Cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information

Words such as "believes," "anticipates," "expects," "intends" and "plans" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements except as may be required by applicable laws.

Edgar Filing: CREDIT SUISSE GROUP - Form 6-K

By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, objectives, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include (i) market and interest rate fluctuations; (ii) the strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which we conduct our operations in particular; (iii) the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us; (iv) the effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, trade and tax policies, and currency fluctuations; (v) political and social developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity; (vi) the possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalization or confiscation of assets in countries in which we conduct our operations; (vii) the ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets; (viii) operational factors such as systems failure, human error, or the failure to properly implement procedures; (ix) actions taken by regulators with respect to our business and practices in one or more of the countries in which we conduct our operations; (x) the effects of changes in laws, regulations or accounting policies or practices; (xi) competition in geographic and business areas in which we conduct our operations; (xii) the ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel; (xiii) the ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brands; (xiv) the ability to increase market share and control expenses; (xv) technological changes; (xvi) the timely development and acceptance of our new products and services and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users; (xvii) acquisitions, including the ability to integrate successfully acquired businesses; (xviii) the adverse resolution of litigation and other contingencies; and (xix) our success at managing the risks involved in the foregoing.

Cautionary statement regarding non-GAAP financial information

Credit Suisse Group is correcting its fourth quarter and full-year 2003 net profit reported under Swiss GAAP from CHF 1.2 billion to CHF 1.0 billion, and from CHF 5.2 billion to CHF 5.0 billion, respectively. The correction is a result of an error in the input data used for the fourth quarter 2003 accounts of DBV-Winterthur in Germany.

Credit Suisse Group's net profit reported under Swiss GAAP for the fourth quarter and the full year 2003 was reduced from CHF 1,166 million to CHF 956 million, and from CHF 5,209 million to CHF 4,999 million, respectively.

This Report amends and replaces Credit Suisse Group's Quarterly Report Q4 2003, which was published on February 12, 2004, and the financial statements and other financial information contained herein supersede the financial statements and other financial information contained in that Quarterly Report, which are being withdrawn. For a detailed discussion of the full-year 2003 results please refer to the Credit Suisse Group Annual Report 2003, which is posted on the Internet at www.credit-suisse.com/annualreport2003.
