Item 2.01. Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

As of March 31, 2005, Arrowhead Research Corporation (the Company) sold 2,640,000 shares of Series C Preferred Stock (Series C Stock) in Insert Therapeutics, Inc. (Insert), a majority-owned subsidiary of the Company. The Series C Stock was sold by the Company for an aggregate of $2,640,000 in cash in a private sale to accredited investors. As a condition to this sale, Arrowhead agreed to convert 5,000,000 shares of Series B Preferred Stock (Series B Stock) of Insert into 5,000,000 shares of Series C Stock.

The Series C Stock ranks junior to the Series B Stock. Specifically, the Series B Shares are entitled to a liquidation preference in priority to the liquidation preference granted to the Series C Shares. However, as part of the negotiated sale, the Company agreed to subordinate its Series B Stock liquidation preference to the liquidation preference of the Series C Shares. As result, in the event of a liquidation event, the holders of Series C Shares will be entitled to participate pari passu with the outstanding Series B Stock, and ahead of the Company's Series B Stock, to (1) receive $0.20411, plus any declared but unpaid dividends or (2) participate ratably (on an as-converted basis) with the Common Stock and any other class of capital stock then outstanding.

After giving effect to the sale of Series C Stock, the Company continues to own a majority of the Series B Stock, individually, and a majority of Insert's capital stock, on a fully diluted basis. The Company also maintains the right to elect a majority of the Board of Directors of Insert, under the terms of the previously existing agreements. The Series C Stock and Insert's Common Stock will vote together, as a single class, unless required by Delaware law. In the event a proposal is approved with the vote of the holders of any Series C Stock and rejected by a majority of Insert's outstanding Common Stock, then the votes cast by the Series C Stock on that proposal shall be disregarded, and the votes cast with respect to shares of Series C Stock shall not be counted towards determining a quorum or a majority vote. All private purchasers in the Series C Stock transaction are unaffiliated with the Company, other than Dr. Robert Ching, who beneficially owns over 10% of the Company's Common Stock.

The Series C Preferred Stock Purchase Agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.1 hereto.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.

(c) Exhibits.

Exhibit No.	Description
10.1	Form of Series C Preferred Stock Purchase Agreement, dated as of March 31, 2005.
