Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On February 1, 2015, Sterling Construction Company, Inc. (the "Company") elected its Chairman of the Board, Paul J. Varello, the Company's acting Chief Executive Officer. He has assumed the position on a full-time basis while the Company, with the assistance of an executive search firm, seeks a long-term Chief Executive Officer.

Mr. Varello will be paid a salary of $50,000 a month, and will cease to be paid compensation for service as a director and as Chairman of the Board.

Mr. Varello is the Former Founder and Chairman of Commonwealth Engineering & Construction, LLC (CEC) an engineering and construction management company specializing in the design and construction of major capital projects for the oil & gas, refining, alternative fuels, power, and related energy industries, which he sold in 2014.

Prior to founding CEC in May 2003, Mr. Varello was Senior Partner of Varello & Associates, a company that provided technical assessments, economic evaluations, estimates and constructability reviews to project lenders, plant operators and engineering companies from September 2001 to May 2003. From May 1990 to September 2001, Mr. Varello was Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of American Ref-Fuel Company of Houston, Texas. The company was formed as a joint venture of two publicly-traded companies to develop, own and operate plants that convert solid municipal waste into energy. For the eighteen years prior to 1990, Mr. Varello was with Fluor Corporation, a Fortune 500 company that provides engineering, procurement, construction, maintenance, and project management services to a wide range of global clients. Mr. Varello started with Fluor as a project construction manager and rose to President of the Process Sector.
