Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 6, 2015, Propell Technologies Group, Inc. (the “Company”) closed the final tranche of its private placement offering pursuant to the Series C Preferred Stock Purchase Agreement, as amended by an amendment, dated June 5, 2015 (the “Purchase Agreement”) that it entered into on February 19, 2015, with Ervington Investment Limited, an entity organized under the laws of the Republic of Cyprus (“Ervington”). The Company raised an additional $9,750,000, in gross proceeds from the sale to Ervington of 2,974,576 shares of its Series C Preferred Stock (“Series C Preferred”) at a purchase price of $3.277777778 per share. The total gross proceeds raised from the initial and final tranche were $14,750,000. The net proceeds of the final tranche are to be used for the acquisition, enhancement and maintenance of an oil field for deployment of the Company’s technology and general corporate purposes. The material provisions of the Series C Preferred are set forth in the Certificate of Designations to the Certificate of Incorporation that was filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware on February 18, 2015 and was filed as an exhibit to the Company’s Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on February 19, 2015. The Certificate of Designations provides that upon the issuance of an aggregate of 4,500,000 shares of Series C Preferred, the holders of the Series C Preferred are entitled to elect either three directors holding one vote each, one director holding three votes, or one director holding two votes and another director holding one vote. Ervington currently has elected one director that holds two votes and after the second tranche closing Ervington has the right to elect an additional director or provide that the one director it has elected has three votes. Ervington has elected an additional director effective ten (10) days after an Information Statement is filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and mailed to our stockholders of record in compliance with Section 14(f) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”) and Rule 14(f)-1 thereunder.

On July 6, 2015, Ervington also acquired an additional 56,677,477 shares of common stock of the Company and 700,000 shares of Series A-1 Convertible Preferred Stock of the Company (representing 7,000,000 shares of common stock of the Company on an as converted basis) pursuant to the terms of the stock purchase agreement (the “Secondary Purchase Agreement”) that Ervington had entered into with certain stockholders (the “Selling Stockholders”) of the Company.

In connection with the Purchase Agreement, the Company had also entered into an Investors’ Rights Agreement with Ervington on February 19, 2015 (the “Investors’ Rights Agreement”). The Investors’ Rights’ Agreement provides that the Holders (as defined in the Investors’ Rights Agreement) of a majority of the outstanding Registrable Securities (defined therein as the shares of common stock and Series A-1 Preferred Stock issued pursuant to the Secondary Stock Purchase Agreement, the shares of Series C Preferred issued pursuant to the Purchase Agreement and any common stock issued as dividends thereon or in exchange for such) are entitled to demand registration rights under certain circumstances and piggyback registration rights. In addition, the Investors’ Rights Agreement provides that Ervington (or its assignee) has the right to designate a person to be appointed as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, a board observer right if a representative of Ervington or its affiliate is not a member of the Board of Directors of the Company and certain consultation rights if a representative of Ervington or its affiliate is not a member of the Board of Directors of the Company so long as it holds a majority of the Registrable Securities and at least 36,000,000 shares of common stock of the Company on an “as converted” basis. Ervington and its affiliates also have a right of first refusal to acquire their pro rata share of any New Securities (as defined in the Investors’ Rights Agreement) which the Company proposes to issue and sell.

On February 19, 2015, the Company, the Selling Stockholders and Ervington had also entered into a Stockholders Agreement (the “Stockholders Agreement”) that provides that until a Change of Control Transaction (as defined in the Stockholders Agreement), each person a party thereto shall vote all of such person’s shares of common stock of the Company in favor of the designees appointed by Ervington and two additional directors appointed by two of the Selling Stockholders and Ervington agreed to vote its shares in favor of the two designees appointed by the two Selling Stockholders provided that the certain Selling Stockholders continue to own a certain threshold number of shares of our common stock or preferred stock convertible into our common stock. In addition, the Selling Stockholders granted Ervington certain drag along rights in the event of a Change of Control Transaction (as defined in the Stockholders Agreement) and Ervington and its affiliates were granted certain rights of first refusal.

The foregoing descriptions of the Certificate of Designations of the Series C Preferred, the Investors' Rights Agreement, the Purchase Agreement, the Amendment to the Purchase Agreement, the Stockholders Agreement, and the Secondary Purchase Agreement are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Certificate of Designations of the Series C Preferred, the Investors' Rights Agreement, the Purchase Agreement, the Amendment to the Purchase Agreement, the Stockholders Agreement, the Secondary Purchase Agreement, copies of each of which are attached as Exhibits 3.1, 4.1, 10.1, 10.2, 10.3 and 99.1, respectively, to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on February 19, 2015, except for the Amendment to the Purchase Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 10.3 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on June 9, 2015, all of which are incorporated by reference herein.
