Progress Regarding Preparation for Tender Offer by Panasonic for SANYO Shares (Update)

Osaka, October 29, 2009 Panasonic Corporation (NYSE: PC/ TSE: 6752, Panasonic) and SANYO Electric Co. Ltd. (TSE: 6764, SANYO) are currently preparing for the public tender offer for SANYO shares by Panasonic (the Tender Offer) following the conclusion of the Capital and Business Alliance Agreement announced in the press release titled Panasonic and SANYO Agree to Capital and Business Alliance dated December 19, 2008. This is an update, following the progress reports dated February 27, April 28, June 29 and August 31, 2009, on the progress of preparation including the procedures required for the implementation of the Tender Offer under domestic and foreign competition laws and regulations as follows:

Pursuant to domestic and foreign competition laws and regulations, efforts have been made to complete necessary procedures in jurisdictions including Japan, the U.S., Europe and China required for the implementation of the Tender Offer. The necessary procedures have been completed in the jurisdictions except for the U.S. and China. We proposed certain remedies to the competition law authority in China in order to resolve competition concerns. The authority's investigation is progressing toward approval which would be conditional upon such remedies. It is expected that the decision of the Chinese competition law authority will be issued no later than November 3, 2009, which is the deadline of the investigation. We also proposed certain remedies to the competition law authority in the U.S. in order to resolve competition concerns, and the authority's investigation is in progress. Further information on the launch of the Tender Offer will be announced promptly after it is determined considering the progress of these procedures.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF FINANCIAL RESULTS

PANASONIC REPORTS SECOND-QUARTER AND SIX-MONTH RESULTS

- Company Begins Recovery by Strengthening the Management Structure;

Revises Annual Earnings Forecast Upward -

Osaka, Japan, October 30, 2009 Panasonic Corporation (Panasonic [NYSE symbol: PC]) today reported its consolidated financial results for the second quarter and six months ended September 30, 2009, of the current fiscal year ending March 31, 2010 (fiscal 2010).

Consolidated Second-quarter Results

Consolidated group sales for the second quarter decreased 21% to 1,737.8 billion yen, from 2,191.7 billion yen in the same three-month period a year ago. Of the consolidated group total, domestic sales amounted to 917.3 billion yen, down 14% from 1,065.4 billion yen a year ago. Overseas sales decreased 27% to 820.5 billion yen, from 1,126.3 billion yen in the second quarter of the previous year.

In the electronics industry during the second quarter under review, despite visible sign of market stabilization in some regions, severe business conditions continued as the global recession and shrinking demand coincided with changes in the market structure including a demand shift to emerging markets and lower-priced products. Responding to these business conditions, Panasonic simultaneously rebuilds its management structure while preparing and taking action for future growth in fiscal 2010 as the final year of the GP3 plan.

Specifically, Panasonic implements drastic business structural reforms to rebuild its management structure. In addition, the company pursues penetration and internalization of Itakona, acceleration of procurement cost reduction, reinforcement of comprehensive cost reduction efforts, and capital investment and inventory reductions. On the other hand, regarding preparations and actions for future growth, the company strengthens product competitiveness by creating products that are unique to Panasonic on the basis of super link, super energy saving and thorough universal design. Besides, the company continues to focus on the four major themes of the GP3 plan: double-digit growth in overseas sales, four strategic businesses, manufacturing innovation and the eco ideas strategy.

Regarding earnings, operating profit¹ for the second quarter was 49.1 billion yen, down from 118.6 billion yen a year ago. However, it recovered from a loss in the first quarter. This result was due mainly to initiatives such as fixed cost reduction and streamlining of material cost in spite of the effect of a sharp sales decrease and price decline. As a result of these and other factors, the company recorded a pre-tax income of 25.3 billion yen, down from 84.0 billion yen in the previous year. Accordingly, net income attributable to Panasonic Corporation resulted in 6.1 billion yen, down from 55.5 billion yen a year ago.

