In preparing its year-end financial statements, Toys R Us, Inc. (the Company) has concluded that it has a material weakness in its internal controls over income tax accounting. The Company is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 3, 2007 (the 2006 Form 10-K) by May 4, 2007 because it has not completed the preparation of its consolidated financial statements as of and for the quarter and year ended February 3, 2007. The breadth of the additional internal work and analysis required due to the identified material weaknesses relating to income tax accounting has delayed the preparation of the Company's financial statements. The Company expects to file its 2006 Form 10-K on or before May 21, 2007.

The Company's net earnings are anticipated to increase by approximately more than $465 million from a net loss reported in fiscal 2005. This is primarily due to improved operations, gains on sales of properties and the absence of $410 million in costs and charges relating to the merger of the Company during 2005.
