sale financial assets) are presented separately from items which will never be reclassified (for example, the revaluation of land and buildings). The amendments have affected the presentation only and have had no impact on the financial position or performance of the Group. The consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income has been restated to reflect the changes.

IAS 19 (2011) changes the accounting for defined benefit plans. The revised standard removes the choice to defer the recognition of actuarial gains and losses. All actuarial gains and losses are required to be recognised immediately in OCI. The interest cost and expected return on plan assets used in the previous version of IAS 19 are replaced with a net interest amount under IAS 19 (2011), which is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net defined benefit liability or asset at the start of each annual reporting period. Prior to the adoption of IAS 19 (2011), the Group elected to recognise actuarial gains or losses as income or expense over the expected average remaining service periods of the employees participating in the defined benefit plan when the net cumulative unrecognised actuarial gains or losses for the plan at the end of the previous period exceeded 10% of the higher of the present value of the defined benefit obligation and the fair value of plan assets at that date. Upon the adoption of IAS 19 (2011), all actuarial gains and losses are recognised in OCI immediately. As a result, all deferred actuarial gains and losses as at 1 January 2012 and 31 December 2012 were recognised in OCI and the actuarial gains and losses recognised in the profit or loss for the year ended 31 December 2012 was adjusted to OCI. In addition, the interest cost and expected return on plan assets recorded in 2012 has been replaced by a net interest amount.

Furthermore, upon the adoption of IAS 19 (2011), all past service costs are recognised at the earlier of when an amendment/curtailment occurs and when the related restructuring or termination costs are recognised. As a result, unvested past service costs can no longer be deferred and recognised over the future vesting period.

Other than the changes to the accounting for defined benefit plans, IAS 19 (2011) also changes the timing of recognition for termination benefits and the classification of short term employee benefits. The revised standard requires termination benefits outside of a wider restructuring to be recognised only when the offer becomes legally binding and cannot be withdrawn. Under the revised standard, the distinction between short term and other long term employee benefits is now based on the expected timing of settlement rather than employee entitlement.

Notes:

Before 1 January 2012, the major elements of the Group's revenues were subject to business tax levied at rates of 3% or 5%. The Group's revenues from the provision of international transportation services are exempted from business tax from 1 January 2010, pursuant to the notice of exemption of business tax on the provision of international transportation services (Cai Shui [2010] No. 8) jointly issued by the Ministry of Finance ("MoF") and the State Administration of Taxation ("SAT").

Pursuant to the notice of the pilot programme for the transformation of transportation and certain modern service industries in Shanghai from business tax (“BT”) to Value Added Tax (“VAT”) (Cai Shui [2011] No. 111) issued by MoF and SAT, traffic revenue of the Company and subsidiaries located in Shanghai and other revenues (including ground service income, cargo handling income, commission income and part of others) generated in Shanghai are subjected to VAT levied at rates of 11% or 6% from 1 January 2012, instead of BT.

Pursuant to the notice of the pilot programme for the transformation of transportation and certain modern service industries from BT to VAT in Beijing and other eight provinces/cities (Cai Shui [2012] No.71) issued by MoF and SAT, traffic revenue and other revenues (including ground service income, cargo handling income, commission income and part of others) generated by subsidiaries located in Beijing and other eight provinces/cities scoped in the notice are subjected to VAT levied at rates of 11% or 6% with different effective date ranging from 1 September 2012 to 1 December 2012.

Pursuant to the notice of the pilot programme for the transformation of transportation and certain modern service industries from BT to VAT in all locations of China (Cai Shui [2013] No.37) issued by MoF and SAT, traffic revenue and other revenues (including ground service income, cargo handling income, commission income and part of others) generated by all provinces/cities of China are subjected to VAT levied at rates of 11% or 6% from 1 August 2013, instead of BT.

5 SEGMENT INFORMATION

- (a) CODM, office of the General Manager, reviews the Group’s internal reporting in order to assess performance and allocate resources.

The Group has one reportable operating segment, reported as “airline transportation operations”, which comprises the provision of passenger, cargo, mail delivery, ground service and cargo handling income.

Other services including primarily tour operations, air catering and other miscellaneous services are not included within the airline transportation operations segment, as their internal reports are separately provided to the CODM. The results of these operations are included in the “other segments” column.

Inter-segment transactions are entered into under normal commercial terms and conditions that would be available to unrelated third parties.

In accordance with IFRS 8, segment disclosure has been presented in a manner that is consistent with the information used by the Group’s CODM. The Group’s CODM monitors the results, assets and liabilities attributable to each reportable segment based on financial results prepared under the PRC Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises (the “PRC Accounting Standards”), which differ from IFRS in certain aspects. The amount of each material reconciling items from the Group’s reportable segment revenue and profit or loss, arising from different accounting policies are set out in Note 5(c) below.

The segment results for the year ended 31 December 2013 were as follows:

(b) The Group's business operate in three main geographical areas, even though they are managed on a worldwide basis.

The Group's revenues by geographical areas are analysed based on the following criteria:

1) Traffic revenue from services within the PRC (excluding the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (“Hong Kong”), Macau Special Administrative Region (“Macau”) and Taiwan, (collectively known as “Regional”)) is classified as domestic operations. Traffic revenue from inbound and outbound services between overseas markets excluding Regional is classified as international operations.

2) Revenue from ticket handling services, ground services, cargo handling service and other miscellaneous services are classified on the basis of where the services are performed.

	Group 2013 RMB'000	2012 RMB'000
Domestic (the PRC, excluding Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan)	59,563,056	57,296,742
Regional (Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan)	3,910,530	3,704,064
International	24,771,414	24,252,511

Total	88,245,000	85,253,317

The major revenue-earning assets of the Group are its aircraft, all of which are registered in the PRC. Since the Group's aircraft are deployed flexibly across its route network, there is no suitable basis of allocating such assets and the related liabilities by geographic areas and hence segment non-current assets and capital expenditure by geographic areas are not presented. Except the aircraft, most non-current assets (except financial instruments) are registered in the PRC.

