Item 8.01 Other Events

On April 28, 2006, the Federal Trade Commission announced that it had approved issuance of the final consent order in the matter concerning Valassis Communications, Inc., settling a claim that alleged that remarks made during Valassis's second quarter earnings conference call, held on July 22, 2004, violated Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act.

Under the terms of the settlement, Valassis did not admit any wrongdoing and is not required to pay any fines or penalties. The allegations were limited to the remarks made on the second quarter earnings conference call and there were no allegations regarding any conduct or effect beyond the remarks themselves. The settlement relieves Valassis of the substantial expense, time and resources of continuing this proceeding.

The FTC announced the approval of the consent agreement on March 14, 2006, subject to a 30-day public comment period, during which time there were no public comments. The consent agreement prohibits Valassis from communicating certain statements about its competitive intentions (and standard prohibitions related to allocating markets and fixing prices). The full text of the settlement is available on Valassis's website at www.valassis.com and the FTC's website at www.ftc.gov.
