Specialty Components where we design, develop, manufacture and sell a variety of sensors and control devices, including custom designed sensor products and application specific sensor devices and components.

We sell remote devices and components on an OEM basis to the leading worldwide electronics manufacturers including Compaq, Dell, InFocus, Microsoft, NEC, Sony, and Toshiba. We also market a line of branded business and home communication products through distributor channels, such as Ingram Micro and various integrators, value added resellers and other market intermediaries. We sell our electronic signature capture devices directly to businesses in selected vertical markets. Our specialty components are sold to a diverse group of businesses, including businesses in the computer, cellular telephone, automotive and medical device markets, generally based on contracts directly with the end product manufacturer.

We do product design, engineering and development, and manufacture proprietary components of our products at our headquarters in Camarillo, California. Production manufacturing is managed through our wholly-owned Hong Kong-based subsidiary and accomplished by contract manufacturers in China. USE OF PROCEEDS

Unless otherwise indicated in the applicable prospectus supplement, we anticipate that the net proceeds from the sale of the common stock offered under this prospectus will be used for general corporate purposes, to repay long term debt and to support future growth, which may include the acquisition and/or development of additional technologies, products or businesses. The prospectus supplement relating to specific sales of our common stock hereunder will set forth our intended use of any net proceeds we receive from such sales. Pending the application of the net proceeds, we expect to invest the proceeds in investment-grade, interest-bearing instruments or other securities.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

General

We may sell the common stock that may be offered hereby directly to one or more purchasers, through agents on our behalf, or through underwriters or dealers designated by us from time to time. We may distribute the securities from time to time in one or more transactions at a fixed price (which may be changed from time to time), at market prices prevailing at the times of sale, at prices related to these prevailing market prices or at negotiated prices. The applicable prospectus supplement will describe the terms of the offering, including:

the name or names of any underwriters, agents or financial advisors;

the purchase price of the common stock and the proceeds that we will receive from its sale;

any underwriting discounts and other items constituting underwriters' compensation; and any discounts or concessions or other fees allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers or others to whom a fee is payable in connection with the transaction.

Only underwriters named in a prospectus supplement, if any, are underwriters of the common stock offered with that prospectus supplement.

Sales Directly to Purchasers

We may enter into agreements directly with one or more purchasers. Such agreements may provide for the sale of common stock at a fixed price, based on the market price of the common stock or otherwise. Alternatively, such agreements may provide for the sale of common stock over a period of time by means of draw downs at our election that the purchaser would be obligated to accept under specified conditions. Under this form of agreement, we may sell common stock at a price that is discounted from the market price. Such agreements also may provide for sales of common stock based on combinations of or variations from these methods.

Use of Underwriters and Agents

If underwriters are used in the sale of common stock, they will acquire the common stock for their own account and may resell the common stock from time to time in one or more transactions at a fixed public offering price or at varying prices determined at the time of sale. We may offer the common stock to the public through underwriting syndicates represented by managing underwriters or by underwriters without a syndicate. Subject to certain conditions, the underwriters will be obligated to purchase all the common stock offered by the prospectus supplement. Any public offering price and any discounts or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers may change from time to time.

Edgar Filing: INTERLINK ELECTRONICS INC - Form S-3

We may sell common stock directly or through agents we designate from time to time. We will name any agent involved in the offering and sale of common stock and we will describe any commissions we will pay the agent in the prospectus supplement. Unless the prospectus supplement states otherwise, our agent will act on a best-efforts basis for the period of its appointment. We may authorize agents or underwriters to solicit offers by certain types of institutional investors to purchase common stock from us at the public offering price set forth in the prospectus supplement pursuant to delayed delivery contracts providing for payment and delivery on a specified date in the future. We will describe the conditions to these contracts and the commissions we must pay for solicitation of these contracts in the prospectus supplement.

Underwriter Compensation and Potential Liability

In connection with the sale of the common stock offered with this prospectus, underwriters, dealers or agents may receive compensation from us or from purchasers of the common stock for whom they may act as agents, in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions. Such compensation may be in the form of cash or securities. The underwriters, dealers or agents that participate in the distribution of the common stock may be deemed to be underwriters under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, which we refer to as the Securities Act, and any discounts or commissions received by them and any profit on the resale of the securities received by them may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. Anyone deemed to be an underwriter under the Securities Act may be subject to statutory liabilities, including Sections 11, 12 and 17 of the Securities Act and Rule 10b-5 under the Exchange Act.

Indemnification and Other Relationships

We may provide agents and underwriters with indemnification against certain civil liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, or contribution with respect to payments that the agents or underwriters may make with respect to such liabilities. Agents and underwriters may engage in transactions with, or perform services for, us in the ordinary course of business.