REPORT OF THE BOARD

Business Overview

In 2013, the world's developed countries' economies recovered slowly while the growth of emerging economies shrank rapidly and fuel price remained high. The economic growth of China had sustained but in a declining rate. The demand of domestic high-end business customers dropped. The rapid growth of domestic civil aviation flight capacity has intensified market competition. The Group proactively responded to the tough economic environment. On a pre-condition that safety could be stable and under control, we continuously optimized our fleet structure, timely adjusted our routes and flight capacity allocation, strengthened our marketing, improved service quality and developed pushed forward information technology construction and business transformation. In 2013, the Group recorded operating revenue of RMB88,245 million, representing an increase of 3.51% from the same period last year. Net profit attributable to the Company was RMB2,373 million, representing a decrease of 22.76% from the same period last year.

In 2013, the Group adjusted its flight capacity allocation in a timely manner and maintained refine pricing and cabin space management according to changes in market demand, so as to sustain a steady growth in passenger transportation business. In respect of our domestic business, with the enhanced constructions of Shanghai core hub, as well as Kunming and Xi'an regional hubs, we continued to optimize route network and flight schedule. In respect of our regional (Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan) business, we maintained our competitiveness and influence of routes in Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan region through increasing the frequency of flights and optimization of aircraft models. In respect of our international business, we flexibly adjusted the flight capacity allocated to routes to Japan according to changes in Chinese and Japanese markets. At the same time, we seized the opportunity of the rapid growth in the number of outbound passengers and increase the flight capacity routes to North American, European, Korean and Southeast Asian etc.. In 2013, the Group has put in available seat – kilometres (ASK) of 152,075.22 million passenger-kilometres, representing an increase of 11.23% from the same period last year. Number of passengers carried in 2013 was 79.0937 million, representing an increase of 8.23% from the same period last year. Passenger load factor in 2013 was 79.21%, representing a decrease of 0.60 percentage point from the same period last year. Passenger revenue in 2013 amounted to RMB72,928 million, representing an increase of 2.11% from the same period last year.

In 2013, the Group accounted for 48.7%, 37.7%, 44.4% and 31.3% of the total market share at Shanghai Hongqiao International Airport, Shanghai Pudong International Airport, Kunming Airport and Xi'an Airport, respectively, in terms of total flight departures and arrivals, and accounted for 47.4%, 35.4%, 41.2% and 31.5% of the total market share at Shanghai Hongqiao International Airport, Shanghai Pudong International Airport, Kunming Airport and Xi'an Airport, respectively, in terms of passenger throughput. The Group maintained relatively strong influence in its core markets such as Shanghai, Kunming and Xi'an.

Global aviation freight transportation industry was still at the trough stage in 2013. Some of the domestic express delivery corporations started to enter into the aviation freight transportation industry. Therefore, market competition was intensified and the Group was facing more difficulties in operating its freight transportation business. The Group adapted to the changes in market demand by reducing its size of freight fleet and optimizing its route network, proactively engaging in its business transformation and developing value-added services such as logistics integration and express delivery, etc.. In 2013, available freight tonne – kilometres (AFTK) of the Group was 8,028.01 million tonne – kilometres, representing an increase of 8.25% from the same period last year. Weight of freight carried in 2013 was 1,410.29 million kilogrammes, representing a decrease of 0.44% from the same period last year. Freight load factor in 2013 was 60.50%, representing a decrease of 2.89 percentage points from the same period last year. Freight traffic revenue in 2013 was RMB7,603 million, representing a decrease of 5.26% from the same period last year.

Review of Operations

Safe Operation

The Group puts great emphasis on safety management and strictly implements safety responsibility. We have set a safety management warning line to strengthen the safety awareness of our operation staff. The Group also continues to strengthen its construction of the SMS (Safety Management System) and enhances its risk management ability. A research institute of flight safety technology application was established to improve the analysis work of safety information and scientific management. In 2013, the Group had 1.5404 million of safe hours flown which increased by 9.67% from the same period last year.

Fleet Structure

In 2013, the Group introduced 58 new aircraft, including A330 Series for long-and-medium haul, A320 Series for medium-and-short haul and B737NG. It surrendered 9 aircraft, 4 of which were passenger aircraft of A320, B737-700 and B757-200 models; 5 of which were freighters of MD-11 and A300-600R models.

As at 31 December 2013, the Group operated a fleet of 478 aircraft, which included 451 passenger aircraft, 14 freighters and 13 business aircraft held in custody.

Hub Development

The Group strived to further expand the influence of its hub network by sustainably strengthening the development of its core hub in Shanghai and regional hubs in Kunming and Xi'an and it maintained relatively strong influence in core markets such as Shanghai, Kunming and Xi'an as a result. By increasing the frequency of flights for express routes and quasi-express routes such as Shanghai to Kunming, Xiamen and Dalian, and international routes such as Shanghai to Paris, Vancouver and Hawaii, etc., as well as introducing new international flight destinations such as San Francisco and Manila, the influence of the Company in Shanghai hub market was further enhanced. The Group's flight system at Shanghai Pudong hub was further optimized and the transit connection opportunities of the Group's flights at Shanghai Pudong Airport was increased accordingly. Meanwhile, the transit assurance ability of the Group in Shanghai Pudong Airport increased sustainably. The MCT of the international-domestic transit was reduced to 90 minutes. Direct tagging of luggage at the same airport in Shanghai for transit passengers and cross-terminal interline transit between the two terminals at Pudong Airport are available. In addition, 24-hour immigration procedures- free direct transits between international flights is attained.