Consolidated Six-month Results

Consolidated group sales for the six months ended September 30, 2009 decreased 23% to 3,333.3 billion yen, compared with 4,343.7 billion yen in the same six-month period a year ago. Domestic sales amounted to 1,776.0 billion yen, down 16% from 2,110.6 billion yen in the previous year's six months, while overseas sales decreased 30% to 1,557.3 billion yen from 2,233.1 billion yen a year ago.

For reasons similar to those given for the second quarter results, the company's operating profit for the six months was 28.9 billion yen, compared with the previous year's 228.2 billion yen. In other income (deductions), the company incurred 22.7 billion yen as expenses associated with the implementation of early retirement programs. These and other factors resulted in a pre-tax loss of 26.5 billion yen, down from a pre-tax income of 203.3 billion yen in the same period a year ago. Net income attributable to Panasonic Corporation turned to a loss of 46.9 billion yen, down from a net income of 128.5 billion yen in the six months of the previous year.

Consolidated Six-month Sales Breakdown by Product Category

The company's six-month consolidated sales by product category, as compared with prior year amounts, are summarized as follows:

Digital AVC Networks

Digital AVC Networks sales decreased 23% to 1,510.6 billion yen, from 1,969.0 billion yen in the same period of the previous year. Sales of video and audio equipment decreased 21% from the previous year. Although domestic sales of flat-panel TVs and global sales of BD recorders were favorable, this result was due mainly to sluggish overseas sales of flat-panel TVs and global sales of digital cameras. In information and communications equipment, weak sales of notebook PCs and other products led to a 26% overall sales decrease from a year ago.

Home Appliances

Sales of Home Appliances decreased 18% to 538.2 billion yen, compared with 654.1 billion yen in the previous year, due mainly to a sales decline of air conditioners and compressors, despite favorable sales in refrigerators.

PEW and PanaHome

Sales of PEW and PanaHome decreased 18% to 688.3 billion yen, from 837.2 billion yen a year ago. Sluggish housing market conditions led to a decrease in sales in PEW and PanaHome.

Components and Devices

Sales of Components and Devices were down 27% to 397.0 billion yen, compared with 541.9 billion yen in the previous year, due mainly to a sales downturn of semiconductors and general electronic components.

Other

Sales of Other totaled 199.2 billion yen, down 42% from 341.5 billion yen in the same period a year ago, due mainly to a significant sales decline in factory automation equipment.

Consolidated Financial Condition

Net cash provided by operating activities in the fiscal 2010 six months ended September 30, 2009 amounted to 156.2 billion yen. This was attributable primarily to depreciation and an increase in trade payables, despite a net loss and an increase in trade receivables. Net cash used in investing activities amounted to 20.2 billion yen. Despite a decrease in time deposits, this result was due primarily to capital expenditures for tangible fixed assets mainly consisting of manufacturing facilities of the company's priority business areas, such as flat-panel TVs and batteries. Net cash provided by financing activities was 372.6 billion yen, due mainly to an increase in short-term debt by issuing short-term bonds. All these activities associated with the effect of exchange rate fluctuations, resulted in cash and cash equivalents of 1,459.5 billion yen as of September 30, 2009, an increase of 485.6 billion yen, compared with the end of the last fiscal year (March 31, 2009).

The company's consolidated total assets as of September 30, 2009 increased 405.2 billion yen to 6,808.6 billion yen, compared with the end of the last fiscal year. This was due mainly to increases in cash and cash equivalents by issuing short-term bonds, an increase in accounts receivables, and an increase in tangible fixed assets. Panasonic Corporation shareholders' equity decreased 82.8 billion yen, compared with the end of the last fiscal year, to 2,701.2 billion yen as of September 30, 2009. This result was due primarily to a decrease in retained earnings.

