Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On June 15, 2015, Net Element, Inc. (the “Company”) amended its Bylaws by adding new provisions to Article 6 of such Bylaws (the “Amendment”). The Amendment provides that, to the fullest extent permitted by law, (a) in the event that (i) any stockholder initiates or asserts any claim or counterclaim or joins, offers substantial assistance to, or has a direct financial interest in any claim or counterclaim against the Company and/or any director, officer, employee or affiliate of the Company (together, the “Company Parties”) and (ii) such stockholder does not obtain a judgment on the merits that substantially achieves, in substance and amount, the full remedy sought, then such stockholder will be obligated jointly and severally to reimburse the Company Parties the greatest amount permitted by law of all fees, costs and expenses (including all reasonable attorney’s fees and other litigation expenses) incurred by the Company Parties in connection with such claim; and (b) in the event that any stockholder initiates or asserts any claim or counterclaim or joins, offers substantial assistance to, or has a direct financial interest in any claim or counterclaim against the Company Parties, then, regardless whether such stockholder is successful on its claim in whole or in part, (i) such stockholder will bear its own litigation costs, and (ii) such stockholder his, her or its attorneys will not be entitled to recover any litigation costs or, in a derivative or class action, to receive any fees or expenses as the result of the creation of any common fund, or from a corporate benefit purportedly conferred upon the Company.

The foregoing is only a brief description of the terms of the Amendment, does not purport to be a complete description of the Amendment, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Amendment which is filed as Exhibit 3.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated by reference herein.
