Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers
Departure of Executive Officer

On June 8, 2010, Logitech International S.A. issued a press release in which it announced that David Henry, Senior Vice President, Customer Experience and Chief Marketing Officer, will resign from Logitech. The effective date of the resignation is October 1, 2010, but Logitech may, in its discretion, extend the resignation date up to an additional 60 days.

A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Compensatory Arrangements

In connection with his resignation, Mr. Henry and Logitech Inc. entered into a resignation and severance agreement. The material terms of the resignation and severance agreement are as follows:

Subject to continuing performance of duties, Mr. Henry will be employed and paid his current salary of $460,000 per annum through his effective resignation date.

Subject to Mr. Henry's execution of a general release of claims, and that release becoming irrevocable, Mr. Henry will be entitled to receive on his resignation:

A lump-sum severance payment of $460,000, less applicable withholdings;

An additional lump-sum severance payment in the maximum of $149,500, less applicable withholdings, pro-rated based on the number of days, up to 180, between April 1, 2010 and his effective resignation date;

Executive-level outplacement services, in an amount of up to $15,000;

The payment by Logitech of Mr. Henry's group health insurance coverage premiums for a period of up to one year; and

Provided the effective date of Mr. Henry's resignation is not before October 1, 2010, he will be entitled to receive an additional lump-sum severance payment of $508,000, less applicable withholdings.