Interim and Year-end Dividend

The Board of Directors of the company resolved today to distribute an interim (semiannual) cash dividend of 5.0 yen per common share to shareholders of record as of September 30, 2009, payable November 30, 2009. This is a decrease from last year's interim dividend of 22.5 yen. The company also plans to distribute a year-end cash dividend of 5.0 yen per common share (payable to shareholders of record as of March 31, 2010). If implemented, total dividends for fiscal 2010, including the aforementioned interim dividend of 5.0 yen per common share, will be 10.0 yen per common share.

Outlook for Fiscal 2010

The electronics industry from the third quarter onwards is not expected to make a rapid recovery, due to negative effects such as uncertain business economic trends mainly in Europe and the United States, a rapidly proceeding appreciation of the yen, weak consumer spendings and sluggish capital investment. Panasonic, however, revised its previous earnings forecast upward. This was taking account of the second quarter results, despite the completion of the favorable effects from economic stimulus measures for consumer electronics products in each country and ever-intensified global price competition. Regarding consolidated results forecast for fiscal 2010, its sales forecast of 7,000 billion yen remains unchanged. Operating profit is expected to be 120 billion yen, an improvement from the previous forecast of 75 billion yen. Loss before income taxes² is expected to improve from 95 billion yen to 40 billion yen. Net loss attributable to Panasonic Corporation is expected to improve from 195 billion yen to 140 billion yen. Net loss per share attributable to Panasonic Corporation common shareholders is expected to improve from 94.17 yen to 67.61 yen.

Panasonic Corporation is one of the world's leading manufacturers of electronic and electric products for consumer, business and industrial use. Panasonic's shares are listed on the Tokyo, Osaka, Nagoya and New York stock exchanges.

Disclaimer Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This press release includes forward-looking statements (within the meaning of Section 27A of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934) about Panasonic and its Group companies (the Panasonic Group). To the extent that statements in this press release do not relate to historical or current facts, they constitute forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on the current assumptions and beliefs of the Panasonic Group in light of the information currently available to it, and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors. Such risks, uncertainties and other factors may cause the Panasonic Group's actual results, performance, achievements or financial position to be materially different from any future results, performance, achievements or financial position expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. Panasonic undertakes no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statements after the date of this press release. Investors are advised to consult any further disclosures by Panasonic in its subsequent filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and its other filings.

The risks, uncertainties and other factors referred to above include, but are not limited to, economic conditions, particularly consumer spending and corporate capital expenditures in the United States, Europe, Japan, China and other Asian countries; volatility in demand for electronic equipment and components from business and industrial customers, as well as consumers in many product and geographical markets; currency rate fluctuations, notably between the yen, the U.S. dollar, the euro, the Chinese yuan, Asian currencies and other currencies in which the Panasonic Group operates businesses, or in which assets and liabilities of the Panasonic Group are denominated; the possibility of the Panasonic Group incurring additional costs of raising funds, because of changes in the fund raising environment; the ability of the Panasonic Group to respond to rapid technological changes and changing consumer preferences with timely and cost-effective introductions of new products in markets that are highly competitive in terms of both price and technology; the possibility of not achieving expected results on the alliances or mergers and acquisitions; the ability of the Panasonic Group to achieve its business objectives through joint ventures and other collaborative agreements with other companies; the ability of the Panasonic Group to maintain competitive strength in many product and geographical areas; the possibility of incurring expenses resulting from any defects in products or services of the Panasonic Group; the possibility that the Panasonic Group may face intellectual property infringement claims by third parties; current and potential, direct and indirect restrictions imposed by other countries over trade, manufacturing, labor and operations; fluctuations in market prices of securities and other assets in which the Panasonic Group has holdings or changes in valuation of long-lived assets, including property, plant and equipment and goodwill, deferred tax assets and uncertain tax positions; future changes or revisions to accounting policies or accounting rules; as well as natural disasters including earthquakes, prevalence of infectious diseases throughout the world and other events that may negatively impact business activities of the Panasonic Group. The factors listed above are not all-inclusive and further information is contained in Panasonic's latest annual report on Form 20-F, which is on file with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