Listing of Common Stock

Our common stock is listed on the NASDAQ National Market and we expect that we would apply to list any additional shares of common stock that may be offered hereby. Any underwriters or dealers participating in an offering made hereunder will not be obligated to make a market in the common stock. We cannot predict the activity or liquidity of any trading in the common stock.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

Authorized Securities

We are authorized to issue 50,000,000 shares of common stock and 100,000 shares of preferred stock. As of December 31, 2003, there were 11,155,008 shares of common stock, and no shares of preferred stock, outstanding. We may increase the number of authorized shares of common stock and/or preferred stock by amending our certificate of incorporation. Such an amendment would require the approval of our stockholders.

(i) Common Stock

The holders of our common stock are entitled to one vote per share for each share held of record on all matters submitted to a vote of the stockholders and are entitled to receive ratably such dividends as are declared by our Board of Directors out of funds legally available therefor,

Edgar Filing: INTERLINK ELECTRONICS INC - Form S-3

subject to any superior rights of holders of preferred stock we may issue in the future. In the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Interlink, holders of the common stock have the right to a ratable portion of the assets remaining after payment of liabilities and liquidation preferences of any shares of preferred stock we may issue in the future, or other securities having a liquidation preference over the common stock, that may then be outstanding. The holders of common stock have no preemptive rights or rights to convert their common stock into other securities. All outstanding shares of common stock are, and the common stock offered hereby, if issued in the manner described in this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement, will be, fully paid and non-assessable.

(ii) Preferred Stock

Preferred stock is issuable in such classes or series as are determined by our Board of Directors, who have the authority to determine the relative rights and preferences of each such class or series. Our Board of Directors has not designated any class or series of preferred stock.

The issuance of preferred stock could adversely affect the voting power of holders of our common stock and the likelihood that such holders will receive dividend payments and payments upon liquidation may have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change in control of Interlink, which could depress the market price of our common stock. We currently have no preferred stock outstanding.

Transfer Agent

Computer Share Trust, is the transfer agent and registrar for our common stock.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL") authorizes a court to award, or a corporation's board of directors to grant, indemnity to directors and officers on terms sufficiently broad to permit such indemnification under certain circumstances for liabilities (including reimbursement for expenses incurred) arising under the Securities Act. As permitted by the DGCL, Article IV of our Certificate of Incorporation includes a provision that eliminates the personal liability of our directors for monetary damages for conduct as a director, except for any act or omission for which such elimination of liability is not permitted under the DGCL. Our Bylaws deny the directors and others the right to indemnification for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to Interlink or our stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under section 174 of the DGCL (regarding unlawful dividends and stock purchases) or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. As permitted by the DGCL, our Certificate and Bylaws also provide that (i) we may indemnify our other employees and agents as set forth in the DGCL, (ii) we are required to advance expenses, as incurred, to our directors and executive officers in connection with a legal proceeding to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL, subject to certain limited exceptions and (iii) the rights conferred in our Bylaws are not exclusive. At the date of this prospectus, there is no pending litigation or proceeding involving a director, officer or employee of Interlink regarding which indemnification is sought, nor is our management aware of any threatened litigation that may result in claims for indemnification. The indemnification provisions in our Certificate and Bylaws may be sufficiently broad to permit indemnification of our directors and executive officers for liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

Table of Contents

We maintain insurance for the protection of our directors and officers against any liability asserted against them in their official capacities. The rights of indemnification described above are not exclusive of any other rights of indemnification to which the persons indemnified may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or directors or otherwise.

STATEMENTS REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

This prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus contain forward-looking statements, within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act and Section 21E of the Exchange Act, with respect to our financial condition, results of operations, business, and prospects. Words such as anticipates, expects, intends, plans, believes, seeks, estimates, may, will, and similar expressions indicate forward-looking statements. Actual results, performance or achievements could differ materially from those contemplated, expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus.

The following, in addition to the risk factors described in any prospectus supplement and in certain documents incorporated by reference herein, are among the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements: an unexpected change in business conditions affecting us or our customers; a change in the prices that we can charge our customers or in our production costs; exchange rate fluctuations; political or economic instability, either globally or in the countries in which we have significant sales or operations; competitive factors, including technological innovations by our current or future competitors; future legislation or regulatory change affecting our products or markets; and limitations on the availability of capital at reasonable rates or at all. The forward-looking statements contained or incorporated in this prospectus regarding industry trends, revenue, costs and profit expectations, operating expense, cash flow and future business activities should be considered in light of these factors.

LEGAL MATTERS

Stoel Rives LLP, Portland, Oregon, has provided its preliminary opinion on the validity of the common stock that may be registered hereby, and will provide a final opinion in connection with any offers and sales of such securities. Such final opinion will be described in the applicable prospectus supplement. Any underwriters will be advised about other issues relating to any offering by their own legal counsel.
