Re: Application to Withdraw Registration Statement on Form F-4 of Barclays PLC (File No. 333-143666)
Dear Messrs. Webb, Dundas and Clampitt:

The offer (the Offer) by Barclays PLC (Barclays) and Barclays (Netherlands) N.V. (Barclays Netherlands) for the ordinary shares and American Depositary Shares (ADSs) of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. (ABN AMRO) expired on October 4, 2007. As previously notified pursuant to filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission), on October 5, 2007, the Board of Directors of Barclays determined that not all of the conditions to the Offer had been fulfilled as of expiration and resolved to withdraw the Offer.

As a result of the lapse of the Offer, pursuant to Rule 477(a) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Act), Barclays and Barclays Netherlands hereby request that an order be issued by the Commission as soon as possible granting the withdrawal of Barclays and Barclays Netherlands's joint Registration Statement on Form F-4 (File No. 333-143666), including all amendments and exhibits thereto (the Registration Statement). The Registration Statement was filed to register securities to be issued to shareholders and ADS holders of ABN AMRO in connection with the Offer.

No Barclays securities or Barclays Netherlands securities were issued in connection with the Offer or pursuant to the Registration Statement. On November 30, 2007, Barclays and Barclays (Netherlands) filed Post-Effective Amendment No. 3 to the Registration Statement to withdraw the Registration Statement. The Commission declared Post-Effective Amendment No. 3 effective on December 3, 2007.

Barclays understands that the filing fees paid by Barclays (which include filing fees paid by Barclays on behalf of Barclays Netherlands, its wholly-owned subsidiary) will be held by the Commission pursuant to Rule 477 under the Act, and, pursuant to Rule 457(p) under the Act, may be applied to a future registration statement or registration statements.