Notes to consolidated financial statements:

1. The company's consolidated financial statements are prepared in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP).
2. In order to be consistent with generally accepted financial reporting practices in Japan, operating profit (loss) is presented as net sales less cost of sales and selling, general and administrative expenses. The company believes that this is useful to investors in comparing the company's financial results with those of other Japanese companies. Please refer to the accompanying consolidated statement of operations and Note 3 for U.S. GAAP reconciliation.
3. Under U.S. GAAP, expenses associated with the implementation of early retirement programs at certain domestic and overseas companies are included as part of operating profit (loss) in the statement of operations.
4. In June 2009, FASB issued the FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 105 - Generally Accepted Accounting Principles . Accordingly, consolidated financial statements for the period ending after the effective date of ASC 105 should contain Codification citations in place of any corresponding references to legacy accounting pronouncements. The company adopted ASC 105 for the six months ended September 30, 2009. The Codification does not change or alter existing U.S. GAAP and, therefore, the adoption of ASC 105 did not have an effect on the company's consolidated financial statements.
5. The company adopted ASC 805, Business Combinations (formerly SFAS No. 141 (revised 2007), Business Combinations) and ASC 810, Consolidation (formerly SFAS No. 160, Noncontrolling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements - an amendment to ARB No. 51) for fiscal 2010. ASC 805 and 810 require most identifiable assets, liabilities, noncontrolling interests, and goodwill acquired in a business combination to be recorded at full fair value and require noncontrolling interests (referred to as minority interests until fiscal 2009) to be reported as a component of equity, which changes the accounting for transactions with noncontrolling interest holders. Accordingly, Noncontrolling interests, which was referred to as Minority interests and was classified between liabilities and stockholders' equity on the consolidated balance sheet as a separate component until fiscal 2009, are now included in equity. The presentations of the other financial statements were also changed. These presentation requirements have been adopted retrospectively and prior year amounts in the consolidated financial statements have been reclassified to conform to ASC 810.
6. Comprehensive income (loss) attributable to Panasonic Corporation was reported as a loss of 59,138 million yen for the six months ended September 30, 2009, and a gain of 122,745 million yen for the six months ended September 30, 2008. Comprehensive income (loss) attributable to Panasonic Corporation includes net income (loss) attributable to Panasonic Corporation and increases (decreases) in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) attributable to Panasonic Corporation.
7. Diluted net income (loss) per share, attributable to Panasonic Corporation common shareholders, for the second quarter, six months ended September 30, 2009 and for the second quarter of fiscal 2009, has been omitted because the company did not have potential common shares that were outstanding for the period.

8. Regarding consolidated segment profit, expenses for basic research and administrative expenses at the corporate headquarters level are treated as unallocatable expenses for each business segment, and are included in Corporate and eliminations.

9. The company's business segments are classified according to a business domain-based management system, which focuses on global consolidated management by each business domain, in order to ensure consistency of its internal management structure and disclosure.

Principal internal divisional companies or units and subsidiaries operating in respective segments are as follows:

Digital AVC Networks

AVC Networks Company, Panasonic Communications Co., Ltd.,

Panasonic Mobile Communications Co., Ltd., Automotive Systems Company,

System Solutions Company, Panasonic Shikoku Electronics Co., Ltd.

Home Appliances

Home Appliances Company, Lighting Company,

Panasonic Corporation

(Code: 6752; First sections of the TSE, OSE and NSE)

(NYSE: PC)

The Sumitomo Trust and Banking Co., Ltd.

(Code: 8403; First sections of the TSE and OSE)

Merger of Sumishin Matsushita Financial Services Co., Ltd. and STB Leasing Co., Ltd.

