Disclosure of Significant Ways in which Gold Fields Corporate Governance Practices Differ from Practices Followed by US Companies Listed on the New York Stock Exchange

Under Section 303A.11 of the New York Stock Exchange Listed Company Manual (the NYSE Listing Standards), foreign private issuers, such as Gold Fields Limited (Gold Fields), must disclose any significant ways in which their corporate governance practices differ from those followed by US listed companies under the NYSE Listing Standards. Gold Fields home country corporate governance practices are regulated by the Listings Requirements of the JSE Securities Exchange South Africa (the JSE Listing Requirements). We have compared Gold Fields home country corporate governance practices with the requirements of the NYSE Listing Standards relating to US listed companies and set out below a brief, general summary of the significant differences:

The NYSE Listing Standards require that the non-management directors of US listed companies must meet at regularly scheduled executive sessions without management. The JSE Listing Requirements do not have a similar requirement, and Gold Fields does not require such meetings of its non-executive directors.

The NYSE Listing Standards require US listed companies to have a nominating/corporate governance committee composed entirely of independent directors. The JSE Listing Requirements also require the appointment of such a committee, and stipulate that all members of this committee must be non-executive directors, the majority of whom must be independent. Gold Fields has a Nominating and Governance Committee which is comprised of four non-executive board members, only one of whom, Patrick J. Ryan, is independent under the NYSE Listing Standards. The JSE Listing Requirements require the chairperson of this committee to be the chairperson of the Board of Directors. The current chairman of the Gold Fields Board of Directors, Christopher M. T. Thompson, was the chief executive officer of Gold Fields until June 30, 2002 and is thus not independent under the NYSE Listing Standards. In addition, two other members of this committee, Tokyo M.G. Sexwale and Bernard van Rooyen, would not be considered independent under the NYSE Listing Standards due to the contractual arrangements existing between Gold Fields and certain of its subsidiaries and Mvelaphanda Resources Limited and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the Mvelaphanda Group). Mr. Sexwale and Mr. van Rooyen are both directors and significant shareholders of the Mvelaphanda Resources Limited.

The NYSE Listing Standards require US listed companies to have a compensation committee composed entirely of independent directors. The JSE Listing Requirements merely require the appointment of such a committee. Gold Fields has appointed a Compensation Committee, comprised of five board members, all of whom are non-executive and four of whom are independent under both the JSE Listing Requirements and the NYSE Listing Standards. Christopher M.T. Thompson would not be considered independent under the NYSE Listing Standards due to his former employment by Gold Fields as described above.

The NYSE Listing Standards require US listed companies to have an audit committee composed entirely of independent directors. The JSE Listing Requirements merely require the appointment of such a committee. Gold Fields has appointed an Audit Committee comprised of five board members, all of whom are non-executive and four of whom are independent, as defined under both the JSE Listing Requirements and the NYSE Listing Standards. Mr. van Rooyen is the only member of the Audit Committee who would not be considered independent due to his relationship with the Mvelaphanda Group described above. However, Mr. van Rooyen is considered independent under the terms of Rule 10A-3 under the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Alan J. Wright, the independent, non-executive, deputy chairman of the Gold Fields Board of Directors, chairs the Audit Committee.

The above summary is also available on the Gold Fields website at www.goldfields.co.za in the Investors section under Corporate Governance .
