Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On February 9, 2009, Vonage Holdings Corp. (the Company) was notified by the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) that the Company had fallen below the NYSE's continued listing standard relating to minimum average global market capitalization. Section 802.01B of the NYSE's Listed Company Manual requires that the Company's average global market capitalization be not less than $100 million over a consecutive 30 trading-day period.

The Company intends to notify the NYSE that it will submit a plan within 45 days from the receipt of the NYSE notice that demonstrates the Company's ability to regain compliance within 18 months. Upon receipt of the Company's plan, the NYSE has 45 calendar days to review and determine whether the Company has made a reasonable demonstration of its ability to come into conformity with the relevant standards within the 18-month period. The NYSE will either accept the plan, at which time the Company will be subject to ongoing monitoring for compliance with this plan, or the NYSE will not accept the plan and the Company will be subject to suspension and delisting proceedings.

During this cure period, the Company's shares will continue to be listed and traded on the NYSE, subject to the Company's compliance with other NYSE continued listing standards.

The Company issued a press release related to this matter, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