Leveraging on opportunities arising from the release of time slots at the new Kunming airport, the Group allocated more flight capacities by increasing the frequency of flights for international routes from Kunming to Vientiane, Dhaka and Chiang Mai, promoting flying to "South Asia, Southeast Asia and West Asia", providing full coverage over routes from Kunming to other provincial capitals in the PRC, as well as increasing the frequency and optimizing the morning and night flight system of the Group's flights going to Kunming.

The Group adjusted the flight plan of Xi'an hub according to its seasonal features by focusing on the development of plateau routes, introducing new route from Xi'an to Lijiang and increasing the frequency of flights for routes from Xi'an to Lhasa and Jiuzhaigou.

Passenger Transportation Marketing

By strengthening its centralized control on pricing, the Group enhanced its marketing management ability. We tracked market sales situation and analyzed marketing data in time to adjust transportation price. We also expanded our marketing channels continuously through development and enhancement of different marketing products. For example, we promoted sale products such as cabin upgrade on ground, packages, etc., developed ground connection services such as Air-Rail Service and Air-Bus Service and cooperated with Disney, brand hotel groups, and renowned international travel enterprises to develop travel products. In the meantime, the Group emphasized on the development and maintenance of customer resources to explore customer value intensively. As at the end of 2013, the Group's total number of group customers has reached 4,989 and the proportion of income from group customers increased by 5.4 percentage points from the same period last year. The number of our frequent flyer members reached 20.83 million and their number of second flights increased by 3.3 percentage points from the same period last year. Direct sales income increased by 2.8 percentage points as we increasingly promoted direct sales.

Alliance and Cooperation

By proactively utilising the SkyTeam Alliance platform and route network of SkyTeam member airlines, the Group was able to expand its route network to 1,024 destinations in 178 countries around the world. The Group has also commenced code-sharing operations with 11 SkyTeam member airlines, covering 242 routes. In addition, the Group sustainably commenced intensive cooperation with SkyTeam members in projects of the alliance such as Sky Priority, Sky Hub and Sky Port. It also commenced extensive and intensive cooperation with crucial SkyTeam members such as Air France – KLM Group, Delta Airlines, China Southern Airlines, Xiamen Airlines and China Airlines from Taiwan to continuously promote brand image of the Company and the alliance. In the meantime, the Group also started its code-sharing cooperation with 7 non-SkyTeam member airlines, covering more than 150 routes, including Japan Airlines Corporation and Qantas Airways Limited (“Qantas”).

China Cargo Airlines Co., Ltd. (“China Cargo”) Airlines officially joined the SkyTeam Freight Alliance on 5 June 2013 and is proactively participating in the cooperation of the alliance.

Freight Transportation and Logistics

In response to the deteriorating aviation freight transportation market condition, the Group adopted measures such as surrendering and suspending freights, as well as reducing freight fleet scale significantly. We also adjusted our route network in order to stabilize our share in core markets. We fully pushed forward our transformation by developing value-added businesses such as logistics and freight expressway e-commerce. In respect of logistics business, the Group established six major logistics project teams for areas such as large- scale corporate projects, medical biotechnology and aviation equipment based on product positioning. We visited major customers to proactively explore demand for logistics. The development of brand customers and direct selling of major client cooperation projects provided logistics solutions to large and medium enterprises. In respect of freight expressway e-commerce, the commencement of eairmail.com official website can utilize the advantages in network and centralized purchasing of Eastern Airlines. Combining with its freight expressway delivery network, Eastern Airlines is able to provide fresh and direct supply of “from the origins to dining table”. (Shanghai Eastern Airlines Express Delivery Company) officially commenced its operation in Shanghai Free Trade Zone and developed its businesses such as cross-border e-commerce.

Transformation and Development

The Group made strenuous effort in pushing forward its transformation from an air passenger and freight carrier to an integrated aviation services and logistics services provider. For the passenger transportation, the Company focused on enhancing customer value. Based on new technologies such as big data and mobile interconnection, the Company intensively developed e-commerce, explored accurate marketing and proactively conducted the online floating market project. For cargo logistics, the Company focused on combining the air and ground logistics services as well as a full flow e-commerce model, with eaemall.com as the platform.

- 26 -

Conforming to the global trend of rapid development in low-cost airlines, the Group is proactively researching and exploring the mode of operation of low-cost airlines. Jetstar Hong Kong Limited (“Jetstar Hong Kong”), the proposed low-cost airline company jointly established by the Company, Shun Tak Holdings Limited (“Shun Tak Holdings”) from Hong Kong and Qantas, is currently in the process of applying for an aviation services license.

Service Quality

Adhering to the philosophy of “Customer-Oriented and Dedicated Service”, the Group sustainably optimized its service processes and enhanced its service quality. The Group accelerated the promotion of self-services. The self-service rate of domestic routes was approximately 30% and express self-service check-in rate reached 40.45% which is leading in self-service check-in rate in respect of domestic civil aviation. The Group completed the change of uniform for both flight and ground frontline staff to create a brand new service image. Through implementation of brand service projects such as “LingYan Crew Ten, Hundred and Thousand ()”, we established a service model and comprehensively promoted service standard. Customer experience has also been enhanced by constructing self-operated VIP rooms of identical standard at major airports, improving styles and quality of aircraft offerings and providing portable entertainment devices with electronic meal ordering service in two cabins.

Information Technology

The Group was dedicated in establishing an “Informationized Eastern Airlines”. It took a proactive approach towards information technology development to utilize the supportive and leading purposes of information technology. The new version of the Group’s official website was launched in 2013. The Company established a mobile marketing and service platform through channels such as M website, mobile E, WeChat, Yixin and SMS with a view to provide passengers with 24/7 travel information service. The commencement of unusual flight information management platform has made effective remedial service available in the event of unusual flight. The establishment of logistics e-commerce platform has driven the transformation of cargo business. The Group provided its staff with mobile terminal application software which achieved office mobilization and establishment of working platforms such as operation website, flight website and joint office. The efficiency of the Company’s operation has been effectively improved accordingly.

