Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

(b) Effective September 13, 2012, the Board of Directors of JetBlue Airways Corporation (the “Company”) adopted amendments to the Company's bylaws to change the voting standard for an uncontested election, and to make certain related changes and certain clarifications:

The standard for uncontested elections of directors was changed to a majority voting standard so that a nominee for director will be elected to the Board of Directors if the votes cast for the nominee constitute at least a majority of the shares represented and voting at a duly held meeting. Directors will continue to be elected by a plurality of the votes cast if the election is a contested election as defined in the Company's bylaws.

The Board of Directors will only nominate for election as a director a nominee who agreed to tender, promptly following the annual meeting at which he or she is elected as director, an irrevocable resignation that will be effective upon (a) the failure to receive the required number of votes for reelection at the next annual meeting of stockholders at which he or she faces reelection, and (b) acceptance of such resignation by the Board of Directors. In addition, the Board of Directors will not fill a director vacancy or newly created directorship with any candidate who has not agreed to tender, promptly following his or her appointment to the Board of Directors, the same form of resignation.

If a nominee fails to receive the required number of votes for reelection, the Board of Directors (excluding the director in question) shall, within 90 days after certification of the election results, decide whether to accept the director's resignation through a process overseen by the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee.

This summary of the amendments is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete copy of the amended and restated bylaws, a copy of which, marked to show changes to the former bylaws, is attached as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated by reference herein (additions are underlined and deletions are struck through).