The Sumitomo Trust and Banking Co., Ltd. (President and CEO: Hitoshi Tsunekage; Sumitomo Trust) and Panasonic Corporation (President : Fumio Ohtsubo; Panasonic) decided to effect, as of April 1, 2010, a merger (Lease Subsidiary Merger) of Sumishin Matsushita Financial Services Co., Ltd. (SMFC), a company jointly invested in by Sumitomo Trust and Panasonic, and STB Leasing Co., Ltd. (STBL), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sumitomo Trust, and have entered into a basic agreement today.

1. Purpose of Merger

SMFC is a comprehensive financial services company that develops various businesses such as leasing, installment sales, credit card and financing, primarily for a wide range of clients of the Panasonic group. STBL is a professional leasing company that specializes in leasing business for large corporations, primarily for the clients of Sumitomo Trust.

SMFC and STBL integrated their businesses through a holding company structure on March 31, 2008, and have promoted cooperative operations and complementary relationships, such as sharing know-how, exchanging human resources and mutually introducing clients, mainly in the leasing business. However, due to the increasingly difficult environment surrounding the leasing business, Sumitomo Trust and Panasonic decided to merge SMFC and STBL in order to further improve competitiveness.

Sumitomo Trust and Panasonic will promptly realize the effects of rationalization arising from Lease Subsidiary Merger, and attempt to improve profitability by expeditiously shifting personnel to business with growth potential by way of reassigning personnel upon the merger of the head office and business departments, and by strengthening their characteristics.

Prior to Lease Subsidiary Merger, Sumitomo Trust will acquire a portion of SMFC s shares (equal to approximately 11% of the total number of issued shares of SMFC) from Panasonic around the beginning of November 2009.

2. Direction of the Newly Merged Company

The newly merged company that will be established as a result of Lease Subsidiary Merger will be a comprehensive financial services company that provides a variety of sophisticated financial instruments, such as leasing, installment sales, credit card and financing, to a wide range of clients of Sumitomo Trust and the Panasonic group.

In addition to such a diverse client base, the most significant characteristics of the newly merged company will be its small-amount leasing and installment sales businesses infrastructure distinctive to manufacturers as well as propose-based sales, high risk-control ability and stable fund-raising capability that are characteristics associated with Sumitomo Trust.

The newly merged company will aim to evolve and develop into a unique corporation by merging individual characteristics of banks and manufacturers. Specifically, the newly merged company will focus on (i) enhancing businesses such as leasing, installment sales and financing based on products, (ii) expanding dealer leasing (i.e., small-amount vendor leasing) with growth potential, and (iii) promoting a new environment-related business with products such as solar loans for solar power generation systems.

Edgar Filing: PANASONIC Corp - Form 6-K

The corporate name of the newly merged company is expected to be Sumishin Panasonic Financial Services Co., Ltd. , and the newly merged company will further strengthen its cooperation with the Panasonic group, and actively promote sales financing to support local electrical stores and sales of products of the Panasonic group.

Panasonic Announces Business Restructuring and Growth Strategy for its Motor Business

Osaka, Japan, November 2, 2009 Panasonic Corporation (Panasonic [NYSE: PC]) today announced that the Company will restructure Motor Company, its internal division company, to strengthen its management structure for achieving further growth. In April 2010 (planned), Panasonic reorganizes and integrates Home Appliance and Automotive Motor, and Industrial Motor Businesses to Home Appliances Company (HA), and transfer Information Equipment Motor Business to Minebea Motor Manufacturing Corporation (Minebea Motor). Therefore, Motor Company will be dissolved.

1. Purpose of Business Restructuring

Panasonic aims for further strengthening both finished product manufacture and device businesses by vertically integrating Home Appliance and Automotive Motor, Industrial Motor businesses, and finished products, which are expected to create the mutual synergy effects.

The Company will transfer the Information Equipment Motor Business to Minebea Motor, which is a joint venture company between Panasonic and Minebea Co., Ltd. (Minebea), and which has a steady competitiveness in its field, aiming to establish a solid management foundation of Motor business.