Cost Control

The Group has been proactively promoting the principle of “reducing cost while enhancing efficiency” and strictly controlled the expenses of all costs and fees. The Group has also managed its budget well by implementing analogous accounting. Adjustment of personnel structure and strict control on recruitment of staff improved salary cost management. Optimization of fleet and routes reduced aviation fuel consumption and expenditures on aircraft fuel.

Stricter engine maintenance management reduced aircraft maintenance costs. The Group also diversified its financing channels, optimized the liability structure and reduced financial costs. In 2013, the Company completed the non-public issue of Shares to China Eastern Air Holding Company (“CEA Holding”) and its subsidiaries and raised gross proceeds of approximately RMB3,582 million; it also issued RMB4.8 billion of PRC corporate bonds, RMB2.2 billion of offshore RMB denominated bonds and RMB4 billion of PRC super short-term commercial paper at relatively low costs.

Social Responsibilities

The social responsibility concept of the Company is “cherished by staff, preferred by customers, satisfactory to shareholders and trusted by society”. Scope of the Company’s social responsibilities covers three main aspects which are economic responsibility, social responsibility and environmental responsibility. We are committed to guiding and innovating the Company’s work with a scientific sense of social responsibility. Based on integrity and not to regard profit as the only aim, the Company has adhered to its business conduct to be responsible to society, protect the environment, care for our staff and make sustainable development so as to achieve operation as a going concern.

Responsibilities to Staff

Caring for our staff is a crucial factor of building up a “Happy Eastern Airlines” and the passion of staff comes first when establishing a “world class” corporation. Eastern Airlines has been dedicated to being human-oriented, maintaining staff benefit, responding to staff’s concerns, respecting staff’s contributions and talents, valuing staff’s opinions and suggestions and treasuring staff’s passion and creativity. We also provide fair and justice benefits and opportunities to every staff with an aim to establish a home which our staff love.

Responsibilities to Customers

Eastern Airlines proactively follows the trend of internet generation to provide customers with safe, comfortable and convenient aviation services, as well as accurate, exquisite, refined and wonderful personalised services in order to satisfy consumption demand of customers, improve customer psychological experience, exceed customers’ expectation, gain trust and loyalty from customers, be an airlines with emotions and become the first choice of customers. We will strive to promote the brand’s core value of “World Class Hospitality with Eastern Charms”.

Responsibilities to Shareholders

Eastern Airlines has adhered to regulated and strict corporate governance, operated in compliance with laws and regulations, maintained investor relations, improved investor communication and proactively responded to important issues which investors are concerned about. Since 2009, the Company has recorded profit consecutively. Our capital operation has been stable, capital quality has been improving and brand image has also been promoted comprehensively.

Responsibilities to Society

Eastern Airlines has always adhered to the development concept of emphasizing on both economic benefits and social benefits to achieve sustainable development. Application of new technology is promoted and the management method is innovated. In addition, we implemented low-carbon flight, optimized energy management, promoted environmental protection, cared about social well-being and put efforts into public welfare with an aim to pursue collective development and improvement of the Company and the society.

– 28 –

• Low-Carbon Flight

The Group promotes low-carbon flight and explores the potential of energy-saving. It eliminated and surrendered the lease of older aircraft and introduced new, more fuel-efficient aircraft. Highly efficient new engines were also selectively installed. Continuous optimization of fleet structure enhanced the environmental performance of fleet. Energy-saving and emission reduction were facilitated by installing small wings and refitting energy-saving environmentally friendly engines. Aircraft supplies made of green and environmentally-friendly materials have been used to promote green, low- carbon and healthy aviation.

The Group has proactively developed, applied and promoted new technologies to provide safe and low-carbon aviation protection. Application of EFB can realize electronization of aircraft information, thereby reducing printing of paper manuals as well as costs of fuel-consumption and human resources. Adoption of ADS-B reduces the workload of flight crew and fuel consumption, thereby promoting flight safety. Implementation of PBN may increase airspace capacities, decrease input of ground navigation facilities, decrease fuel consumption and promote energy-saving and emission reduction.

• Environmental Protection

The Group puts great emphasis on environmental protection. It strictly processes electronic hazardous wastes and industrial wastes and standardizes the procedures of processing wastes. The Group also created a brilliant office environment. The landscaping ratio of offices in Hongqiao Airport and Pudong Airport reached 40.5% and 31.2% respectively and we gained the recognition of being a “garden unit in Shanghai” again. Information technology management systems such as joint office system and mobile office system were established to advocate the concept of a paperless office. The energy consumption at office is also reduced by reducing the number of conferences and promotion of video conferencing. In addition, the Group promotes a green and low-carbon style, as well as energy-saving and ecological civilization by continuous recycling and discard of old office equipment.

• Community Charity

The Group proactively supports and participates in social charitable events. We have continuously participated in supporting poverty relief activities in Shuangjiang and Cangyuan in Yunnan Province for over ten years. In 2013, the Group launched various activities, including the activity assisting the construction of Cangyuan Airport, investment in the establishment of CEA Demonstration Village, selection of talented individuals for secondment to assist the local poverty relief activities, and the construction of Hope School.

In 2013, the Group fully supported the relief work following the Richter scale 7.0 earthquake in Ya'an, Sichuan Province and the Richter scale 6.6 earthquake in Dingxi, Gansu Province. We deployed a number of passenger aircraft and freights to support the relief work, achieved the transportation of staff and materials, guaranteed the priority of relief flights and donated to the earthquake areas. The Group also proactively participated in relief work following the wind damage in Manila and the landslide in Zhaotong.

