Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

As we previously announced, our Board of Directors intends to create two independent public companies: (i) a global snacks business and (ii) a North American grocery business through a spin-off of the North American grocery business to Kraft Foods' shareholders. On December 5, 2011, we announced the top leadership of the future companies. When the new companies launch, Irene B. Rosenfeld, our current Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, will be Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the global snacks company. W. Anthony Vernon, our current Executive Vice President and President, Kraft Foods North America, will become Chief Executive Officer of the North American grocery company. John T. Cahill, currently an Industrial Partner of private equity firm Ripplewood Holdings LLC, will become Non-Executive Chairman of the North American grocery company. Mr. Cahill will initially serve as Executive Chairman, reflecting the tremendous effort required to launch and transition to a public company. Mr. Cahill will join Kraft Foods in January to begin work on the separation.

In connection with Mr. Vernon's appointment as Chief Executive Officer of the North American grocery company, our Human Resources and Compensation Committee approved an increase to Mr. Vernon's compensation, effective January 1, 2012. The terms of Mr. Vernon's compensation are as follows: base salary of $900,000, target annual incentive award of 100% of base salary, target annual long-term incentive plan award of 235% of base salary, and target annual equity award of $2,100,000. In addition, Mr. Vernon would be entitled to receive separation benefits consistent with those for current and former Chief Executive Officers of Kraft Foods.

A copy of our press release, dated December 5, 2011, announcing the top leadership of the companies is attached to this report as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
