Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 9, 2009, Toys R Us Property Company I, LLC (the Issuer), formerly known as TRU 2005 RE Holding Co. I, LLC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Toys R Us, Inc., entered into an indenture (the Indenture) among the Issuer, the Guarantors (as defined below), Toys R Us, Inc., solely with respect to certain covenants, and The Bank of New York Mellon, as trustee. Pursuant to the Indenture, the Issuer issued $950 million aggregate principal amount of 10.75% Senior Notes due 2017 (the Notes). The Notes are the Issuer's senior unsecured obligations. The Issuer owns fee and leasehold interests in 359 properties in the United States, which it leases on a long term basis to Toys R Us Delaware, Inc. (Toys-Delaware), the operating entity for all of Toys R Us, Inc.'s North American businesses, pursuant to a Master Lease.

The Notes are guaranteed by the all of the Issuer's subsidiaries (the Guarantors). The Notes are solely the obligations of the Issuer and the Guarantors and will not be guaranteed by Toys R Us, Inc. or Toys-Delaware. The Notes were issued at a price equal to 97.399% of their face amount at maturity. The maturity date of the Notes is July 15, 2017. The interest rate on the Notes is 10.75% per year, payable semiannually on January 15 and July 15, commencing January 15, 2010.

The Issuer used the proceeds from the issuance of the Notes, together with proceeds from the transfer of certain properties to its affiliate Toys-Delaware, cash contributions from Toys R Us, Inc. and cash on hand to repay all outstanding borrowings under the Issuer's $1.3 billion credit agreement, dated as of December 9, 2005, by and among the Issuer, as borrower, the Guarantors, Deutsche Bank AG, New York Branch as Administrative Agent and the lenders from time to time party thereto (the Issuer Credit Facility).

On or after July 15, 2013, the Notes may be redeemed at specified redemption prices, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any. In addition, before July 15, 2012, the Issuer may redeem up to 35% of the Notes with the net cash proceeds from certain equity offerings. At any time prior to July 15, 2013, the Notes may be redeemed at a price equal to 100% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes plus a make-whole premium. Following specific kinds of change of controls, the Issuer will be required to offer to purchase all of the Notes at a purchase price of 101% of their principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of purchase.

The Notes and the Indenture restrict the ability of the Issuer and its subsidiaries to, among other things, incur indebtedness, pay dividends or make other distributions, make other restricted payments and investments, create liens, and incur restrictions on the ability of the Guarantors to pay dividends or make other payments. The Indenture also restricts the ability of Toys R Us, Inc. to cause or permit Toys-Delaware to incur indebtedness or make restricted payments. These covenants are subject to a number of important qualifications and limitations.

The Indenture also contains certain events of default after which the Notes may be declared due and payable immediately.

The notes were offered only to qualified institutional buyers pursuant to an exemption from registration set forth in Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act) and outside the United States to non-U.S. persons in reliance on the exemption from registration set forth in Regulation S under the Securities Act. The Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

The Issuer has agreed to use its reasonable efforts to register with the Securities and Exchange Commission notes having identical terms in all material respects as the Notes in an offer to exchange such registered notes for the Notes. The Issuer will use its reasonable efforts to complete the exchange offer within 365 days after the issue date of the Notes, or, if required, to file a shelf registration statement with respect to the Notes. If this obligation is not satisfied, the annual interest rate on the Notes will increase by 0.25%. The annual interest rate on the Notes will increase by an additional 0.25% for each subsequent 90-day period, up to a maximum additional interest rate of 0.50%. If such registration default is corrected, the applicable interest rate on such Notes will revert back to the original level.

This report shall not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of offers to buy any securities.

Item 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement

On July 9, 2009, in connection with the issuance of the Notes, the Issuer repaid in full all outstanding loans, together with interest and all other amounts due in connection with such repayment under the Issuer Credit Facility and terminated this facility.
