In addition, the Company shall (a) continue to provide the officer with insurance and welfare benefits for a number of months following termination of employment (36 months for executive officers and 24 months for other officers), (b) cause any unvested stock options or restricted stock to become fully vested, and (c) pay the officer any positive balance of previously banked amounts. The Change of Control Agreements entered into with Mr. Taylor, Mr. Kehoe, Mr. Brown and Mr. Demarest replace similar agreements previously entered into between the respective individual and the Company.