In addition, the Group fully promoted the large-scale voluntary service campaign called "Love at China Eastern Airlines". We organized and launched a series of community charity activities such as airport lounge guide tours and provision of education subsidies. In 2013, 876 projects were launched with 51,983 staff members participated, serving a total of 48,909 people. Through the interaction with the community, the Group has established a charity brand image of "delivering love and serving the community".

Awards and Recognition

The Group is committed to works relating to brand image management, communications and promotion as well as brand enhancement. After years at effort, the Group through its continued efforts has established a premium brand image in the market and received various major awards: in 2013, the Company was honored as the National 1 May Award Certificate (); one of the 2013 Top 10 Companies with the Best Corporate Social Responsibility () by Fortune China Magazine; awarded "Best Mid-cap Company" by Hong Kong Asiamoney Magazine for the second consecutive year; recognized as "Top 50 Most Valuable Chinese Brands in 2013" by WPP, a global brand communication and public relations firm; awarded the "Golden Bauhinia Award" of the "Best Listed Company" and "Listed Company with the Best Investor's Relations Management" by Ta Kung Pao; honored as one of the "Top 100 Employers" by zhaopin.com. The Group's international brand of "World-class Hospitality with Eastern Charm" is gaining increasing public recognition.

Operating Revenues

In 2013, there was an increase in the Group's passenger revenues, which amounted to RMB72,928 million, representing an increase of 2.11% from the previous year, and accounting for 90.56% of the Group's traffic revenues in 2013. Passenger traffic volume was 120,461.13 million passenger-kilometres, representing a 10.40% increase from the previous year.

The passenger traffic volume of the Group's domestic routes was 82,811.97 million passenger-kilometres, representing an increase of 8.74% from the previous year. Compared to 2012, domestic passenger revenues increased by 0.83% to RMB50,556 million, accounting for 69.32% of the Group's passenger revenues.

The passenger traffic volume of the Group's international routes was 33,600.01 million passenger-kilometres, representing a 15.44 % increase from the previous year. Compared to 2012, international passenger revenues increased by 4.92% to RMB18,945 million, accounting for 25.98% of the Group's passenger revenues.

– 30 –

Gain on fair value movements of derivative financial instruments was RMB18 million, representing a decrease of 26.15% from previous year.

Depreciation and amortisation amounted to RMB8,226 million, representing an increase of 8.86% from last year, and was primarily due to the addition of new aircraft and engines, resulting in a greater base number for depreciation and amortisation.

Wages, salaries and benefits amounted to RMB13,454 million, representing an increase of 9.35% from last year, and was primarily due to an increase in number of staff and hours flown of pilots.

Aircraft maintenance expenses amounted to RMB4,690 million, representing an increase of 5.81% from last year, and was primarily due to an increase in the number of aircraft under repair.

Food and beverage expenses were RMB2,268 million, representing an increase of 11.66% from last year, and was primarily due to the increase in number of passengers.

Aircraft operating lease rentals amounted to RMB4,605 million, representing an increase of 3.77% from last year, and was primarily due to an increase in the number of aircraft held through operating leases in 2013.

Other operating lease rentals amounted to RMB679 million, representing an increase of 11.46% from last year, and was primarily due to an increase in the leases for warehouses and VIP lounges at airports.

Selling and marketing expenses were RMB4,139 million, representing an increase of 11.04% from last year, and was primarily due to increased handling fees of agency businesses and an increase in reservation fees resulting from the growth in the number of passengers.

The amount of civil aviation infrastructure levies payable to the Civil Aviation Administration of China (“CAAC”) was RMB1,566 million, representing an increase of 10.69% compared to last year. This increase was primarily due to an increase in miles flown by the Company in 2013.

Ground senses and other expenses were RMB5,105 million, representing an increase of 54.45% over the previous year, due to the increase in other charges arising from the acquisition of Eastern Travel by Shanghai Tours, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, in 2013.

Other operating expenses were RMB4,809 million, representing an increase of 20.13% compared to last year. This increase was primarily attributable to an increase in expenses following the expansion of fleet of the Company.

Other Operating Income

In 2013, other operating income of the Group amounted to RMB2,725 million, which is an increase of 48.70% from the same period last year, primarily due to an increase in operational routes subsidy.

Finance Income/Costs

In 2013, the Group's finance income was RMB2,124 million, which is an increase of 509.42% from RMB349 million of the same period last year, primarily due to the impact of fluctuations in RMB exchange rate. RMB substantially appreciated in 2013 while the exchange rate of RMB against USD had less fluctuations in 2012.

Finance costs amounted to RMB1,549 million, representing a decrease of 8.77% from last year, primarily due to a decrease in interest expenses arising from finance leases of aircraft.

- 32 -

Profit

As a result of the foregoing, the Group's profit attributable to the equity shareholders of the Company in 2013 was RMB2,373 million, representing a 22.76% decrease as compared to the Group's profit attributable to the equity shareholders of the Company of RMB3,072 million in 2012. The decrease is mainly due to factors such as a decrease in demand of domestic business customers, effects resulting from the formation of high-speed railway network, routes to Japan being affected by China-Japan relations, the decrease in the Company's yield at Yunnan market resulting from the release of time slots at the new Kunming Airport and the occurrence of avian flu (H7N9) which brought short-term effects to the Eastern China market, as well as reasons such as rigid increase in costs and expenses.