2. Details of Business Restructuring

(1) The Home Appliance and Automotive Motor, and Industrial Motor Businesses

Panasonic has achieved to see the fruits of efforts in motor business by implementing large scale management reforms since the second half of last fiscal year. The Company reorganizes and integrates Home Appliances and Automotive Motor business to HA for aspiring to survive not only in Motor business but in home appliances business, amid global recession and ever-intensified competition triggered by the financial crisis. Therefore, Panasonic expects its synergy effect and further strengthening of its business structures.

By vertically integrated finished product manufacture and device businesses, the Company pursues; making-decision more speedy, strengthening product competitiveness by integrating black box technology of both businesses, accelerating manufacturing and development at global optimal locations, and strengthening cost competitiveness.

Regarding its sales division, the Company will build the structure to strengthen the relation with customers, and aims to expand its business through expansion of energy-efficient home appliances with worldwide environmental regulations, developing industrial solutions by collaborating with controller manufacturers, and creating new automotive motor unit business based on Panasonic group's comprehensive strengths.

Panasonic will liquidate Panasonic Motor Matsusaka Co., Ltd., which is Panasonic's subsidiary company, for accelerating manufacturing at global optimal locations after transferring compact AC geared motors and industrial brushless motors to Panasonic Motor (Zhuhai) Co., Ltd.

(2) The Information Equipment Motor Business

Further growth in demand is expected in new product applications, such as digital home appliances and information terminals. Motor Company, however, has been focusing on businesses for document fields and for finished products of group companies due to the extremely-severe cost competition.

Toward further growth, Panasonic will transfer the information equipment motor business to Minebea Motor and establish a robust managerial foundation through fundamental reform of its fixed-cost-structure. The Company will also aim for further expanding business by strengthening synergy with Minebea group.

According to the business reforms for employees engaged in the corresponded business, Panasonic put the priority on job security, such as transferring to HA, being employed by Minebea Motor group companies and promoting job-placement assistance. Hereafter the Company will pursue consultations between labor and management in full respect of the relevant employees.

Announcement of a Basic Agreement between Minebea Co., Ltd. and Panasonic Corporation regarding the transfer of Information Equipment Motor Business

Minebea Co., Ltd. (Minebea) and Panasonic Corporation (Panasonic) hereby announce that both companies have reached an agreement in principle today regarding the April 2010 targeted transfer of the Information Equipment Motor Business of Panasonic to Minebea Motor Manufacturing Corporation (Minebea Motor), a joint venture company established by Minebea and Panasonic. The equity contributions to Minebea Motor (Minebea 60% and Panasonic 40%) will remain the same.

1. Reason for the Transfer

Competition in the information equipment motor market is intensifying owing primarily to the emergence of overseas makers, and at the same time, is becoming very severely affected by the recent economic downturn. On the other hand, new demands have been created in the areas of digital consumer electronics, in-vehicle equipment, office automation equipment, high-performance game machines, and information terminals. Further growth in demand is expected in the information equipment market. The purpose of this business transfer and integration is to develop Minebea Motor further by combining the collective strengths of Minebea, which has put its energy into its motor business, with the brushless DC motor technology Panasonic has cultivated for many years.

2. Outline of the Transfer

(1) Business to be transferred

Assets related to the Information Equipment Motor Business of Motor Company, an internal division company of Panasonic, (including related intellectual property rights, assets of related subsidiaries such as the Xiangzhou plant of Panasonic Motor (Zhuhai) Co., Ltd.) will be transferred, and, as a general rule, the employees of the corresponded business will be employed by Minebea Motor group companies.

<Items manufactured and sold by the business>

Small brushless motors (Applications: Optical disk drives, in-vehicle equipment, etc.)

Power brushless motors (Applications: Printers, etc.)

Polygon mirror motors (Application: Laser printers)

<Size of the business>

Net sales: Approx. ¥18.3 billion (for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2009)

Number of employees: Approx. 2,600

(2) Transfer price

The transfer price will not be publicly disclosed.
