Section 1 - Registrant's Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On July 16, 2008, Catalyst Semiconductor, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), ON Semiconductor Corporation, a Delaware Corporation (Parent), and Centaur Acquisition Corporation, a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization (the Merger Agreement), as announced in the joint press release dated July 17, 2008 attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company, with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation and becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (the Merger). The Board of Directors of the Company has approved the Merger and the Merger Agreement and has recommended that the stockholders of the Company approve the Merger.

In connection with the Merger, each share of the Company's common stock that is outstanding at the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time) shall be converted into the right to receive 0.706 of a share of Parent's common stock. The Merger is intended to be a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes, and it therefore is expected that no gain or loss will be recognized by the holders of Company common stock with respect to the shares of Parent common stock they receive in exchange for their shares of Company common stock.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, each outstanding stock option to purchase shares of Company common stock will convert into and become an option to purchase Parent common stock upon the same terms and conditions as the outstanding options, except that the number of shares for which the new option may be exercised and the exercise price of the new option will be adjusted consistent with the applicable exchange ratio in the Merger. In addition, each outstanding restricted stock unit award representing a right to receive shares of the Company's common stock will become a right to receive shares of Parent's common stock, except that the number of shares for which the new restricted stock unit awards may be exchanged will be adjusted consistent with the applicable exchange ratio in the Merger.

The Company's Board of Directors has approved the Merger Agreement and determined that the Merger Agreement and the Merger are advisable and both fair to and in the best interest of the Company's stockholders. Houlihan Lokey Howard & Zukin Capital, Inc. served as the financial advisor to the Company's Board of Directors and, in connection with such service, rendered a fairness opinion to the Company's Board of Directors that the exchange ratio provided for in the Merger Agreement is fair to the holders of the Company's common stock from a financial point of view.

The Merger Agreement contains certain customary representations, warranties, and covenants, including that (i) the Company will cause a meeting of its stockholders to be held to consider the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement; (ii) the Board of Directors of the Company will recommend to its stockholders that they adopt and approve the Merger Agreement, subject to certain exceptions; (iii) the Company will be subject to certain restrictions on the operation of its business between the date of the Merger Agreement and the effective time of the Merger; and (iv) the Company will be subject to restrictions on solicitation of proposals with respect to any alternative sales transactions.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to closing conditions, including (i) the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Company common stock (certain officers and directors of the Company, who beneficially own approximately 5.3% of the total issued and outstanding shares of the Company's common stock as of the close of business on July 16, 2008, have agreed to vote in favor of the transaction); (ii) expiration of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 and any applicable, similar foreign regulations; and (iii) a Registration Statement on Form S-4 having become effective under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both the Company and Parent and further provides that upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances the Company may be required to pay Parent a termination fee.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby do not purport to be complete and are subject to, and qualified in their entirety by, the full text of the Merger Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1, which is incorporated herein by reference. The Merger Agreement has been attached to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company. In particular, the assertions embodied in the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules provided by the parties thereto in connection with the signing of the Merger Agreement. These disclosure schedules contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, certain representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement were used for the purpose of allocating risk between the Company, Parent and Merger Sub, rather than establishing matters of fact. Accordingly, the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement may not constitute the actual state of facts about the Company, Parent and Merger Sub.

On July 16, 2008, prior to the execution of the Merger Agreement, the Board of Directors of the Company approved, and the Company entered into, Amendment No. 1 (the Amendment) to the Preferred Shares Rights Agreement, dated as of December 21, 2006 (the Rights Agreement), by and between the Company and Computershare Trust Company, N.A., as rights agent. The Amendment, among other things, provides that neither Parent, Merger Sub nor any of their affiliates will become an Acquiring Person (as such term is defined in the Rights Agreement), none of a Shares Acquisition Date, a Distribution Date, or a Triggering Event (each as defined in the Rights Agreement) shall occur, in each case, by reason of the approval, execution or delivery of, or the consummation of the transactions contemplated by, the Merger Agreement or the Voting Agreements.