Liquidity and Capital Structure

The Group generally finances its working capital requirements through business operations and short-term bank loans. As at 31 December 2012 and 2013, the Group's cash and cash equivalents amounted to RMB2,512 million and RMB1,995 million, respectively. Net cash inflow generated from the Group's operating activities was RMB12,617 million and RMB10,806 million, respectively, for 2012 and 2013. Capital expenditures for the purchase of aircraft were partly funded by internal funds, the balance of which was mainly financed by long-term and short-term borrowings and finance leasing, etc.. In 2012 and 2013, the Group's net cash outflow from investment activities was RMB11,789 million and RMB17,028 million, respectively. In 2012, net cash outflow from the Group's financing activities was RMB2,174 million. In 2013, net cash inflow from the Group's financing activities was RMB5,730 million, which was primarily due to issue of corporate bonds and issue of shares in 2013.

The Group generally operates with net current liabilities. As at 31 December 2013, the Group's current liabilities exceeded its current assets by RMB40,472 million. The Group has been and believes it will continue to be capable of financing its working capital by obtaining loans from banks and various financing tools such as bonds.

The Group monitors its capital on the basis of its debt ratio, which is calculated as total liabilities divided by total assets. As at 31 December 2013, the debt ratio of the Group was 79.59%.

As at 31 December 2012 and 2013, the Group's borrowings payable within one year were RMB22,640 million and RMB23,285 million, respectively. As at 31 December 2012, the Group's borrowings payable from one to two years, from three to five years and beyond five years were RMB7,273 million, RMB7,906 million and RMB7,918 million, respectively, as compared to RMB6,606 million, RMB9,952 million and RMB10,758 million, respectively, as at 31 December 2013.

As at 31 December 2012, the Group's borrowings comprised USD-denominated borrowings of USD5,028 million and RMB-denominated borrowings of RMB13,827 million. Fixed-rate borrowings accounted for 22.91% of the total borrowings, and floating-rate borrowings accounted for 77.09% of the total borrowings. As at 31 December 2013, the Group's borrowings comprised USD-denominated borrowings of USD5,776 million and RMB-denominated borrowings of RMB15,386 million (including bonds and super short-term commercial papers). Fixed-rate borrowings accounted for 28.38% of the total borrowings, and floating-rate borrowings accounted for 71.62% of the total borrowings.

The Group's obligations under finance leases as at 31 December 2012 and 2013 were RMB21,858 million and RMB23,135 million, respectively. As at 31 December 2012, the Group's lease obligations payable within two years, from three to five years and beyond five years were RMB5,309 million, RMB7,925 million and RMB8,624 million, respectively, as compared to RMB5,945 million, RMB8,651 million and RMB8,539 million, respectively, as at 31 December 2013.

As at 31 December 2012, the Group's obligations under finance leases comprised USD-denominated obligations of USD2,983 million, SGD-denominated obligations of SGD245 million, HKD-denominated obligations of HKD1,468 million and JPY-denominated obligations of JPY9,136 million. As at 31 December 2013, the Group's obligations under finance leases comprised USD-denominated obligations of USD3,076 million, SGD-denominated obligations of SGD224 million, HKD-denominated obligations of HKD1,336 million and JPY-denominated obligations of JPY8,222 million. The Group's obligations under finance leases comprised only floating-rate obligations.

Interest Rate Fluctuation

The Group's total interest-bearing liabilities (including long-term and short-term borrowings, finance leases payable and bonds payable) as at 31 December 2012 and 2013 were RMB67,594 million and RMB73,736 million, respectively, of which short-term liabilities accounted for 37.35% and 35.62%, respectively, for those years. Most of the long-term interest-bearing liabilities were liabilities with floating interest rates. Both of the short-term liabilities and the long-term interest-bearing liabilities were affected by fluctuations in current market interest rates.

The Group's interest-bearing liabilities were primarily denominated in USD and RMB. As at 31 December 2012 and 2013, the Group's liabilities denominated in USD accounted for 74.5% and 75.61%, respectively, of total liabilities while liabilities denominated in RMB accounted for 20.46% and 20.87%, respectively, of total liabilities during those periods. Fluctuations in the USD and RMB interest rates have significantly impact on the Group's finance costs. As at 31 December 2012, the notional amount of the outstanding interest rate swap agreements was approximately USD929 million. As at 31 December 2013, such amount was USD844 million and these agreements will expire between 2014 and 2022.

Exchange Rate Fluctuation

As at 31 December 2013, the Group's total interest-bearing liabilities denominated in foreign currencies, converted to RMB, amounted to RMB58,349 million, of which USD liabilities accounted for 95.55% of the total amount. Therefore, a significant fluctuation in foreign exchange rates will subject the Group to significant foreign exchange loss/gain arising from the translation of foreign currency denominated liabilities, which will also affect the profitability and development of the Group. The Group typically uses hedging contracts for foreign currencies to reduce the foreign exchange risks for foreign currency revenue generated from ticket sales and expenses to be paid in foreign currencies. The Group's foreign currency hedging contracts mainly involve the sales of JPY and the purchase of USD at fixed exchange rates. As at 31 December 2012, foreign currency hedging contracts held by the Group amounted to a notional amount of USD58 million. Such amount was USD38 million as at 31 December 2013, and will expire between 2014 and 2017.

The Group recorded a significant increase in net foreign exchange gains in 2013. As at 31 December 2012 and 2013, the Group's foreign exchange gains were RMB148 million and RMB1,976 million, respectively.

Fluctuation of fuel prices

In 2013, assuming constant factors but excluding the effects of crude oil option contracts, if the average price of jet fuel had increased or decreased by 5%, jet fuel costs of the Group would have increased or decreased by approximately RMB1,534 million.

In 2013, the Group has not engaged in any aviation fuel hedging activities.

