INFORMATION STATEMENT

June 2, 2005

You have received this Information Statement and the accompanying notice of written action by shareholders as an owner of record as of May 19, 2005 of the common stock, no par value, of Quality Distribution, Inc. On May 13, 2005, shareholders holding a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock took action by written consent, effective 20 days after the distribution of this Information Statement and the accompanying Notice of Action By Written Consent of Shareholders, to amend the Articles of Incorporation of Quality Distribution, Inc. to increase the maximum number of members that our Board of Directors ( Board ) may comprise to thirteen from eleven.

Unless the context requires otherwise, references in this statement to Quality Distribution , QDI , the Company , we , us , or our refer to Quality Distribution, Inc. and its consolidated subsidiaries.

We are not asking you for a proxy and you are requested not to send us a proxy. We are not holding a meeting of shareholders in connection with the matters described in this Information Statement. We are first mailing this Information Statement on or about June 2, 2005.

Our Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws currently provide that our Board shall comprise not fewer than one nor more than eleven directors. Our Board is currently composed of eleven members. Each director serves until the 2006 annual meeting and until his successor is elected and qualified, or until such director's earlier death, disability, resignation or removal.

Following our annual meeting of shareholders on May 13, 2005, our Board determined that the size of the Board of Directors should be increased beyond its existing size of eleven. Accordingly, the Board resolved that our Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws be amended to permit the Board to comprise up to thirteen members. Under our By-Laws, vacancies on the Board may be filled only by the Board. A director elected to fill a vacancy holds office until the next annual meeting of shareholders and until such director's successor is elected and qualified. The Board also resolved that, upon amendment to our Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws, it would appoint M. Ali Rashid to fill a vacancy created by the increase in the size of the Board of Directors. Mr. Rashid is an officer of Apollo Management, L.P. and certain of its affiliates (collectively, Apollo ). Apollo is our majority shareholder. Mr. Rashid has agreed to serve as a director upon appointment.

An amendment to our Articles of Incorporation requires shareholder approval. Under Florida law and our By-Laws, shareholders are permitted to act in lieu of a meeting by written consent of shareholders holding a majority of our common stock. Since our annual meeting of shareholders had just been conducted, the Board concluded not to hold another shareholders meeting for a limited purpose, but instead to agree to approval by written consent of our shareholders holding a majority of common stock. A majority of our common stock is held by Apollo, and Apollo undertook to act by shareholder consent. The Board did not submit its decision to amend the By-Laws or to appoint Mr. Rashid to fill a vacancy to Apollo as the Board has the authority to take these actions without shareholder approval. Apollo approved the amendment to the Articles of Incorporation on May 13, 2005.

As amended, the affected provision of our Articles of Incorporation, Article V, Section 1, will read:

Number. The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall consist of not fewer than one (1) nor more than thirteen (13) members, the exact number of the directors to be fixed from time to time by the stockholders or as otherwise provided in the Corporation's by-laws. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of this Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by law directed or required to be exercised or done only by the stockholders. The stockholders of the Corporation may remove a director from office at any time with or without cause.

Both the Board's and Apollo's action are conditioned upon distributing this Information Statement and waiting for 20 days after the distribution. Accordingly, our Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws will not be amended as described until on or about June 22, 2005. Promptly on or following that date, we will file Articles of Amendment with the Department of State of the State of Florida to amend our Articles of Incorporation as described. Once our Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws have been amended, Mr. Rashid's appointment to fill a vacancy will become effective.

Our Board believes that increasing the size of the Board will enable additional qualified individuals, including Mr. Rashid, to serve as directors. Increasing the size of the Board will also give us greater flexibility to comply with the applicable corporate governance requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. Provisions establishing a maximum number of directors have sometimes been characterized as deterring takeovers. However, any such effect is minimized in our case because our Articles of Incorporation currently have a numeric maximum and a majority of our common stock is currently owned by Apollo.

Five of our eleven directors are partners and officers of Apollo, our majority shareholder, which took the action by written consent described in this Information Statement. Mr. Rashid, whom the Board has conditionally appointed to fill a vacancy created by the amendment to our Articles of Incorporation, is also an officer of Apollo. Accordingly, upon effectiveness of the actions described in this Information Statement, one half of our directors will be Apollo associates. These directors could prevent the passage of board resolutions or other Board action if they act collectively at a meeting of the Board at which all directors are present or act by written consent, and the directors who are Apollo associates are not currently able to do this.

Prior to the May 13, 2005 annual meeting of our shareholders, our Board comprised ten members, and five of these members were Apollo associates. Accordingly, the amendment to our Articles of Incorporation and the appointment to fill a vacancy will have the immediate effect only of returning our Board composition to the relative composition that existed prior to the annual meeting. In any event, our directors are elected by a plurality of all votes cast by shares entitled to vote at a meeting in which a quorum is present, and the vote of Apollo at such a meeting would constitute a plurality for all Board seats.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF ### CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

The following table sets forth certain information regarding the beneficial ownership of our common stock as of May 19, 2005 (based on 19,047,566 shares of common stock outstanding), by:

each person known by us to be a beneficial owner of more than 5.0% of our outstanding common stock,

each of our directors,

each of our named executive officers, and all directors and executive officers as a group.

The amounts and percentage of common stock beneficially owned are reported on the basis of regulations of the SEC governing the determination of beneficial ownership of securities. Under the rules of the SEC, a person is deemed to be a beneficial owner of a security if that person has or shares voting power, which includes the power to vote or to direct the voting of such security, or investment power, which includes the power to dispose of or to direct the disposition of such security. A person is also deemed to be a beneficial owner of any securities of which that person has a right to acquire beneficial ownership within 60 days. Under these rules, more than one person may be deemed a beneficial owner of the same securities and a person may be deemed a beneficial owner of securities as to which he or she has no economic interest. The number of shares of common stock outstanding used in calculating the percentage for each listed person includes the shares of common stock underlying options or warrants held by such person that are exercisable within 60 days of May 19, 2005, but excludes shares of common stock underlying options or warrants held by any other person.

Edgar Filing: QUALITY DISTRIBUTION INC - Form PRE 14C

Except as indicated by footnote, the persons named in the table below have sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares of common stock shown as beneficially owned by them.
