2. Annual Incentive Compensation
 - (a) Bonus compensation will be paid on April 1, 2005 and will consist of stock and cash. The stock portion of the bonus will be issued from shares reserved under the ProAssurance Incentive Compensation Stock Plan and will be reported to the SEC by each individual in a Form 4. Dr. Crowe will receive a total bonus of $709,500, which includes 6,422 shares as the stock portion of the bonus. Mr. Adamo will receive a total bonus of $365,500, which includes 3,308 shares as the stock portion of the bonus. Mr. Butrus will receive a total bonus of $188,125, which includes 1,702 shares as the stock portion of the bonus. Mr. Rand will receive a total bonus of $193,500, which includes 1,751 shares as the stock portion of the bonus. Mr. Friedman will receive a total bonus of $193,500, which includes 1,751 shares as the stock portion of the bonus. Mr. Thomas will receive a total bonus of $161,250, which includes 1,459 shares as the stock portion of the bonus. Mr. Morello will receive a total bonus of $107,500, which includes 973 shares as the stock portion of the bonus. Mr. O'Neil will receive a total bonus of $99,115, which includes 897 shares as the stock portion of the bonus. For purposes of determining the number of shares to be awarded, the shares were valued at $51.38 per share, the closing price of a share of common stock on the New York Stock Exchange on March 8, 2006, the day the bonus and incentive compensation was confirmed by the Board.
3. Long-Term Incentive Compensation: Option and Performance Share Grants
 - (a) The Board of Directors has endorsed the Compensation Committees' desire to transition long-term incentive compensation to performance shares, or similar instruments, that are awarded based on the achievement of certain performance targets. In 2006 both performance shares and options will be awarded to executives, but the number of options is being reduced as compared to prior years. Both the options and performance shares are issued pursuant to terms of the ProAssurance Incentive Compensation Stock Plan.

- (b) The number of performance shares that can ultimately be earned will depend on Company performance as measured against three-year goals for Total Return or Economic Value Added. The performance period is January 1, 2006 through December 31, 2008, and results will be evaluated by the Compensation Committee in 2009. The number of performance shares that are earned will vary from 75% to 125% of the target award if performance goals are met or exceeded. Results between those parameters will be interpolated. However, if the performance requirements are not met, all performance shares will be forfeited. Performance shares will convert to shares of ProAssurance Common Stock on a one-for-one basis if issued.

- (c) Dr. Crowe's target award is 8,335 performance shares; Mr. Adamo's target award is 5,000 performance shares; Mr. Butrus' target award is 2,085 shares; Mr. Rand's target award is 4,170 performance shares; Mr. Friedman's target award is 4,170 shares; Mr. Thomas's target award is 4,170 targeted performance shares; Mr. Morello's target award is 2,085 performance shares and Mr. O'Neil's target award is 2,085 performance shares. These targeted awards are not derivative securities and as such, we will not report them on Form 4 unless they are awarded in 2009.
- (d) The Board approved the Compensation Committee's recommendation to award options for 2006 at a price of $51.38 per share, the closing price of a share of common stock on the New York Stock Exchange on March 8, 2006, the day the bonus and incentive compensation was confirmed by the Board. Dr. Crowe will receive 25,000 options; Mr. Adamo will receive 15,000 options; Mr. Butrus will receive 6,250 options; Mr. Rand will receive 12,500 options; Mr. Friedman will receive 12,500 options; Mr. Thomas will receive 12,500 options; Mr. Morello will receive 6,250 options and Mr. O'Neil will receive 6,250 options.