RISK ANALYSIS

1. Macro-economic Risk

Aviation transportation industry is closely related to domestic and international macro-economic atmosphere. Civil aviation transportation industry is more sensitive to macro-economic atmosphere which directly affects the development of economic activities, disposable income of residents and changes in amount of import and export. These factors will in turn affect the demand for air passengers and air cargo services. Therefore, if domestic or international macro-economic atmosphere worsens, operation results and financial position of the Group may be adversely affected.

2. Policy and Regulation Risk

Aviation transportation industry is relatively sensitive to domestic and international policies. Following the changes in domestic and foreign economic environment and the continuous development in aviation industry, relevant international and domestic regulations and industry policies may be adjusted accordingly. Such changes in policies may, to a certain extent, bring uncertainties to the future operating results of the Group.

– 35 –

3. Flight Safety Risk

Flight safety is the principle and foundation for an airlines to maintain normal operation and good reputation. Bad weather, mechanical disorder, human errors, aircraft discrepancies and other force majeure events may have adverse effects on flight safety of airlines.

4. Risk Associated with Outflow of Talents

The aviation transportation industry in PRC has developed rapidly in recent years. At the same time, new entrants of the industry have gradually established airlines and launched their operations. This contributed to competition for core technical staff such as pilots, aircraft crew, operation and control staff as well as major management personnel among domestic airway companies. Failure to train and retain adequate number of core technical staff and management personnel in time may constitute significant adverse effects to the Group's production operation and business development.

5. Competition Risk

The "Twelfth Five-Year Plan" for civil aviation industry in China encourages low-cost airway companies to enter into major logistics market gradually. In February 2014, CAAC issued Guidance on Facilitating Low-cost Aviation Development (《 中国民用航空局关于促进低成本航空发展的指导意见 》) which aims at supporting the development of domestic low-cost airlines. This will further intensify the competition in domestic aviation market.

In respect of international routes, following the development of economic globalization and the increasing frequency of global trading, the trend of monopoly competition in the future international aviation market will become more significant. The transformation from inter-alliance competition in alliance time to inter-association competition in post- alliance time will pose more international competition pressure to domestic aviation transportation enterprises.

There is a certain level of substitutability between railway transportation and air transportation in respect of medium to short distance transportations. With the construction of national high-speed railway network, there will be effects of high-speed railways towards civil aviation market. Some of the Group's routes will face competition from high-speed railways.

6. Risk Associated with the Fluctuation of Fuel Prices

Jet fuel is one of the major expenses of airway companies. The fluctuations of international crude oil prices and adjustments on domestic jet fuel prices by National Development and Reform Commission have impact on the Group's profitability. Therefore, significant fluctuation of future oil prices in the international market and adjustments on domestic jet fuel prices may have significant impact on the Group's operating results.

7. Interest Rate Fluctuation Risk

The Group is engaged in a capital intensive industry and has a higher debt ratio. Majority of liabilities are attributable to USD liabilities and RMB liabilities resulting from introduction of aircraft. Therefore, changes in interest rates of USD and RMB may have significant impact on the Group's finance cost.

8. Exchange Rate Fluctuation Risk

As liabilities of the Group are denominated in foreign currencies (such as USD) and foreign currency expenses in the Company's operation are generally higher than foreign currency income, the depreciation or appreciation of RMB against USD may significantly affect the results of the Group.

9. Information Technology Safety Risk

The aviation transportation industry is highly dependent on network information system and it has penetrated to all aspects such as flight, service, marketing, aircraft affairs as well as the operation and control of the Company. Therefore, in the event that information systems such as computer and communication system encounter circumstances such as any disorder or suspension and hacker attack, there may be adverse effects to the production and operation of the Company or leakage of customer data which may affect the operation results and reputation of the Company.

10. Other Force Majeure and Unforeseeable Risks

The aviation transportation industry is highly sensitive to the external environment. Natural disasters such as earthquake, storm and tsunami, public health emergency, terrorist attack and political volatility may all affect the normal operation of airlines. Flight suspension, decrease in passenger capacity and income, as well as increase in safety and insurance cost may adversely affect the production and operation of the Company.

Pledges on Assets and Contingent Liabilities

The Group generally finances the purchases of aircraft through finance leases and bank loans secured by its assets. As at 31 December 2012, the value of the Group's assets used to secure certain bank loans was RMB22,544 million. As at 31 December 2013, the value of the Group's assets used to secure certain bank loans was RMB24,306 million, representing an increase of 7.82% compared to last year.

As at 31 December 2013, the Group had no significant contingent liabilities.

Capital Expenditure

According to the agreements entered into in relation to aircraft, engines and equipment, as at 31 December 2013, we expect our capital expenditures for aircraft, engines and related equipment to be, in the aggregate, approximately RMB140,640 million, including approximately RMB44,673 million in 2014 and RMB50,179 million in 2015, in each case subject to contractual changes or any change relating to inflation. We plan to finance our capital commitments through a combination of funds generated from operation, existing bank credit facilities, bank loans, leasing arrangements and other external financing arrangement.

Human Resources

As at 31 December 2013, the Group had 68,874 employees, the majority of whom were located in the PRC. The wages of the Group's employees generally consisted of basic salaries and performance bonuses. The Group was not involved in any major labour disputes with its employees, nor did it experience any significant turnover of employees or encounter any difficulties in recruiting new employees.

OUTLOOK FOR 2014

The Group would like to bring to the attention of readers of this announcement that this 2013 annual results announcement contains certain forward-looking statements, including descriptions of the Group's future operating plans for 2014 and beyond, and a general outlook of international and domestic economies and the aviation industry. Such forward-looking statements are subject to many uncertainties and risks that are beyond the control of the Group. Actual events may be materially different from these forward-looking statements.

With the possible recovery of global economy and also the steady growth of local economy in 2014, the tourism market will develop rapidly and the growth in aviation market in China will also be maintained. However, with intensive competition in the industry resulting from the rapid growth of transportation ability in the domestic aviation market, rapid development of domestic and overseas low-cost airways, fluctuation of fuel prices due to geopolitical factors, fluctuation in RMB exchange rate and the impact of high-speed railways becoming normal, the Group will encounter a situation with both opportunities and challenges.

Based on its transformation and development, ability enhancement and brand building, the Group's overall direction for 2014 will be dedicated to the promotion of operation networking and experiential service, accelerating informatisation and marketisation, so as to strive for establishing a world class CEA.

In 2014, the Group will focus on: (1) reinforcing foundations of safety management and implementing safety responsibilities to ensure continued safe operation; (2) working around hub construction by optimising its route network and refining its cabin management in order to enhance its marketing ability of passenger and freight transport operation; (3) improving service procedures and refining service standard to improve its service quality and upgrade the Company's brand; (4) intensifying its efforts in comprehensive budget management to control costs strictly and expanding financing channels to reduce cost while increasing efficiency; (5) based on its information technology construction, accelerating the innovation of business models and continuing with the transformation and development of passenger and freight transport operations.

FLEET PLAN SHEET

The fleet of the Group in the future will mainly comprise of models such as B777 Series for long haul, A330 Series for long-and-medium haul, and A320 Series and B737NG Series for medium-and-short haul. Older aircraft models of high energy-consumption will be surrendered as appropriate. Details of the expected fleet plan from 2014 to 2018 are as follows:

MATERIAL MATTERS

1. Dividends

Based on the auditing of Ernst & Young Hua Ming LLP (23433;27704;33775;26126; 35336;24107;20107;21209;25152;) and Ernst & Young to the financial report of the Company for the year 2013, the Company still recorded accumulated loss as at 31 December 2013 under the PRC accounting standards and IFRS. The Board does not recommend profit distribution for the year 2013 and the Company will not increase its share capital through capitalization of its capital reserve. The profit distribution proposal for the year 2013 will be submitted to the 2013 annual general meeting for consideration.

2. Purchase, sale or redemption of securities

During the financial year of 2013, neither the Company nor its subsidiaries purchased, sold or redeemed any of its listed securities (“Securities”, having the meaning ascribed thereto under Section 1 of Appendix 16 to the Listing Rules).

3. Material litigation

The family members of the 32 victims in the Baotou aircraft accident on 21 November 2004, who sued the Company in the US and China (the aircraft was then owned and operated by China Eastern Air Yunnan Company), have reached a settlement with the Company and applied to the Beijing Second Intermediate People’s Court to withdraw their actions. On 31 May 2013, the Beijing Second Intermediate People’s Court accepted the withdrawal. The California Court in the US ruled to terminate the proceedings of case in the US on 24 October 2013. Since then, all the local and overseas proceedings with respect to this case have been closed. Management of the Company considers that the outcome of this litigation will not have a material adverse effect on the financial condition and operating performance of the Company.

As at 31 December 2013, the Group was not included in any litigation, arbitration or claim of material importance.

4. Corporate governance practices

The Board has reviewed the relevant provisions and corporate governance practices under the codes on corporate governance practices adopted by the Company, and took the view that the Company’s corporate governance practices for the year ended 31 December 2013 met the requirements under the provisions in the Corporate Governance Code set out in Appendix 14 to the Listing Rules.

To further strengthen the awareness of compliance with laws and rules among the directors, supervisors and senior management of the Company, and to enhance their understanding and application of the relevant rules, in January and June 2013, the Company invited experts from securities regulatory authorities and senior partners from renowned law firms to conduct seminars on the latest regulatory laws and regulations and relevant case studies in relation to securities. At the same time, in order to continue strengthening the comprehensive understanding of the directors, supervisors and senior management of the Company on their respective duties and responsibilities, the Company has systematically reviewed the relevant rules and regulations regarding the duties and responsibilities of directors, supervisors and senior management of a listed company promulgated by regulatory bodies including the China Securities Regulatory Commission, the Shanghai Stock Exchange, the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and the New York Stock Exchange in the previous year. The Company compiled the “Guidelines on Duties of the Directors, Supervisors and Senior Management of China Eastern Airlines Corporation Limited (2013)”, which is based on the “Guidelines on Duties of the Directors, Supervisors and Senior Management of China Eastern Airlines Corporation Limited” issued last year.

5. Audit and Risk Management Committee

The Audit and Risk Management Committee of the Company has reviewed with the management of the Company the accounting principles and methods adopted by the Group, and has discussed with the Board the internal controls and financial reporting issues, including a review of the consolidated results prepared under IFRS for the year ended 31 December 2013.

The Audit and Risk Management Committee of the Company has no disagreement with the accounting principles and methods adopted by the Group.

6. Changes in personnel

The 2012 annual general meeting was held by the Company on 26 June 2013, during which the seventh session of the Board and the seventh session of the supervisory committee of the Company were elected. On the same day, the first ordinary meeting of the seventh session of the Board and the first meeting of the seventh session of the supervisory committee of the Company were also convened, during which the Chairman, Vice Chairman, President, Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, Board Secretary of the seventh session of the Board and the chairman for the seventh session of the supervisory committee of the Company were elected.

The second ordinary meeting of the seventh session of the Board was held by the Company on 27 August 2013, during which the resolution on appointment of Mr. Feng Liang as a Vice President of the Company was considered and approved. On 29 October 2013, the resolution on election of Mr. Ma Weihua as an independent non-executive Director of the seventh session of the Board was considered and approved at the first extraordinary general meeting of the Company in 2013. On 24 March 2014, the sixth ordinary meeting of the seventh session of the Board considered and passed the resolution regarding the change in Vice President of the Company and appointed Mr. Sun Youwen as a Vice President of the Company. Mr. Shu Mingjiang ceased to be a Vice President of the Company due to changes of duties.
